THE PERILS OF NEGLECT

It is perhaps one of the disadvantages of the present day that a great many people are compelled to carry on the business of life more or less hurriedly. This haste induces a tendency to neglect the doing of certain things which are of benefit to health and well-being. There is, for example, the constant danger that in the rush of life minor ailments are liable to be neglected instead of receiving attention immediately they appear. Especially is this the case with disorders of the digestive system. People say—"It is only a touch of indigestion—it will soon pass off." So the condition is often disregarded until what, at first, may be simple derangement is allowed to develop until it becomes serious or even chronic. It is necessary, therefore, to utter a word of warning as to the perils of neglect. When digestive ailments first make their appearance they should be attended to without delay. No pressure of business or circumstances should be allowed to hinder the immediate treatment of these troubles, which may easily become very serious indeed. The wise and timely use of Beecham's Pills, a preparation of acknowledged excellence in the treatment of disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels, will arrest the progress of the ailment and bring about a restoration to normal conditions in the shortest possible time. Never neglect digestive disorders, however slight. Treat them at once by taking

"PURCELL'S STRIKE."

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND THE PUBLIC.

Three of the Branch Managers of this Company working their Branches on a Profit-sharing basis found it necessary to keep their shops open an extra hour or two each evening for the convenience of their Customers, for their own interests and the interests of the Company. The English Amalgamated Union of Shop Assistants, etc., of which they were members, refused to allow them to do this.

The Managers, finding themselves involved in conflicting interests, resigned from the Union. The Assistants of all the Company's Branches ceased work the same day without giving notice, and demanded that the Managers should withdraw their resignations and rejoin the Union. This the Managers refused to do, as membership of the Union would restrict their individual liberty to work their shops to the best advantage. The Company requested the Assistants to resume work, undertaking to submit the case to arbitration, but this request was rejected.

We appeal to the Public and all fair-minded Trades Unionists to judge for themselves, and to note what was first termed a "Protest" has been converted into "Purcell's Strike still on" since the Company requested the Assistants to return to work and submit to arbitration.

In conclusion, we beg to inform our Customers throughout Ireland that all our Branch Establishments are open as usual, and orders will be carefully attended to by the respective Managers.

Yours faithfully,
JOHN PURCELL, LIMITED,
TOBACCONISTS, DUBLIN.

To buy your own house—To farm your own land

A SMALL income will not cover the purchase of a house or land, or even a motor car or pony and trap. Things like these, if you wish some day to possess them, must be saved for now.

Whatever portion of your weekly or monthly earnings you do not feel obliged to spend for every-day purposes, represents future wealth.

Spent week by week the little sums which you might save will buy you nothing worth having—in all probability your surplus money will be merely frittered away. Let those small sums accumulate. Invest them in Savings Certificates where they will grow rapidly bigger, and a time will come when you will find yourself with sufficient capital to buy the big things you really want.

£1 back for every 15/6 invested

No Income Tax to pay on the increase

Savings CERTIFICATES

Buy them regularly and they will pave the way to prosperity. They are obtainable at any Bank, Money Order Post Office or Shopkeeper acting as Official Agent. Or you can get them through your Savings Association.

NOTICE OF CHARITABLE BEQUESTS.
In the Goods of VALENTINE J. O'REILLY, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Statute 30 and 31 Vic., cap. 54, that Valentine J. O'Reilly, otherwise John Valentine O'Reilly, late of Kilbeg House, Kells, in the County of Meath, Esquire, who died on or about the 27th day of April, 1919, by his will, dated the 22nd day of April, 1919, bequeathed the following charitable legacies, that is to say:—

£50 to his Trustees, to be applied by them towards testator's Funeral Office and High Mass, and Anniversary Office and High Mass.
£25 to the Rev. James Clavin, or other the Parish Priest of Kilbeg for the time being, to be applied by him for Masses for the repose of testator's soul.
£25 to the Superior for the time being of the Franciscan Order, Church street, Dublin, for the like purposes.
£25 to the Superior, Carmelite Friars, Whitefriar street, Dublin, also for the like purposes.

And said testator directed that all said Masses other than Funeral Offices and High Masses be said in public and in Ireland, at the rate of five shillings for each Mass.

And said Will was duly proved in the Principal Registry of the King's Bench Division (Probate) of the High Court of Justice in Ireland on the 18th day of August, 1919, by Charles F. O'Reilly of Kilbeg House, Kells, Co. Meath, and John F. O'Gorman, National Bank, Kells, Esquires, the Executors and Trustees therein named.

Dated this 25th day of August, 1919.
JAMES J. LYNCH, Solicitor for said Executors, Kells, Co. Meath.
To the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests in Ireland, and to all whom it may concern.

"DEAR Mr. STEWART,
"I am delighted to be able to testify to the efficacy of your 'Powder Cure.' At the end of 1910 I was very bad with Rheumatism all over me—was doubled up with it. I could scarcely dress myself, and was groaning and crying with the pain day and night. In February, 1911, a friend sent me a 2/6 bottle of your Cure, which she heard of through Dr. ——. I took it for a fortnight, and at the end of that time I was a new woman, and I had never had it since.

The Irish Times.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 1919.

Advices from Budapest report that the newly-formed Cabinet is reactionary in character, and that Archduke Joseph continues to direct operations behind the scenes.

Polling will take place at Widnes to-day, and the result will be declared on September 12th.

At the Irish Landowners' Convention, held in Dublin yesterday, resolutions were adopted urging the Government to complete all sales for which agreements have been signed under the Land Purchase Acts, and welcoming the policy of the Government regarding reconstruction and rural development in Ireland. Major Pretyman Newman, M.P., mentioned that a number of Irish Unionist members of Parliament were visiting Ireland shortly to inquire into the question of coal production, water power, and other economic matters.

The movement in aid of the Royal Irish Constabulary Benevolent Fund was inaugurated in Cork yesterday at a meeting representative of the residents of the city and county.

In London yesterday the Stock Markets were again cheerful. The best departments were those for Home Rails and Rubber Shares. Money was again plentiful at unchanged rates, and discounts were flabby, with 3½ a fine rate for three months' paper. There was a further fall in silver to 4s. 10d. per oz. In Dublin the feature was a sharp rise of £4 in Dundalk Steam to 14. Marconi Pref. fell 10s. Textiles were irregular.

Play and Work.

Dublin's great week of social gaiety comes to an end to-day with the Phœnix Park Races. The city may look back upon it with satisfaction and pride. It has brought large sums of money into the country. It has softened—for the moment, at any rate—the relations between all classes of Irishmen. It has given a splendid advertisement to one of our most important industries. Finally, it has proved to an appreciative world that, in spite of our political troubles and follies, the traditional qualities of Irish life and character thrive as freshly and as charmingly as of old. The revival of the Horse Show after five years of war was a success upon which the Royal Dublin Society, the exhibitors, and, indeed, the whole Irish people must receive the heartiest congratulations. The fine display in the hunter classes—though, as we have pointed out, it concealed rather than contradicted critical conditions in the industry—came as a surprise to everybody. The sporting side of the Show never was more prominent or more delightful—thanks to the ladies, whose supremacy in Horse Show Week is now doubly established by their memorable display of skill and daring in the jumping competitions. A "record" attendance was predicted, and might have been achieved if the weather had been less unkind on Thursday. The official figures prove that the attendance on the other three days was larger than on the corresponding days in either 1912 or 1913. If, on that analogy, we assume that at least ten thousand persons were inhibited by Thursday's downpour, a fine Thursday would have brought the figure for the week to the highest total, save one, since 1893. The result, as it stands, is splendid. Above all, it is a magnificent tribute to the energy and initiative of the Royal Dublin Society.

Only the sternest Puritan will censure the gaiety of Horse Show Week. We must regard it, however, as a sort of Mi-carême between the long suspense and sufferings of war and the strenuous days that lie before us. The Prime Minister's appeal for retrenchment and increased output applies quite as closely to Ireland as to any other part of the United Kingdom. As individuals and as citizens we must all reconcile ourselves to economies. Every man, in his own patch, large or small, must try to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before. Capital and Labour must co-operate in earnest if we are to increase, or even to retain, our existing prosperity. Constant strikes are a menace—we think the only menace—to the steady progress of Irish agriculture. Our trade and industry will be handicapped severely if employers and workers refuse to present a solid front to foreign competition. In public affairs we must realise that the great programme of Irish reconstruction will cost a vast amount of money, which will be extracted with always increasing difficulty from the Imperial Exchequer. Take the various claims—all cogent and reasonable claims—which were advanced yesterday by the Irish Landowners' Convention. The completion of land purchase sales for which agreements have been signed is a very necessary act of public policy; but it will cost some fifteen millions of pounds. The Treasury must accept larger obligations if the new programme of housing in Irish towns is to be carried out swiftly and completely. Mr. Ponsonby pleaded yesterday for a wise and thorough system of afforestation in Ireland. The fulfilment of all these needs depends on the harder work and increased output not only of individual Englishmen and Scotsmen, but of individual Irishmen. Without such increase one of two things must happen. We must dispense altogether with the desired improvements and reforms or we must pay for them in new and heavy taxation. A responsible statesman has predicted that, if the national production continues to decline, we shall soon be within sight of a ten shilling income tax.

There is instant need of strict retrenchment in Great Britain, where the persistence of swollen war departments has become a grave scandal and danger. We suspect—though nothing has been said about it—that many economies could be made now in Irish administration, and we hope that Parliament, when it reassembles, will not overlook the subject. Certainly this is no time for new official adventures at the taxpayers' expense. Every one of our public departments must be forced to realise that in these days the nation can accept no expenditure which, however desirable, is not absolutely necessary. The Irish public will scrutinise closely the statement which a couple of caustic letters in our columns have extracted from the Department of Agriculture concerning its recently instituted survey of the Irish crops. We are told that 540 men are employed on this work, that it may continue for three months, and that the "sub-inspectors" are paid from eight to ten guineas a week; the "inspectors," no doubt, whose number is not mentioned, are paid on a higher scale. It is safe to assume that the total cost of the survey will not be less than £75,000. We think that the country was entitled to an earlier and fuller explanation of this large expenditure than that which we print to-day. We do not doubt that this survey was necessary in the taxpayers' interest; and the police, "owing to the pressure of other duties," could not collect the usual statistics in the present year. If, however, the police did similar work well in former years—and their efficiency was never questioned—we think that less highly qualified persons might have been employed now at lower fees. We think that a smaller number of men might have been employed. We think that all—not merely some—of the appointments should have been given to demobilised officers and men. Perhaps, the Department will tell us exactly how many of its 540 surveyors have seen service in the war. We invite the British public to notice that to-day, for the first time in history, the state of the country has withdrawn the Royal Irish Constabulary from one of its normal and most useful functions.

Fighting in Russia.

The Russian situation is extremely interesting. Apart from the campaigns towards Murman and Archangel, which are of secondary importance, heavy fighting is taking place on three great fronts. In Siberia Admiral Koltchak's forces have suffered a series of reverses, but there are signs of a healthy reaction, and it would not be surprising to learn in the course of a week or so that the tide has turned definitely in their favour. For the moment the main centre of interest is the front in South Russia. Here the Bolsheviks have launched a strong offensive, which seems to have been very ably planned. It has met with considerable success. General Denikin has been forced to yield some points which are of great tactical importance. His heaviest loss has been the town of Kamyshin, which he captured in brilliant fashion some time ago. Apparently the Bolsheviks intend to press forward in the direction of Tsaritsyn, the fall of which would be a heavy blow. To the west of this they have progressed towards Kharkoff, but last night's telegrams indicate that there is an appreciable stiffening in the opposition that they are encountering. The capture of Kharkoff by the Bolsheviks would involve serious consequences. General Denikin would be compelled to retract his western front, with the result that the pressure on Kieff would be sensibly relieved, and General Petlura, the Ukrainian leader, might be cut off from support. Yesterday his troops were announced to be within sight of Kieff. Simultaneously with the push in the south, the Bolsheviks have advanced in the Baltic region. Fortunately the attack was not unexpected, and adequate preparations were made to meet it. Already it seems to have been held. The report that Pskoff has been captured is incorrect; but, even if it had been true, the loss of the town, although regrettable, need not have caused great alarm. When the attack has spent its force we shall probably see a strong counter-movement on the part of the Esthonians and anti-Bolshevik Russians in the direction of Petrograd. The greatest cause for concern in this area is to be found in the disagreements between the Esthonians and the Russians. The former demand the recognition of their independence as the price of their co-operation. General Judenitch has assured them that their wish will be granted, but they are loth to accept his word, and want their independence formally recognised and guaranteed by the Allied Powers. It is much to be desired that this cause of delay should be definitely removed. Upon the whole, the position of the anti-Bolshevik forces may be regarded as satisfactory. One of the most hopeful signs is the growing disposition of the people in the north to exhibit independence and self-confidence in regard to military operations. At Archangel, for instance, the inhabitants, who were recently appalled at the prospect of the withdrawal of the British forces, have shown great energy in the preparation of defences for the town, and many volunteers have been enrolled. It is a curious fact—and one that deserves consideration—that Russian loyalists have done much more to help themselves in the south than in the north, where they had the assistance of Allied troops.

Air Force Fashions.

The rapidity with which changes are made in the uniform of the Royal Air Force makes one wonder whether some powerful "combine" of tailors has not secured a dominating influence at the Air Ministry. In its brief existence the Force has had three distinctive types of uniform, and recently it was announced that a fourth was in process of being designed. Pending its appearance the question of ribbons has received attention. Someone has taken a dislike to those worn at present, and so they must go to join the discarded uniforms. The Air Ministry published yesterday particulars of the new ribbons, and told officers, airmen, and demobilised men how they could obtain them. There is to be a free issue. It is all very amusing, but it has a serious side. Why should the Air Ministry choose this above all other periods to decide upon changes in dress and decorative schemes which are quite unnecessary? So far as we know, there has been no demand among the officers and men of the Air Force for a change; in fact, the majority of young officers resent these repeated innovations. They have to pay for their new uniforms, and the cost of a uniform at the present time cannot be regarded as a light item. One of the reasons for the delay in issuing the decorations to which every sailor or soldier who served overseas is entitled is that the ribbon manufacturers must have time to complete their orders. Has the fashion expert of the Air Force managed to "wangle" priority for the ribbons which he is so anxious to distribute?

Enemy Debts.

The Peace Treaty provides that outstanding debts between Allied nationals and Germans shall be settled through the medium of specially established clearing houses on the basis of the pre-war rates of exchange. That is an eminently business-like and reasonable proposal. For some reason which we cannot understand the Board of Trade has decided that a different method must be adopted in dealing with enemy debts in Austria, Bulgaria, and Turkey. Several English Chambers of Commerce have lodged strong protests against the Board's decision. They claim that the conditions under which German debts will be liquidated should apply all round. They support their claim with strong arguments. It is pointed out that, if Austrian pre-war debts are collected privately, British traders to whom money is owed will get only about one-tenth of the amount in consequence of the fall in the rate of exchange of the kroner. On the other hand, Austrians to whom money is due from this country—if, and when, they are allowed to collect in sterling—will have the amount increased when it is exchanged into kroners. In our columns yesterday the Dublin Chamber of Commerce counselled merchants to whom German and Austrian firms have applied for settlement of accounts to take no action. As a matter of fact, payment to Germans and Austrians in any form is still illegal.

COURT CIRCULAR.

VICEREGAL LODGE, DUBLIN.
FRIDAY.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, attended by Captain the Hon. C. H. G. Mulholland, A.D.C., visited the Royal Dublin Society's Horse Show at Ballsbridge this morning.

Later he received two deputations of ex-soldiers at the Viceregal Lodge.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, attended by Captain R. B. S. Reford, A.D.C., and accompanied by the Viceregal house party, was present at the races at Phœnix Park this afternoon.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant honoured Lady Nutting by his presence at her dance at St. Helen's, Booterstown, this evening.

Mrs. Reginald Bonsor had the honour of being invited to luncheon with His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant at the Viceregal Lodge to-day.

Captain Greer left the Lodge to-day.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

Queen Alexandra left London yesterday for Sandringham, attended by the Hon. Charlotte Knollys. Her Majesty, who made the journey by motor, will probably spend several weeks at Sandringham. Princess Victoria is staying at Bangor.

The Press Association understands that Queen Alexandra has decided, as a measure and example of economy, to reduce by one-third her staff of police chauffeurs. Two of the three men will be dispensed with. They will not be thrown out of employment, but will presumably revert to their ordinary police duties.

THE ULSTER UNIONIST COUNCIL.

NEXT WEEK'S MEETING IN BELFAST.

Sir Edward Carson will arrive in Belfast on Tuesday morning next to attend the meeting of the Ulster Unionist Council, to be held later in the day, and it is expected that he will deliver an important speech. A meeting of the Council's Standing Committee will be held at 11 o'clock, followed by a meeting of the General Council at noon. The delegates will subsequently be entertained to lunch by the Marquis of Londonderry.

During his visit Sir Edward Carson will be the guest of Colonel R. G. Sharman-Crawford, D.L., at Crawfordsburn.

WEATHER FORECAST.

General Inference.—The barometer continues to rise over the western part of the British Isles, and the conditions are likely to become more stable. Showers or local rain, due to small disturbances, are, however, probable.

Ireland.—Fresh winds, changeable, some showers, rather cool.

LONDON CORRESPONDENCE

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
FRIDAY NIGHT.

Paraphrasing a well-known quotation, one might say of the late Mr. Carnegie that nothing in the handling of his money during his lifetime became him like the leaving it. It was really a happy thought to endow certain distinguished statesmen with a modest income. There may have been a sly touch of humour in bequeathing £1,000 a year to Mr. John Burns, who once said in his haste that no man was worth more than half that amount. But in the case of the other beneficiaries no doubts will arise, and one's only regret is that some of them are so advanced in years that they cannot hope to profit very long by Mr. Carnegie's posthumous generosity. Happily that does not apply to the Prime Minister, who, at 56, is still in the prime of life. Mr. Carnegie's bequest assures him a modest income whatever the political fates may have in store for him, and that is surely all to the good.

It is one of the defects of our constitution that it makes so little pecuniary provision for those who have served the State in a political capacity. There are, of course, always rich men ready to help a promising politician, and at least three of our Prime Ministers—the younger Pitt, Canning, and Disraeli—have owed much to such assistance in their earlier years. But it would be obviously much more satisfactory that our statesmen should not be dependent upon outside aid for their subsistence.

Lenin's declaration in Moscow that the only efficient weapon against the enemies of Bolshevism is the "Red Terror" will remind students of history of the final phase in the career of Robespierre, to whom Lenin has many points of resemblance. With the actual organisation of the terror in France, "the sea-green incorruptible," had comparatively little to do, but he used it ruthlessly to destroy the opponents of his political theories. On the 10th June, 1794, he secured the passage of the law under which the tribunal became a simple court of condemnation, no witnesses being allowed. During the next seven weeks no fewer than 1,285 persons were guillotined in Paris alone. But it was the last straw. On the 28th of July Robespierre himself, with St. Just and twenty more of his adherents, shared the same fate. Will history repeat itself in the case of Lenin? His tenure of supreme power has already lasted twice as long as that of his prototype.

From most points of view the decision of the Supreme Council in Paris to advance the repatriation of German prisoners without waiting for the formal ratification of the Peace Treaty is to be welcomed. It will remove a good deal of individual hardship and also relieve the Allies of a certain amount of expense. Great Britain alone is maintaining at the present moment some 300,000 Germans here and in Flanders. But I can imagine that the order will not be altogether welcomed by British farmers, who, in the present shortage of labour, have found the German prisoners, many of whom are skilled agriculturists, decidedly useful.

The Evening Standard has evolved an ingenious theory to account for the alleged difference of opinion between President Wilson and his fidus Achates, Colonel House, about which, by the way, the Colonel knows, or at least says, nothing. Here it is: suppose that President Wilson, in beginning his tour to the Western States, wanted to give the impression that, though he was an enthusiastic supporter of the League of Nations, his hands were free, and suppose that it was generally believed in America that the President had left Colonel House in Europe to give a start to the League, and that Colonel House's presence was in a sense committing the President to something for which he really ought to await the ratification of the Senate, would it not be a kind act of some American paper, friendly to Mr. Wilson, to suggest a breach of relations where no breach existed?

The booking offices for the London-Paris air route have been busy this week, and it would appear that the anticipations of the promoters of the service have been realised. Flying to Paris is not simply a matter of buying a ticket and sitting in an aeroplane. The initial formalities include the obtaining of a passport, which in itself necessitates the production of photographs; and the document must receive the visé of the French authorities here before the flight can begin. The cargo service to Paris has been surprisingly busy this week, and it is apparent that advantage will be taken to an increasing extent of the speedy service by a number of the chief commercial houses in both capitals. Many inquiries have been made as to the prospects of a service to India. Under the present conditions the civil servant in India is only able to come home at long intervals, whereas a regular service would considerably shorten the intervals between the visits home.

From Monday next there will be two air services running to Paris and one to Brussels. No regular service has yet been announced to Amsterdam, but Major-General Sir W. S. Brancker, the managing director of the firm controlling one of the Paris services, yesterday flew from the Dutch capital in five minutes under three and a half hours, most of the journey being through a heavy storm.

The heavy rain which set in about one o'clock and continued during the rest of the afternoon was most unfortunate in one respect, for it has almost certainly spoiled what looked like being an exciting finish to the county cricket season. Yorkshire and Kent have been having a week-end-week struggle for the championship. Yorkshire has, within the last week, slightly forged ahead; but, if Kent could beat Middlesex it would come up level, or, if Yorkshire failed to beat Sussex, actually win on the post. In a bad light at Lord's the Kent men made a promising start, but then down came the rain and ruined their chances. At least I can hardly imagine that they can get such a fine batting side as Middlesex out twice in one day.

Talking of cricket, it is curious to think that until yesterday a man was alive who was a notable cricketer before W. G. Grace was born. This was William Caffy, born in 1828, who was a member of the first English team that went out to Australia in 1861. He afterwards spent some years as a professional in Melbourne, and may in a sense be described as the father of Australian cricket, since he helped to coach Spofforth and other members of the famous team that electrified England in 1878 by disposing of a strong M.C.C. side for 33 and 19. On his return to England he set up as a hair-dresser in Reigate, where his shop was much frequented by Australian and other lovers of the game for the sake of its proprietor's reminiscences.

The Intermediate Education Board for Ireland issued to-day the rules and schedule containing the programme of examinations for 1920. The subjects dealt with are general provisions regarding examinations, special regulations in specific subjects, and general rules for the administration of the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1913.

Apropos of Mr. Drinkwater's new play to which I referred yesterday, Mr. Lawrence Cowen writes to the Westminster Gazette to claim priority for a "Cromwell" play which he wrote some three years ago and which is now awaiting production. So it seems that the play-going public will have abundant opportunity of becoming acquainted with "Old Noll" before long. It seems rather a pity that they did not have it during the war. In the dark days I rarely passed Thornycroft's fine statue of the Protector outside Westminster Hall without mentally ejaculating, "England hath need of thee!"

The American steamer Bakulla, [illegible] Southampton, went ashore on Thursday off [illegible]chester Harbour. Tugs went to her assistance and the crew were landed.

[BY] SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES.)

[AM]ERICA AND THE TREATY.

[D]iscussing the controversy in the United [Sta]tes over the Peace Treaty and President [Wil]son's impending campaign, The Times [obs]erves:—We do not care in the least what [...] or what party persuades America that it is [her] duty to herself and to the world, and that [it] will be to her advantage, morally and [mat]erially, not to delay the peace for which the [dea]d craves. We refuse to know anything of [Rep]ublican or of Democrat in the matter. We [...] welcome peace from either, but we shall [...] look upon either as anything more than the [cha]nnel through which the American people pro[claim] their will. Hitherto in the United States [the] opponents and the critics of the Covenant [and] of the Treaty have had it their own way. [The] President has said little, and that little was [al]ways judicious. Now it is expected that he [will] get away from lesser points, and place the [grea]t issues which his foreign policy raises [ful]ly and broadly before the masses of the [nati]on. The effect will be watched with eager [inter]est throughout the world, for the fate of [the] Treaty, and of all the immense labour de[vote]d to it, hangs in the balance. The rejection [of t]he Covenant and of the Treaty, or even a [cold] reception by the people of the policy which [insp]ires them, would be a bitter disappointment [to t]he Allies, and a powerful encouragement to [the] strong party in Germany which hopes one [day] to see the German Republic fill the place [and] play the part of the militarist German [Emp]ire. We do not believe that, when Mr. [Wils]on expounds the documents which so largely [refle]ct the views and the principles for which he [an]d the enthusiasm of the people as he sum[mone]d them to the war, they will refuse to [supp]ort these same views and principles as [emb]odied in the Peace. The President will [bid] them disregard the details of this vast world [settl]ement—the most elaborate and the most [impo]rtant ever framed by man—and exhort [them] to fix their eyes on the great things which [it a]ccomplishes, and the still greater things of [whic]h it gives promise.

[PR]OSPECTS AT WIDNES.

[Th]e Times Special Correspondent, reviewing [the] position on the eve of the poll at Widnes, [says]:—The constituency has always been re[garde]d hitherto as a secure Unionist stronghold, [main]taining with the utmost fidelity the pre[vaili]ng political opinion of Lancashire; but too [much] reliance cannot be placed—particularly [in t]hese days—on the tradition of a consti[tuenc]y. The circumstances of this election are [ver]y different from those of past elections, [even] from those of the last one. The Widnes [of to]-day is not the pre-war constituency. Not [only] has the character of the electorate been [alter]ed by the extension of the franchise [to] women, but the geography of the [const]ituency has been altered. What supports [the] Labour hope in Widnes is the fact that the [adjac]ent county constituencies, which are not [indus]trial but rather less industrial, have returned [Labo]ur representatives. Considerably more [than] half the voting strength of the Widnes [divis]ion is resident in the small town of [...]. There is, in addition, a mining vote [in on]e or more villages of about a thousand. [The] Irish vote, which is located in Widnes, and [is v]ariously estimated at 4,000 and 5,000, has [been] pledged to Mr. Henderson. The ad[vanta]ge in organisation is with the Unionist [part]y. The Labour Party have sought to de[velop] this organisation by greater force. The [Unio]nist candidate has been noticeably short of [the a]ssistance of speakers of Parliamentary ex[perie]nce, and it has been a difficult task for [him] almost unaided, to withstand the flood of [Labo]ur oratory.

[B]RITISH TRADE DEVELOPMENT.

[Th]e Times summarises and comments on the [views] expressed by Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, [in a] series of articles which he has contributed [to its] columns, as to the lines on which our [consular system] should be reformed. Sir Arthur [drew] upon the experience he had gained at the [Depa]rtment of Overseas Trade. The Times [point]s out that, instead of relying, as formerly, [almost] entirely on the Consuls (for the number [of com]mercial attachés in existence before the [war w]as negligible), a body of commercial [coun]sellors and Secretaries is being [appoint]ed, who are attached to the Em[bassie]s and Legations, and charged with [the] specific duty of studying commercial [condi]tions, and reporting not only on oppor[tuniti]es for the development of British trade, [but o]n local conditions affecting British com[merci]al interests generally. These Commercial [Couns]ellors are to work in harmony with both [the] Diplomatic Corps, of which they are a part, [and] the Consular officers, from whom they will [learn] much of their local information. Such a [sche]me promises to give very much better re[sults] than have been obtained from reliance on [the] Consuls alone, but it depends entirely upon [two] factors. In the first place, the men ap[point]ed must be extremely well qualified if they [are] to be of any real utility in an age when [the] technical Press and the submarine cable [enabl]e business men to keep themselves in close [touc]h with the conditions obtaining in countries [in w]hich they have interests. Men of the right [type] and experience can only be attracted by [a lib]eral scale of payment and an adequate [...] allowance, since it is clear that anyone [posse]ssing the necessary qualifications could [imme]diately command a large salary from a [busi]ness house. The second point is the pro[visio]n of an efficient establishment at home to [direc]t the efforts of these ambassadors of trade, [to co]llate the information they send home, and [to] transmit it in proper form, with [accu]racy and promptitude, to British [firms] capable of making use of it for the benefit of British trade and [Britis]h labour. Then, too, there is an in[heren]t difficulty in regard to discriminating be[tween] firms who will use for the benefit of [Briti]sh trade information collected at the cost [of th]e British taxpayer, and firms who will im[medi]ately pass it on to those who are working [for f]oreign manufacturers. In these days, when [the t]endency is for big concerns to become inter[natio]nalised, this is a very real difficulty, [and o]bviously, such questions can only be solved [by co]operation of representative business men [...]d.

MR. CARNEGIE'S WILL.

[Com]menting on Mr. Carnegie's will, The Times [...] remarks—In a modern State a subject [would] respectfully decline an honour proposed to [be co]nferred on him by his own Sovereign, and [unless] he had secured their personal [acqui]escence beforehand, it would be no [compl]iment to the memory or the good intentions [of M]r. Carnegie if a proposed beneficiary de[cided] against accepting the gift. The annuities [to t]he Prime Minister of England and [to] the ex-President of the United [States] stand on a different footing. Some [years] ago Mr. Carnegie attempted to endow [Ameri]can ex-Presidents with automatic annuities [of £5],000. It was felt that such endowment was [a mat]ter for the State rather than for a [priva]te individual, and neither Mr. Roosevelt [nor M]r. Taft availed himself of the proposal. [In thi]s country the Civil List makes provision [for p]olitical pensions—in fact exiguous, and in [fact] not always well bestowed—so that, if [there] is a real need to provide for Cabinet [Minis]ters, there is a precedent for action by [the S]tate.

GERMAN PRISONERS.

[The]re is, declares The Times, nothing sur[prising] in the decision of the Allied and As[sociate]d Powers to repatriate their prisoners [befor]e the Peace Treaty is ratified. Ratifica[tion i]s something of a formality, and may be [delaye]d. Meanwhile, humanity suggests that [clemen]cy should be shown to prisoners, though [the] demands that clemency should wait on [the g]ood faith of the German Government [...] are the chief motives which have inspired [the d]ecision. But frankness will admit, too, [that] there are reasons of convenience for it.

[NE]W RATIONING FORMALITY.

[Whe]n the food rationing system is re[estab]lished on Monday, October 13, the house[holde]r will, states The Times, be asked by the [shopk]eeper to produce, not a ration book, but [a sh]opping card." Particulars of this new [arran]gement in food tickets are given in a [pape]r which is being issued broadcast by the [Minis]try of Food under the heading, "Ration[ing O]rder, 1919; instructions for the use of the [new r]ation card."

FROM "THE TIMES" OF TO-DAY.

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES.)

AMERICA AND THE TREATY.

Discussing the controversy in the United States over the Peace Treaty and President Wilson's impending campaign, The Times observes:—We do not care in the least what man or what party persuades America that it is her duty to herself and to the world, and that it will be to her advantage, morally and materially, not to delay the peace for which the world craves. We refuse to know anything of Republican or of Democrat in the matter. We will welcome peace from either, but we shall not look upon either as anything more than the channel through which the American people proclaim their will. Hitherto in the United States the opponents and the critics of the Covenant and of the Treaty have had it their own way. The President has said little, and that little was not always judicious. Now it is expected that he will get away from lesser points, and place the great issues which his foreign policy raises fairly and broadly before the masses of the nation. The effect will be watched with eager interest throughout the world; for the fate of the Treaty, and of all the immense labour devoted to it, hangs in the balance. The rejection of the Covenant and of the Treaty, or even a cool reception by the people of the policy which inspires them, would be a bitter disappointment to the Allies, and a powerful encouragement to the strong party in Germany which hopes one day to see the German Republic fill the place and play the part of the militarist German Empire. We do not believe that, when Mr. Wilson expounds the documents which so largely reflect the views and the principles for which he raised the enthusiasm of the people as he summoned them to the war, they will refuse to support these same views and principles as embodied in the Peace. The President will bid them disregard the details of this vast world settlement—the most elaborate and the most important ever framed by man—and exhort them to fix their eyes on the great things which it accomplishes, and the still greater things of which it gives promise.

PROSPECTS AT WIDNES.

The Times Special Correspondent, reviewing the position on the eve of the poll at Widnes, says:—The constituency has always been regarded hitherto as a secure Unionist stronghold, maintaining with the utmost fidelity the prevailing political opinion of Lancashire; but too much reliance cannot be placed—particularly in these days—on the tradition of a constituency. The circumstances of this election are vastly different from those of past elections, even from those of the last one. The Widnes of to-day is not the pre-war constituency. Not only has the character of the electorate been affected by the extension of the franchise to women, but the geography of the constituency has been altered. What supports the Labour hope in Widnes is the fact that the adjacent county constituencies, which are not more but rather less industrial, have returned Labour representatives. Considerably more than half the voting strength of the Widnes Division is resident in the small town of Prescot. There is, in addition, a mining vote in one or more villages of about a thousand. The Irish vote, which is located in Widnes, and is variously estimated at 4,000 and 5,000, has been pledged to Mr. Henderson. The advantage in organisation is with the Unionist Party. The Labour Party have sought to defeat this organisation by greater force. The Unionist candidate has been noticeably short of the assistance of speakers of Parliamentary experience, and it has been a difficult task for him, almost unaided, to withstand the flood of Labour oratory.

BRITISH TRADE DEVELOPMENT.

The Times summarises and comments on the views expressed by Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, in a series of articles which he has contributed to its columns, as to the lines on which our consular system should be reformed. Sir Arthur draws upon the experience he had gained at the Department of Overseas Trade. The Times points out that, instead of relying, as formerly, almost entirely on the Consuls (for the number of commercial attachés in existence before the war was negligible), a body of commercial counsellors and Secretaries is being created, who are attached to the Embassies and Legations, and charged with the specific duty of studying commercial conditions and reporting not only on opportunities for the development of British trade, but on local conditions affecting British commercial interests generally. These Commercial Counsellors are to work in harmony with both the Diplomatic Corps, of which they are a part, and the Consular officers, from whom they will draw much of their local information. Such a scheme promises to give very much better results than have been obtained from reliance on the Consuls alone, but it depends entirely upon two factors. In the first place, the men appointed must be extremely well qualified if they are to be of any real utility in an age when the technical Press and the submarine cable enable business men to keep themselves in close touch with the conditions obtaining in countries in which they have interests. Men of the right stamp and experience can only be attracted by a liberal scale of payment and an adequate staff allowance, since it is clear that anyone possessing the necessary qualifications could immediately command a large salary from a business house. The second point is the provision of an efficient establishment at home to direct the efforts of these ambassadors of trade, to collate the information they send home, and to transmit it in proper form, with accuracy and promptitude, to British firms capable of making use of it for the benefit of British trade and British labour. Then, too, there is an inherent difficulty in regard to discriminating between firms who will use for the benefit of British trade information collected at the cost of the British taxpayer, and firms who will immediately pass it on to those who are working for foreign manufacturers. In these days, when the tendency is for big concerns to become internationalised, this is a very real difficulty. Obviously, such questions can only be solved if the co-operation of representative business men is secured.

MR. CARNEGIE'S WILL.

Commenting on Mr. Carnegie's will, The Times remarks—In a modern State a subject may respectfully decline an honour proposed to be conferred on him by his own Sovereign, and, unless he had secured their personal acquiescence beforehand, it would be no offence to the memory or the good intentions of Mr. Carnegie if a proposed beneficiary decided against accepting the gift. The annuities to the Prime Minister of England and to the ex-President of the United States stand on a different footing. Some years ago Mr. Carnegie attempted to endow American ex-Presidents with automatic annuities of £5,000. It was felt that such endowment was a matter for the State rather than for a private individual, and neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Taft availed himself of the proposal. In this country the Civil List makes provision for political pensions—in fact exiguous, and in history not always well bestowed—so that, if there is a real need to provide for Cabinet Ministers, there is a precedent for action by the State.

GERMAN PRISONERS.

There is, declares The Times, nothing surprising in the decision of the Allied and Associated Powers to repatriate their prisoners before the Peace Treaty is ratified. Ratification is something of a formality, and may be delayed. Meanwhile, humanity suggests that clemency should be shown to prisoners, though justice demands that clemency should wait on the good faith of the German Government. These are the chief motives which have inspired the decision. But frankness will admit, too, that there are reasons of convenience for it.

NEW RATIONING FORMALITY.

When the food rationing system is re-established on Monday, October 13, the householder will, states The Times, be asked by the shopkeeper to produce, not a ration book, but a "shopping card." Particulars of this new development in food tickets are given in a circular which is being issued broadcast by the Ministry of Food under the heading, "Rationing Order, 1918; instructions for the use of the ration card."

IRISH NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL.

GERMAN ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.

HERR EBERT'S SPEECH.

DIFFICULTIES OF FOREIGN POLICY.

RELEASE OF PRISONERS DEMANDED.

President Ebert and Herr Noske, German Minister of Defence, have (says a Reuter's Berlin telegram) arrived at Stuttgart in the course of their tour through South Germany. They were welcomed by the Ministry at the Old Castle.

Speaking at a dinner in their honour, the Minister of the Interior, Herr Lindemann, expressed gratification at a South German having become the first Imperial President in democratic Germany. Continuing, he said that the destructive work of a few deluded men had brought them to the verge of economic ruin, and the South, especially Wuertemberg, was suffering from the consequences of insane strikes. The second point that weighed on his heart was that the German States, after the pattern of the French Revolution of 1789, were to be reduced to provinces within a centralised State.

Continuing, he said that without the autonomy, without their own financial administration, even the smallest communes could have no political life of their own.

The Imperial President, replying, referred to the war and the unprecedented collapse in the economic and political domains, and also to the peace conditions. He said that the latter made it necessary to bring the Empire powers as much as possible under one central organisation, though the Imperial Government had done everything to protect the particular character of the South Germans, of the Wuertembergers among them.

Referring to foreign policy, President Ebert said—Our foreign position is the most difficult and unhappy imaginable. If we wanted to regain and maintain the position we need in order to live, it is necessary that, without distinction of the tribal characteristics, we must stand firmly shoulder to shoulder and form a united front opposite foreign countries. Foreign policy had, therefore, to be placed in the hands of the Imperial Government. Unfortunately, there are very few soldiers left; our various military forces therefore, had to be placed in one hand for them to be able to use them without hindrance throughout the Empire. Military administration will be so conducted that no complications can arise between North and South. As the foundation of our economic life, the railways had to be brought under a central direction, but the interests of the South German States have been safeguarded.

Referring to the taxation question, Herr Ebert said that several times as much as formerly sufficed to finance the separate States and Communes had now to be handed to their opponents. This would be impossible unless all finances could be unitedly drawn upon. These were important domains which had been centralised under the new Constitution. For the rest, the character of the Federal States had been completely preserved. I believe, continued the President, that you will all be content with the new foundation for our State, and hope that on this foundation a new Germany, a new German Republic, will be consolidated and develop brilliantly, to the fresh happiness and joy of the German people.

With reference to the economic situation, he said that unbridled freedom was anarchy. Everyone had duties as well as rights, and the Empire's Constitution having been fixed by the National Assembly, elected under the freest suffrage in the world, they demanded that everyone should respect it. This applied also regarding the duties of the individual towards the common economic life. They could not permit the foundations of their economic system to be destroyed in insane blindness by senseless strikes. All that the Empire could do to safeguard the coal supply and satisfy legitimate claims would be done with all the means they possessed.

President Ebert finally said that unfortunately difficulties had been placed by the Supreme Council in Paris in the way of the materialisation of British readiness to send home two thousand German prisoners of war daily. He urgently appealed to all friends of humanity to stand by them in this struggle for the liberation of their brothers. No human work was nobler than the liberation of innocent German prisoners of war in France and England. (Cheers.)

GENERAL BOTHA'S DEATH.

SOUTH AFRICA'S GRIEF.

MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY FROM THE KING.

LORD FRENCH'S TRIBUTE.

The passing away of General Botha in the very midst of his triumphant welcome home from the signing of the Peace Treaty has, says a Reuter's Cape Town telegram, come as a shock to the whole country, as the death of South Africa's greatest statesman and General was absolutely unexpected. When welcoming Mr. Hughes, the Australian Prime Minister, at Cape Town docks shortly after his own arrival, General Botha spontaneously remarked that he had never felt better, and he subsequently declared at Pretoria that, his health having improved during his absence in Europe, he was ready to carry on the Premiership as long as the country required him. The first news of his indisposition was to the effect that he had contracted a chill on his Transvaal farm, which resulted in an attack of influenza. On returning to Pretoria last Monday he complained about his throat, and it was found that he had a slight temperature. He was put to bed, and the subsequent bulletins, though announcing the cancellation of appointments, occasioned no alarm.

On the last day, however, six doctors were in attendance, and at eight o'clock in the evening the Premier's condition suddenly became critical, and he passed away peacefully from heart failure. Mrs. Botha and Captain Louis Botha were at the bedside, and other relatives were telegraphed for, but were unable to arrive in time. The funeral will take place at Pretoria on Saturday.

SOUTH AFRICA MOURNS.

A later message from Cape Town says:—South Africa to-day mourns with a sense of poignant personal grief her son, her soldier statesman, whose name will ever live in South Africa as the Chevalier sans peur et sans reproche. There has been no such public sorrow since the death of Cecil Rhodes. Outward signs of mourning are everywhere, and all flags are at half-mast, and since early morning the name of Botha has been on everyone's lips. Ever since a little more than a month ago, when General Botha landed at Cape Town, signs of affection have everywhere been showered upon him. During the interval he visited Pretoria, Johannesburg, Bloemfontein, and other centres, always receiving the same enthusiastic popular welcome on these ocasicons.

General Botha made a number of vigorous speeches, displaying strong leadership on Union questions, as well as in the matter of the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations. He was well supported by General Smuts, who for the past two days has been receiving a brilliant welcome.

The Prime Minister was always bright and hearty, taking great delight in outdoor functions, attending the All Blacks' matches even in chilly weather. Now the country is plunged in mourning when all eyes were fixed on General Botha's and General Smuts' efforts to build up a greater South Africa, including that of South-West Africa, and probably other territory. The greatness of the loss can only be assessed with time.

A well-known South African statesman, speaking to one of Reuter's Correspondents, emphasises General Botha's greatness in dealing with the natives, who, he said, had suffered an irreparable loss. It is understood that the constitutional position requires the formation of a new Ministry, but at present it is not thought likely that the forthcoming session of Parliament will be postponed.

The morning papers were just able to publish the Reuter announcement of the tragic suddenness of the death, and very brief tributes which unite in deploring the loss to the Empire, even to the world, and are agreed that seldom in history has the loss of one man meant so much.

The Cape Times eulogises General Botha's chivalry, good faith, honest, upright dealing, and sound political common sense, and says:—"His death will be a deep abiding sorrow to the country, which has lost a true patriot, endowed with gifts such as Abraham Lincoln possessed. Providence has willed that he shall pass away at the beginning of the new era, when there was a fervent hope that he would lead his country out of the quagmires of discord and disharmony to the brilliant sunlit fields ahead."

MESSAGES FROM THE KING.

Yesterday afternoon the following cablegrams from the King were addressed, respectively, to Mrs. Botha and the Governor-General of South Africa:—

"TO MRS. BOTHA.

"I am grieved beyond words to hear of your overwhelming sorrow. I regarded General Botha with feelings of personal friendship, and admired his generous sympathies, wide outlook, and nobility of character. The Queen joins with me in assuring you of our most heartfelt sympathy.

(Signed) "GEORGE R.I."

"TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF "SOUTH AFRICA.

"It is with feelings of profound regret that I have learned of the death of General Botha. Not South Africa alone, but the Empire at large will mourn the loss of a loyal citizen, chivalrous soldier, and high-minded statesman. From my personal knowledge of, and friendship for, General Botha, I can realise how you and the Government of South Africa will miss his wise counsel and guidance.

(Signed) "GEORGE R.I."

FROM QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

The following telegram from Queen Alexandra has been forwarded to the Governor-General of South Africa:—

"Please assure Mrs. Botha of my heartfelt sympathy on the death of her distinguished husband. His loss to the Empire is very great.

(Signed) "ALEXANDRA."

OTHER TELEGRAMS.

Mr. Lloyd George has sent the following message to Mrs. Botha:—

"Very distressed to hear of the sudden death of your distinguished husband. The whole Empire will mourn with you for the loss of one whom it was our special pride to rank among the greatest of its citizens. God be with you and your bereaved country in your sorrow. My colleagues wish to join in deepest sympathy."

The Secretary for the Colonies has sent the following telegram to the Governor-General of the Union of South Africa:—"Deeply grieved to learn that General Botha died last night. On behalf of His Majestys Government, I wish to express to the Government and the people of South Africa our deep sympathy. His death is a heavy loss to South Africa and to the Empire. Both owe a profound debt of gratitude to him for his far-seeing statesmanship and unshaken constancy in times of exceptional difficulty and peril. Please convey my own heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Botha and his family."

TELEGRAM FROM LORD FRENCH.

The Lord Lieutenant sent the following cable yesterday to Mrs. Botha at Pretoria:—

"Please accept my heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your most distinguished husband, whose loss will be felt by the whole Empire.

'FRENCH, Viceroy of Ireland."

FRENCH TRIBUTES.

A Paris telegram, dated August 28, states:—The news of the death of General Botha was received too late to permit of much comment in the afternoon papers. The Temps and the Journal des Débats, however, pay a high tribute to General Botha, both as a soldier and a statesman. "Botha," the Débats writes, "was one of the most remarkable figures in the British Colonial Empire. As a soldier he distinguished himself by his personal bravery and tactical ability." The Temps writes:—"It was above all things to his intervention that South Africa took an important part in the war, and powerfully contributed to ruining the German Empire in Africa. General Botha's death may in the present circumstances have important political consequences in South Africa, and in the next elections may strengthen the influence of the Africander Party."

GERMAN PRESS COMMENTS.

A Reuter's Berlin telgram, telegraphing on Friday, says:—Commenting on the death of General Botha, the Vossische Zeitung terms him one of the best hated statesmen of the world, and says that Greater South Africa was the aim he relentlessly pursued. The Deutsche Zeitung says:—Germans have no reason to shed a tear for Botha. The other papers restrict themselves to more or less critical notices regarding his lifes work.

The Board of Trade announces that, with a view to assisting in the restoration of normal conditions, it has been decided that the restrictions on the transport of coal by rail, under the Coal Transport Re-organisation Scheme, should be suspended as from 1st September until further notice.

THE RED TERROR IN RUSSIA.

LENIN'S DECLARATION.

LESSONS FOR THE BOLSHEVIKS.

A telegram from Petrograd states that Lenin delivered a long speech in Moscow on the events in Hungary, saying that they proved conclusively that the worst enemies of Bolshevism were the Moderate Socialists, Mencheviks, and Revolutionary Socialists, who were capable of any compromise with the Bourgeoise, which might lead to the restoration of the ancient Dynasties. The same danger threatened Russia. "Now," he said, "that the Rumanians are dancing the scalp-dance on the remains of the Hungarian proletariat, the masses of the world proletariat will learn a lesson."

Lenin emphasised that the only efficient weapon against the enemies of Bolshevism was the Red Terror, without which Admiral Koltchak and General Denikin's victories would be assured. It was weakness in this respect, he stated, that caused the downfall of the Hungarian Communism.

"This is, perhaps, the first time," the telegram adds, "that Lenin has pronounced himself so resolutely in favour of Terrorist methods."

BOLSHEVIK TYRANNY.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT AGENT'S INVESTIGATIONS.

Details of tyrannical treatment meted out under Bolshevik rule in Russia, says Reuter's Agency, continue to be received, which are vouched for after careful investigation by British Government agents on the spot. Many of them are of a harrowing description, and dispose of the ideas held by many persons at home that the British withdrawal would lead to immediate peace, or that the vast majority of Russians are Bolsheviks. It is pointed out in the official details issued that the Bolsheviks impose their will upon Russian workmen at the point of the bayonet, and a number of instances are given in support of that allegation, and that the only meetings allowed in Soviet Russia to-day are those authorised by the Bolsheviks themselves. Meetings are dispersed by armed guards with rifle fire, with women as well as men killed. These things are mentioned as instances of the way in which Bolsheviks regard free speech in Petrograd and elsewhere. Red Guards and armed sailors are requisitioned to surround audiences at meetings, and arrests are frequently made of speakers against the Government.

VON DER GOLTZ'S VIEWS.

A Press Association war telegram, dated Berlin Friday, says:—The Freiheit publishes a secret Corps Order of General von der Goltz from Mitau, which says:—"In spite of many difficulties, I consider it a mistake that some Commanders should carry on propaganda against transfer to the Russian service. It is so important that in place of the 6th Reserve Corps now removed, another German body of troops should undertake combating Bolshevism in the territory liberated by us. Those who agitate against transfer should bear in mind that the same agitation is being carried on by German Spartacists, Britishers, and Letts."

UKRAINIANS IN SIGHT OF KIEFF.

Reuter's Agency learns from Ukrainian sources in London that, according to a telegram from Vienna, dated August 27th, Ukrainian troops have reached the River Dneiper, and are in sight of Kieff. The railway station of Bojarka, ten miles from Kieff, has already been occupied.

BOLSHEVIK ADVANCE IN ESTHONIA.

According to reports received at Helsingfors on Wednesday, says a Press Association telegram from British military circles in Esthonia, the Bolsheviks have occupied Eskoun.

SICK MEN FROM MURMAN.

Six hundred sick men from the Murman coast, of whom five hundred were British, were landed yesterday by the hospital ship Kalayan at Leith Docks. The men were conveyed to hospital.

BOLSHEVIKS' NEW MOVE.

An Exchange Company's telegram from Paris says that the Echo de Paris, dealing with news received from the Near East, says that the Bolsheviks are now endeavouring to separate Koltchak and Deniken by occupying, if possible, the shores of the Caspian, including Baku. Should such a movement succeed, it would enable the Bolsheviks to intrigue in Transcaucasus, which the British have just evacuated.

The Bolshevik delegation sent by Lenin to negotiate peace terms with Rumania have arrived in that country.

AMERICAN LABOUR UNREST.

GOVERNMENT'S FIRM ATTITUDE.

OVER TWENTY NEW YORK THEATRES CLOSED.

A Washington telegram, dated Friday, states: Mr. Hines, Director-General of Railways, has warned public officers, railroad officers, employes, and citizens generally of California, Arizona, and Nevada that the railroad administration will to-morrow undertake to restore the full railroad services, and that employes on strike not returning to their jobs will be discharged, and anyone interfering or impeding the use of the railroad property will be prosecuted. This is the most drastic step the Government has ever taken in a Labour controversy.

An Exchange Washington telegram states that the Director-General of Railways has given notice to the railroad employés on strike in the Pacific Coast that unless they return to work by August 30th their places will be filled, and the law enforced to protect men who are working on railroad property.

NEW YORK THEATRE STRIKE SPREADING

Reuter's New York telegram of Friday says: The theatre strike last night spread to the Hippodrome, which claims to be the world's largest theatre. 412 stage hands and 44 musicians came out, and were followed later by the entire cast, including 82 principals, 204 chorus girls, 180 ballet girls, 94 specialty artists and clowns, 69 swimmers, 44 animal trainers, 12 equestrians, and 193 ushers and members of the house staff.

Twenty-three New York theatres are now closed as a result of the strike.

WIDNES ELECTION.

THE POLLING TO-DAY.

Candidates { Mr. F. M. B. Fisher (U.).
Mr. A. Henderson (Lab.)

In an interview at Widnes yesterday, Mr. Henderson said that he had endeavoured to keep the Labour Party programme before the constituency. Only by a drastic revision of the methods of taxation and by the raising of the standard of production could the financial situation be redeemed.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, M.P., addresing an election meeting, said that our economic and financial position was precarious. The Government had been guilty of waste, and was itself a danger. When a Ministry ceased to represent the people the only honourable course was to seek a fresh mandate.

THE UNIONIST CANDIDATE.

Mr. Fisher's final meeting attracted a great assembly to the Borough Hall, Widnes, last night. Lord Ossmaston (former member) took the chair, and was subject to some interruption. They knew, he said, what happened to Mr. Henderson when in the Cabinet. He got a swollen head and tumbled off his perch.

Mr. Fisher said that his opponent was allied with forces whose objects were inimical to the interests of this country.

The speaker was subjected to running comments from a section of the audience, and he retorted that he had been followed to all his meetings by election touts, who had tried to prevent his views from being heard.

The declaration of the poll will be made on 12th September.

Mr. Isaac Barnes (Labour) and Alderman Walter Forrest (Coalition) were yesterday nominated for the Pontefract by-election.

HUNGARIAN CABINET.

RUMANIAN INTRIGUES.

ARCHDUKE JOSEPH BEHIND THE SCENES.

A Reuter's telegram, dated Budapest, August 25th (delayed), says:—After all their protestations that they were not interfering with internal politics in Hungary, the Rumanians are now taking an active part in intrigues connected with the organisation of the new Government. They openly declare that if the new Cabinet should not favourable to their interests they will not recognise it, and, further, that they will disarm all Hungarian officers. It is evident that the Rumanians have resolved to have a Ministry which will support their aims for a political and economic union between Rumania and Hungary. Hungarian politicians appear to be completely under Rumanian influence, as they have little faith in any assistance coming from the Peace Conference in Paris.

Meanwhile, M. Friedrich remains the chief stumbling block in the way of the new Cabinet, as he obstinately refuses to resign, while the Socialists must as obstinately refuse to join any Cabinet of which he is the Premier.

ROYALIST CAMPAIGN.

The Royalists are prosecuting a vigorous campaign in favour of the Archduke Joseph and M. Friedrich. They are holding constant demonstrations outside the Palace, and they sent a deputation to the Allied Generals urging that M. Friedrich be permitted to remain as Prime Minister. These deputations carry no weight, being composed of State officials evidently acting under the orders of the present Cabinet.

The reactionary movement continues, Jews being beaten in the streets of Budapest every day, and compelled to flee from the summer resorts on the Plattensee.

A REACTIONARY CABINET.

The new Hungarian Cabinet, says a Reuter's telegram from Berlin, at its first meeting, decided upon a series of decrees which the Vienna Correspondent of the Tageblatt terms more or less reactionary, adding that it is asserted that the Archduke Joseph continues to direct affairs behind the scenes. The Rumanian papers declare, according to the Correspondent, that the Archduke sent a long telegram to the King of Rumania, thanking him for the overthrow of Belshevism; while the Premier, M. Friedrich, warmly thanked General Holbin, the Rumanian Commander-in-Chief, for the restoration of order in Budapest. The Correspondent further says that the Cabinet only includes reactionary Monarchists of the old régime, and representatives of clericals and small farmers.

THE PREMIER AND THE ENTENTE.

The Press Association's Correspondent at Budapest, telegraphing on August 27th, says:—The Premier, M. Friedrich, is reported as openly declaring that the Entente is entirely unable to force his retirement. The newly-formed Christian Socialist Party of Hungary is carrying on a vehement agitation in favour of the Archduke Joseph, and the Entente Generals have received telegrams in that sense purporting to come from every Commune in Hungary; but as all the telegrams are couched in the same language, and even contain the same textual errors, it is quite evident that they emanate from a common source.

THE REOPENING OF THE DANUBE.

The Press Association's Special Correspondent, in a message from Budapest on August 16th, says:—In bringing about the restoration of traffic on the whole course of the Danube from Ratisbon to the Black Sea, the Inter-Allied Danube Commission has achieved a great success, the political, economic, and commercial importance of which can scarcely be overestimated. The chief waterway in Central Europe, 1,700 miles in length, and bordering on seven different countries—Germany, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Hungary, Serbia, Bulgaria, and Rumania—is again available for all kinds of traffic, and, what is even more important, this traffic will be carried on under conditions ensuring to every participant such fair and equitable treatment as never obtained under the former régime.

In an interview with the Press Association's Special Correspondent in Budapest, Admiral Troubridge explained that the Commission had divided the Danube into four zones—namely, the Black Sea to the Iron Gates, the Iron Gates to Baja, Baja to Pressburg, and Pressburg to Ratisbon. The greatest difficulties of the Commission were in the Pressburg-Baja zone, in the middle of which was Budapest, with its late Bolshevist Government. Bela Kun's associates had laid on three minefields in the river below Budapest, rendering navigation physically impossible. Up to the present 40 mines out of a total of 60 have been picked up, and a channel, 150 yards in width, has been opened through the danger areas. There was nothing now to hinder the resumption of normal traffic on the whole river. Passenger service between Budapest and Pressburg would be resumed immediately, and would connect with that between Pressburg and Vienna, which was re-opened some few days ago. The Danube Commission, the Admiral continued, had assumed control of the whole of the shipping of the river, and would suffer no interference of its jurisdiction from any outside quarter.

THE NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL.

VISCOUNT FRENCH'S GIFT.

It has been a source of pleasure and satisfaction to many visitors to the great Peace Horse Show to find that the Irish National War Memorial has gained such an established position with the public of this country. To those who have suffered loss during the war it will ever be a consolation to know that their loved ones and their sacrifice will not be forgotten, and that there is such an assured prospect of the great Irish War Memorial being brought to a successful issue.

The Irish people throughout the world are indebted to Viscount French for the splendid spirit of comradeship with all Irish soldiers which suggested to him the inauguration of this National Memorial in commemoration of their heroic fellow-countrymen who have helped in battle-worn forces to win for us the splendour of the day of Peace. His Excellency paid two private visits to the Memorial Reception Room at the Show, and on his visit yesterday morning, accompanied by the Marquis of Headfort, Capt. Greer, with Capt. the Hon. Charles Mulholland in attendance, he was received by the Chairman, the Right Hon. Sir Plunket Barton, Bart.; Lady Arnott, D.B.E.; Miss Macnie, Mr. H. Hanna, K.C., and Mr. Lewis Beatty. His Excellency, after inspecting the armour, trophies, and pictures, gave a generous subscription of £100 to the special Horse Show list of subscriptions.

FUNERAL OF MONSIGNOR O'RIORDAN.

The funeral of Mgr. Michael O'Riordan, the late Rector of the Irish College, took place at Santa Agata Church, Irish College, which contains a monument of Daniel O'Connell, who bequeathed his heart to this church. Mgr. Cerretti, the Secretary of the Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs at the Vatican, pontificated, and gave the last absolution. The American College was represented in the choir, while the ceremony was conducted by the Irish Franciscians, Dominicans, Augustinians, and a few students from the Irish College now in Rome, led by the Vice-Rector, Mgr. Hagan. The members of the Irish Colony were present, besides many of the prelates of all nationalities and high dignitaries of the Church, while others had previously called or sent condolences. Cardinal Vannutelle, who is away from Rome, telegraphed:—"I profoundly regret the loss of such a worthy prelate, and join with you in mourning and prayer." Monsignor O'Riordan was buried in the Irish College vault in the Rome Cemetery of San Lorenso, where Constantine founded the church on the burial place of St. Lawrence.

PRICE OF BREAD TO BE INCREASED.

The Press Association was informed last night by the Secretary of the Master Bakers' Association that the price of bread is to be increased. No definite details of the proposed increase are available, but it is anticipated that an official announcement will be made shortly. It is understood that the master bakers have been in communication with the Ministry of Labour regarding the relation of the recent settlement in the baking trade dispute to the price of bread. During the negotiations it was laid down by the employés that arbitration must be on the lines that any award given should not take effect until the Ministry of Food had revised the price of bread or flour.

IRISH LANDOWNERS' CONVENTION.

LAND PURCHASE DIFFICULTIES.

THE CASE OF PENDING AGREEMENTS.

RECONSTRUCTION IN IRELAND.

The first conference since the war in connection with the Irish Landowners' Convention was held yesterday at 35 Dawson street, Dublin, the Right Hon. the Earl of Mayo, K.P., presiding. There were present:—

EARL OF MAYO.

The chairman, in opening the proceedings, said that after five years of war they met together again, and peace had come to them at last. This pleasant and social week had come to be a week they always looked forward to, but let them not forget those gallant men and noble women who had fallen on the stricken fields of Flanders and France, Mesopotamia, Salonika, the Dardanelles, Egypt, and Palestine. Let them not forget either those who, though not able to go to the front, worked in every way to help on the war. They had victory, but there was work to be done, and all must help. Although they had peace, there was much serious work for them to do, especially for the Landowners' Convention in these times. There were the existing and completed land purchase bargains which had not been paid for, and they must see to that. Then there was the question of agricultural labourers' wages, which had engaged their attention, and the Corn Production Act, and, in fact, the interests of landowners must be looked after. There had been a great many bills affecting Ireland lately passed. He might mention that their finances were in a sound condition, but he exhorted them to go on subscribing. He thought that it was a great credit to everyone who had worked in the Convention during the terrible war that they had managed to keep going, and keep going so well. It was of the utmost value to those in both Houses that amendments to Irish Bills should be drawn and drafted, and sent over from Dublin. Those who undertook the drafting of these amendments were there in the proper atmosphere, and it was most essential that Irish views on Irish Bills should be made known. The attendance of Irish peers had not been good during the session in the House of Lords. Practically only a few o fthem were there to carry on the work with regard to the amending of these bills, and he urged on Irish peers the necessity of attending to their business in the House and working there. The chairman went on to refer to the fact that of the original Executive Committee appointed in 1887 the only survivors were Lord Castletown, Lord Barrymore, Colonel Cosby, Mr. Percy La Touche, Mr. Robert Sanders, and himself. Since the war they had suffered sad losses—the late Lord Clonbrock, one of the founders of the Convention; the late Marquis of Londonderry, who acted as Chairman of the London Committee; Mr. Richard Bagwell, one of the most distinguished Irishmen of later times; the late O'Conor Don, who showed great ability and industry; Mr. Tighe, who did good work for them; Colonel Tottenham, Colonel Henry Maxwell, Mr. Turner, Mr. Bowen, and Mr. G. P. Stewart (Secretary). Having paid a tribute to the services of the present secretary, Mr. Maunsell, his lordship, in conclusion, drew attention to the fact that their work in connection with housing, taxation, agricultural wages, and tillage orders was calculated to benefit all owners of land whatever, including all the tenant purchasers, and this would probably be the case in an increasing measure in the future, and the Landowners' Convention, therefore, merited the support of all owners of land in Ireland, great and small. (Applause.)

LAND PURCHASE.

Colonel G. O'Callaghan Westropp proposed: "That this Convention strongly urges upon the Government the great importance of completing all sales for which agrements have been signed under the Land Purchase Acts." He hoped that their friends, and indeed the public generally, who might read that resolution in the papers would not for a moment suppose that the Executive Committee of the Convention was confining its efforts to bring land purchase in Ireland to a conclusion. No one at present was in a position to give the exact figure which would be necessary to wind up land purchase as a whole. It would require eighty millions to do that, but in order to complete the pending agreements for purchase only fifteen millions would be required. In the present state of the money market, of Government time, and of Government credit, an attempt to settle the question could be made immediately, or at least in the near future, if the Government were so disposed; but it would, of course, involve great issues and anxious considerations. But, while not evading their responsibilities as Irish landowners, there was one aspect of the question which he felt it was their duty, not only to themselves, but to the public, to press for brooking no delay. He referred to cases known as pending purchase agreements. The amount involved is very far removed from the greater one he had mentioned. He had not been able to produce the exact amount, but it was something like fifteen million; but that ought not to present an insuperable problem. What was that required to do? First of all it was to redeem the great question of public policy, and the considerably impaired reputation of British statesmanship in Ireland. (Hear, hear.) The various Land Acts passed before 1888 were more or less experiments, but the experiment then made was a success, as it opened the eyes of the people to the possibility of land purchase, and showed the great contentment which ensued from land purchase led to improved farming all over. Out of the Ashbourne Act came the great Balfour Acts and the all-important Wyndham Act of 1903. All the parties in the House of Commons voted for the second reading of that Act, and the conclusion of land purchase in Ireland was supported by the two great parties in Ireland. When the Government had taken up a great national question of that kind in the way that it did, it was reasonably to be assumed that it was going to see it through. He did not think that he was overstating the case when he said that the provision of money for the completion of land purchase and the settlement of title was both expressed and implied in the Government's land purchase as applied to this country. The Wyndham Act, as they knew had been for a time blocked in its operation, not through any imperfections, but through its great popularity and success.

TREASURY RESTRICTIONS.

The business of putting the Act into operation was, in fact, greater than the machinery created to carry it through. The block was due to the Treasury restrictions pure and simple. The Act provided a practically unlimited sum for the completion of land purchase, and for what is commonly known as the bonus. With the Treasury restrictions the amount available was only about £5,000,000 a year. When the Act, like the Wyndham Act, was supported by all parties in Ireland—old friends and old foes, as Mr. William O'Brien had called them, and when they bore in mind that it was a question on which the future prosperity of the country depended, they would see that such a serious restriction might conceivably endanger the whole public policy. And, in fact, it did, because when people saw that there was such considerable delay in the purchase of their estates, and when negotiations came, he would not say to be acrimonious, but rather intricate, then in the early stages of the administration of the Act public policy and

SPECIAL EXTRA.

LABOUR UNREST IN CAIRO.

A Times telegram from Cairo on August 26th (delayed) says:—The arrest and deportation of Hussein Kamel, the lawyer leading the tram strike, has aroused some resentment, but probably the feeling is more or less fictitious, and has been fomented by foreign agitators, who loudly threaten a general strike in reprisal. Great efforts are being made to bring out the ministerial employés, the workers on the railways, the post, water, gas, and electricity services, but so far the success of these efforts appears doubtful.

CANADIAN GOLD DISCOVERY.

A Times Toronto telegram of Thursday says:—There is a movement of prospectors from Pas Manitoba to Copper Lake, where gold discoveries are reported. Colonel J. B. Gordon, the well-known mining engineer, declares that he has uncovered a vein six feet wide, carrying a four-inch streak of quartz and gold, with a determined volume of fifty per cent. Commissioner Wallace states that no such rich discovery has ever before come under his notice. Colonel Gordon says that he has sunk a test pit, and that metal was seen down the side of one wall and freely under the bottom.

TRAIN DERAILED IN PORTUGAL.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

A Lisbon message reports that a train has been derailed near the station of Olivaes, as the result of an obstruction being placed on the line. There are said to be several hundred victims, but no further details have yet been received here.

TRANSATLANTIC AIR SERVICE.

PROPOSED BASE AT QUEENSTOWN.

At a meeting of the Queenstown Urban Council last night the Town Clerk read a further letter from the Secretary of the Great Northern Aerial Syndicate, Ltd., of Liverpool, in reference to the proposal of the Syndicate to establish an aerial base near Queenstown, to be used for the purpose of landing American passengers, who are to be conveyed from the United States to Ireland by airships capable of carrying 150 persons, in addition to the crew. The letter stated that the Syndicate had practically decided to fix their base at Queenstown for the Atlantic services, and that a service of smaller airships, to carry fifty persons, will be utilised to distribute the American passengers between Queenstown, Dublin, Liverpool, Manchester, York, Hull, Norway, and Denmark.

The Council promised to help the project by every means in its power, and expressed satisfaction that Queenstown should be chosen as a base for such important aerial services.

FRENCH CHAMBER AND THE PEACE TREATY.

In the French Chamber of Deputies, on Thursday, during the adjourned debate on the Peace Treaty, M. Brunel, Socialist, said that by voting in favour of the Military Estimates they had failed to fulfil their duty, and had committed a grievous crime against humanity. Continuing amid applause, he said that the French Socialists were in no way responsible for the catastrophe, France having been unjustly attacked, whilst Belgian neutrality had been violated. Everything, he said, pointed to the fact that the French Socialists had done their sacred duty. (Applause.) Continuing, the speaker censured the Treaty as giving satisfaction to no one, adding:—"The blood of our fallen and the grandeur of our sacrifices entitled us to hope for better things." Whilst asserting that the Treaty contained the seed of future wars, he did not hesitate to say that the French Government had given proof of great moderation and a noble spirit of justice, and had only laid down just conditions in regard to reparation. (Cheers.) The speaker concluded by saying that the Government must take responsibility for the Treaty, which, in his view, was insufficient to guarantee peace.

M. Raunel demanded that the expenses of the war should be borne in common.

The debate at this point was adjourned.

MARSHAL FOCH ON THE VICTORY.

The Prime Minister has received a letter from Marshal Foch, in which he acknowledges the eulogistic references made to his services in the Houses of Commons and Lords. The Marshal says that he does not forget that if he was appointed to be Chief of the Allied Armies it was on the Prime Minister's initiative, and thanks to his confidence. If he was able to bring the war to a speedy conclusion it was thanks to the sustained determination of the British Government to reinforce and keep up in 1918 sufficient effectives for its armies in France, and also to give powerful assistance in the transport of the American divisions to Europe. In face of such confidence and support he employed all the activity of which he was capable in order to achieve victory.

ILLNESS OF MR. GINNELL, M.P.

An Athlone message states:—Mr. Laurence Ginnell, Sinn Fein member for Co. Westmeath, is lying seriously ill in Mountjoy Prison, Dublin. He is over seventy years of age.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Twenty-two vessels were launched on the Clyde in August against 9 in July, the tonnage being 49,661 against 29,886.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s liner, Sicilian, left Avonmouth yesterday for Montreal, thus resuming the regular service between Bristol and Canada, stopped by the war.

The Clan liner, Clan Graham, torpedoed last year off Madras, and subsequently raised and repaired, has been towed to Devonport with a valuable cargo of Government stores.

Seven men were gassed in a sewer at Hull yesterday, and James Houlden (41) lost his life. Of six men treated at the infirmary one was detained. The survivors were rescued by ex-soldiers, who wore gas masks.

Henry Vessey Machin, J.P., of Gateford, Worksop, was found dead yesterday morning. Deceased was a well-known amateur rose-grower, breeder of pedigree shorthorn cattle, and poultry fancier.

Walter H. Eckersley (43), cotton spinner, of Atherton, Old Hall, Leigh, was electrocuted on Thursday night while taking an electric bath at his home. He was found unconscious, and although artificial respiration was tried for a long time he died.

A terrific thunderstorm which swept Paris on Thursday evening caused considerable material damage, says a Reuter's telegram. The booths and the circus at the Ivry Fair were reduced to a heap of wreckage. Two inhabitants of Ivry were taken to hospital owing to injuries received, one being a man who was blown off his feet and hurled against a tree.

It has been officially announced in Bradford that the War Trade Department intend to issue licences for the export of wool to Germany, following a decision of the Wool Section of the Ministry of Munitions to allow all foreign countries to participate, as from September 1st, in the purchase of colonial wool in this country owned by the British Government.

M. William Martin, Chief of the Protocol at the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, was married on Thursday to the Hon. Amelia Sackville West, daughter of the late Lord Sackville. The ceremony took place very quietly in Paris. The witnesses for the bridegroom were M. Stephen Pichon, French Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Colonel James Martin, brother of the bridegroom; while those for the bride were Senor Quinones de Leon, Spanish Ambassador to France, and Sir George Grahame, K.C.V.O.

FEWER OVERCOATS.

A RESULT OF THE YORKSHIRE STRIKE.

A trade correspondent writes to the Manchester Guardian:—There will be a shortage of overcoats during the coming autumn. The supplies of cloth obtained by the wholesale clothing manufacturers have fallen far short of their requirements, and matters have been made worse by the miners' strike in Yorkshire, which has forced many woollen mills to close for lack of fuel. Most clothing manufacturers have for some weeks refused to accept any more orders for winter overcoats, and owing to the limited supply they have been compelled to ration out garments among their retail customers.

Prices for the lower quality coats will be quite three times those ruling before the war, and will show a substantial advance on the prices that prevailed last winter. Very few coats will be obtainable under about £3 10s. in the shops.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

OTTAWA'S WELCOME.

FREEDOM OF NEW YORK ACCEPTED.

An Ottawa telegram, dated Thursday, states: The Prince of Wales arrived here to-day, and was met at the station by Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister, and a number of prominent persons. His Royal Highness proceeded to the Parliament Buildings, where the Premier presented an address of welcome in the name of Canada. His Royal Highness, in reply, expressed his gratitude for the reception he had met with in Canada, and for the opportunity of making acquaintance with the country. His Royal Highness then proceeded to Government House, where he was received by the Duke of Devonshire. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed throughout the whole proceedings.

Mr. Aylan, Mayor of New York, has received a telegram from the Prince of Wales accepting the Mayor's invitation to take the freedom of the city. The Prince hopes to reach the United States in November.

IRISH CROP SURVEYORS.

540 AT TEN GUINEAS WEEKLY.

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

On applying to the Department of Agriculture with reference to the letters in our columns regarding the crop-survey now going on in Ireland, our representative learnt the following particulars:—

As already announced in connection with the guaranteed prices for cereal crops (wheat, oats, and barley), a certified measurement is necessary for the amount of these crops grown by every farmer in Great Britain and Ireland in respect of which he claims the guaranteed price. In Ireland, in addition, when this survey was about to be undertaken, the Department were informed by the police authorities that owing to the pressure of other duties on that body at the present time, the R.I.C. could not undertake the usual collection of agricultural statistics this year; and, accordingly, the persons appointed by the Department to deal with the returns in connection with the cereal prices were given the duty of collecting the agricultural statistics as well.

The task, which had to be arranged for at very short notice, involved the employment of a number of men of active physique, possessing some knowledge of land and crops and experience in surveying, and either experienced in the plotting and scaling of areas on maps or with a sufficient standard of mathematical training to permit of their readily dealing with this work. The Department's requirements were extensively advertised in the Irish daily and weekly papers, and the men were selected after personal examination by the Department from among the candidates who appeared from their application forms to have the necessary qualifications. Preference was given to officers and men, possessing the necessary qualifications, who had served in the war. The work has to be done throughout the United Kingdom during the summer and early autumn months, and is expected to be completed in some districts in three months, and in others in less. The pay of the sub-inspectors is three guineas and five guineas per week, with maintenance and locomotion allowance at the rate of five guineas. The number employed, as necessary to carry out the work within due limits of time, is 540.

The task, our representative was informed, is an onerous one for the Department, requiring minute, accurate, and close organisation and supervision of the work; but, as some compensation for the loss of the Constabulary services this year, the combined actual crop measurement and statistical survey of every farm which is thus being carried out for the first time in Ireland will be of the highest possible value and interest as a contribution to the economic data of the country.

TEN LITTLE NIGGER HOURS.

["The world is in a state of serious unrest."
—The Press, passim.]

Ten hour day of labour thought too long line;
Agitation followed—then there were nine.
Nine hours of labour, soon out of date;
Bullying and threatening—then there were eight.
Eight hours of labour, foretaste of heaven;
But not quite the real thing—so there were seven.
Seven hours of labour, capitalistic tricks;
Dolce far niente, in the shape of six.
Six hours of labour, too much like a hive;
Hard upon the working bees—so there were five.
Five hours of labour makes one stiff and sore;
Weary Willie stamps on it—now there are four.
Four hours of labour, anyone can see,
Is nothing less than slavery—so there are three.
Three hours of labour, that will never do;
No time for sleep or play—so there are two.
Two hours of labour, worthy of a Hun;
Absolutely paralysing—then there was one.
One hour of labour: end it and have done;
The farce is not worth keeping up—so there was none.

No hours of labour, mobs of starving men;
Universal bankruptcy—then there were ten.

ADDITIONAL TROOPS FOR ULSTER.

Our Belfast Correspondent writes:—

The L.N.W.R. express steamer Scotia was back in the Liffey yesterday as a troopship, and exclusive of three other steamers of the same line from Holyhead to Dublin. By the "special" there arrived some 1,100 further troops from across the Channel, and these passing across the North Wall to the railway station on the quays were entrained with but little delay and sent Northwards to Ulster on two special troop trains provided by the G.N.R.I.

A battalion of the South Wales Borderers has arrived at Newtownards from the Army of Occupation in Germany, and another battalion has reached Clandeboye. The number of troops in Ulster is below the war-time period, and up to a few days' ago there were less than before the war. The principal reason why these troops have been drafted to Ulster, it is understood, is because there are vacant huts available at the two places mentioned. The units have received a cordial welcome by the people resident in the vicinity of the camps.

MYSTERIOUS VESSEL WATCHED FOR AT DUBLIN PORT.

The authorities yesterday were on the watch at Dublin port for the arrival of a mysterious vessel—which, it was alleged, was suspected of having on board, in addition to a legitimate cargo, arms and ammunition intended for certain organisations in Ireland. The Coastguards were on the look out, and Government craft in the Channel were also stated to be on the qui vive for the appearance of the vessel. Extra D.M.P. men, both in uniform and plain clothes, were at the North Wall Extension yesterday—a point where military sentries, etc., are both day and night on duty. Up to the evening time there was no sign of the mysterious vessel, which is alleged to be an ex-German ship.

IRISH LANDOWNERS' CONVENTION.

general interests would not be helped. The year 1908 saw the high-water mark of land purchase, when no less than eighteen millions were represented in agreements handed in, and had they not been tampered with, and this serious interference resulting from the Treasury restrictions not arisen, the entire purchase operations would have been completed before the opening of the great war. The effect of hanging up purchase was having an accumulated block of agreements in the Courts which there is not sufficient money to liquidate—the effect is that, so far as the unfortunate landowner is concerned, he has to suffer a reduction in income of something like 25 per cent., and in many cases, especially those with heavily encumbered estates, their income has entirely disappeared. Even in the most favourable cases the landowner usually loses 25 per cent. of his income on signing his agreement, and in some cases he loses all, and finds that he has to live on borrowed money. That is a position to which no Government ought to commit its subjects in carrying out its public policy. Certainly the cost of carrying out public policy ought not to be thrown on the individual. (Hear, hear.) There was another side also to the question, and on that they were all agreed. The tenant purchaser under the Wyndham Act was to pay an annuity of 3¼ per cent., made up of 2¾ per cent. on the money advanced, and ½ per cent. payable on the purchase money, payable within 86 years. While the tenant might have no reasonable objection to pay that sum on the immediate reduction of his rent, on the prospect of becoming the owner of his holding on such advantageous terms, there might be no great hardship on the tenants paying the required sum; but in consequence of the block in purchase by the Government, there were cases, going back not later than 1912, in which the owner had in some cases been deprived of the greater part of his income owing to failure on the part of the Government to enable the tenant to carry out his agreement. The situation calls for a resolute, calm statement of facts from the landowners of Ireland, and also from those who represent tenant purchasers of Ireland, and demands for both landowners and purchasing tenants should go forward to the Government side by side. It was but a demand for common justice and for the redemption of the good faith of Ireland, and it was now time for the State to redeem its plighted word to this country. (Hear, hear.)

MARQUIS OF SLIGO.

The Marquis of Sligo, H.M.L., in seconding the resolution, said that it seemed to him it was a very important subject for them to undertake. It applied not only to the lawnowners—or those who used to be called landowners—but it also applied to those who were becoming, or would become, landowners under these Acts. It applied to the seller as well as to the buyer, to the vendor as well as to the purchaser. Both parties were losers by the great delay in completion, and both parties were, in consequence, dissatisfied, and as both parties comprised very large communities in this country, it was essential that they should urge on the Government to take steps to complete these sales already arranged. (Hear, hear.) The vendors were losing money and losing interest, and getting far less interest than they would have got had they made their investments in the public market. They were paying increased taxes, whereas with regard to the purchasers of all the sums they were paying not one penny was going towards creating them the real owners of their property, because their lands had not been vested. Recommendations had been made that there should be large measures of Irish land purchase, it being said that it would settle things quicker than anything else, but before any new schemes of that kind were launched those already bound should be settled with first —(hear, hear)—and all existing settlements completed. It would be no use to create further dissatisfaction by creating fresh schemes until all those who had priority were settled. There was also a material obligation on the part of the Government to do this, for they were in honour bound to complete these sales. (Hear, hear.) Many of them interested and affected had concluded their agreements on the understanding that they would be completed without undue delay, and some owners had been made almost bankrupt by these undue postponements. He knew it might be said that they were making rather vague propositions in the resolution, and that unless something definite was done, or proposed to the Government, they were getting no further on with the business. He would, therefore, venture to suggest that they should empower the Executive Committee, who were in a better position to thrash out the details, to formulate definite details of a scheme to the Government which would enable them to wind up all the existing agreements. There would be difficulties, the difference in paying over to vendors stock bearing a considerable rate of interest, and the Government would have to make good the difference between them; but it seemed to him that the Government would be prepared to face a loss of some kind in winding up this, rather than have this perpetual sore getting more and more irritating by being left uncompleted. He did not know if he should add any definite words to the resolution—that they hereby empower the Executive Committee to formulate a scheme.

The Chairman thought that the existing bargains that had been signed came under the old Acts, but if for any future sales then they would want a new scheme. The Government was bound in honour to complete the others.

The Marquis of Sligo said that if it was not done the Government might wipe the thing out.

The Chairman thought that the Marquis of Sligo was quite right, and asked him to add the necessary words.

The Marquis of Sligo suggested that they add the words: "That we empower the Executive Committee to take the necessary steps to bring the matter before the Government."

The Chairman said that the Executive Committee would go into the matter very carefully, and he thought before Parliament met the Chief Secretary should be seen about it.

The resolution, with the addition, was then passed unanimously.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The Chairman, in the absence of Viscount Midleton, K.P., proposed a resolution: "That we welcome the policy of the Government on the subject of reconstruction and rural development in Ireland, and we earnestly hope that practicable steps will be taken as soon as possible to put it into operation." In doing so he gave a sketch of the bills they had had to deal with in Parliament. One of the most important was the Housing of the Working Classes (Ireland) Bill, and in commenting upon it the speaker said that the Dublin slums were a disgrace to civilisation. He was sorry to say the finance clauses of the bill were not satisfactory. Some local bodies had been asked to give their opinion about these finance clauses, and they said they would rather have power to raise a rate of a penny in the £. That was the opinion of some local authorities—that the finances clauses were not satisfactory. Under the bill as it came before the House of Lords the local authorities could force an owner to put a house in complete repair within twenty-one days. That was absolutely impossible; yet if an owner did not do so they would have the power to do it themselves, how they liked, and at what expense they liked; the repayment to be spread over thirty years. That bill was amended, and the result was that an owner now had a right to close any house instead of repairing it when called on to do so by the local authority, and an appeal was also given to the Local Government Board with regard to the time allowed for repairs. With regard to the question of material for building these houses, they all knew that the Government had a lien on all bricks and materials, and that seemed an impossible situation. Now, however, they would have the same power of purchasing material as the local authority. There was another important amendment which they had introduced, and which he had charge of himself, and had to fight for. That was the question of protecting parks and home farms from being encroached upon by the building of these houses in urban areas. If people could step in and build houses where they liked, then the position of one's home would become quite intolerable. An amendment was proposed in which parks, home farms, and pleasure grounds were exempted. (Hear, hear.) He came now to the Labourers Act. That was a most important Act—only one page of it. Under the Labourers Act the local authorities had power to build cottages and houses for the better class of artisans, men earning from £3 to £4 a week, and the local authorities were allowed to charge what rent they liked. A great deal of jobbery might have been brought about by that. They amended the bill in this way—that the rent to be charged under the Act not to be less than that laid down by the Local Government Board. They had faith in this country for the Local Government Board to act in a proper way, and they got that amendment through. (Hear, hear.) Continuing, the Chairman referred to the Afforestation Bill, and said that the only amendment that was moved was Lord Oranmore's with regard to demesnes, that they could not go into demesnes and plant trees where they liked. In conclusion, the Chairman said that reconstruction was the trumpet note of the present Government. These bills dealt with reconstruction, and some of them would be put in force at once. They already had very good Labourers Acts, and they must have seen the tremendous improvement in the labouring classes of this country. (Applause.)

FORESTRY ASPECT.

Mr. T. B. Ponsonby, D.L., in seconding the motion, dealt principally with the forestry aspect of reconstruction in this country, and said that if they compared the area of wooded land which they had in this country with the amount which other countries had, they would see that they were in a very bad condition indeed. The percentage of the total area of other countries under woods might be stated to be as follows:—In Germany, 25.9 per cent. of the total area of the country was wooded; France, 18.2 per cent.; Belgium, 17.7 per cent.; England and Wales, 5.1 per cent.; Scotland, 4.5 per cent.; Ireland, 1.4 per cent. The Irish position in regard to afforestation was the worst in Europe. If they took into consideration the production upon that area they were even much worse. The average yield per acre per annum in England was 15 cubic feet, and in one state in Germany 90 cubic feet. The result was that 92 per cent. of their consumption of timber was imported. Hitherto the care of forestry in Ireland had been vested in the Development Commissioners and Department of Agriculture. There was little doubt these bodies in Ireland had conducted their work considerably better than in England, and very much better than in Scotland. At the same time, the net result was that before the war forestry acreage in Ireland was decreasing at a rate not less than 1,000 acres a year, and during the year it had decreased very much greater. That pre-war decrease was a very serious thing. There could be little doubt these were not the proper departments to which forestry could be entrusted. It had been discovered in every country in Europe that forestry should not be a branch of agriculture, but must be a branch itself. The recognition of this fact by the Ministry had resulted in the appointment of a Central Forestry Authority, whose duty would be to develop the whole practice and theory of forestry. Their work would be helped by local committees in the United Kingdom, and he thought it was important that there could be only one central authority. In conclusion, he said that the only way to grapple this important problem was to begin at the beginning, and he asked all interested in forestry to send to the Irish Committee of the Forestry Authority any ideas which they considered would help in a solution of their own particular difficulty. (Applause.)

Major Pretyman Newman, M.P., in supporting the motion, dealt with the various Irish bills that had passed through Parliament during the last session, and, referring to the Proportional Representation Act, said that it would give the Unionists of the South of Ireland an opportunity of gaining some representation on local bodies. (Hear, hear.) It was of the greatest importance that every Unionist man and woman—the women especially—should get on the register, and be able to vote when the next local elections came on. (Hear, hear.) He was disappointed that a measure had not been introduced dealing with the case of the gallant Irish soldiers. They had had a promise from Lord French, when the question of conscription was brought up, that a bill would be introduced. He had had letters from soldiers all over Ireland asking him if nothing was going to be done to put them on the same line as their English and Scotch brethren in regard to the matter of land. He was convinced something could be done to redeem that pledge to the Irish soldier, and he trusted that the Executive would deal with that measure fully, and give him and his friends every possible help they could to make it a successful thing for their soldiers and sailors. He also asked that when amendments were being sent across for proposal on Irish bills they would be sent in time, and that they would be fully briefed on any questions put forward. (Applause.)

In reply to Mr. Gilbert de L. Willis, who asked what was the position regarding rural development, Major Newman said that under the original draft of the Transport Bill the roads were put under the control of the Minister of Ways and Communications. That power had since been put under a separate road authority, but what exactly was the position in regard to Ireland he was in complete ignorance.

In the course of further discussion, Major Newman mentioned that some of his friends, including Sir John Butcher, M.P., and Colonel Gretton, M.P., were coming over to Ireland as a sort of Recess Committee to consider the questions of coal production in Ireland, Irish water power, and other matters.

The resolution was then passed.

NECESSITY FOR SUPPORT.

Mr. George F. Stewart, D.L., moved the following resolution:—"We desire to impress upon all owners of property in Ireland the urgent necessity of supporting the Irish Landowners' Convention, a body which for many years past has watched over and safeguarded their interests, and whose assistance will be as urgently needed in the future." In doing so, he bore testimony to the active and intelligent interest taken by the Executive in every single bill and every single matter which concerned the welfare of the Irish landowner. There was not a single landowner or land agent who was not to-day a great deal better off in every possible way than he would have been if the Irish Landowners' Convention had not been there to assist him for the last thirty years. (Applause.) He asked that everyone should continue to give every support, moral and financial, to the association until it could be definitely shown that its usefulness had passed.

Mr. Henry Bruen, D.L., seconded the motion, which was carried.

On the motion of the Marquis of Sligo, seconded by Mr. Bruen, a vote of thanks was passed to the Earl of Mayo for presiding, and the proceedings concluded.

EXPORTERS' CLAIMS FOR DRAWBACK DUTY.

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise call the attention of exporters, tobacco manufacturers, and other persons claiming drawback after the 1st September next, to the necessity of furnishing satisfactory documentary evidence as to the rate of duty actually paid upon goods, or on materials contained in them, upon which drawback is claimed, and to facilitate such payments. Persons concerned are advised to proceed upon certain lines laid down. Special concessions are made to manufacturers of confectionery, biscuits, jams, etc., on the basis of proportionate quantities of Empire and non-Empire dutiable materials received into manufacture, or on the basis of materials withdrawn from stock.

DONNYBROOK FAIR CARNIVAL.

◆

The Donnybrook Fair Carnival had another successful day yesterday, every part of Blackrock College grounds presenting a spectacle of animation until midnight. The many attractions were well patronised, and dancing continued in the ballroom until the early hours of the morning. The donkey polo match in the afternoon resulted in a heavy defeat for the West African team, the home team winning by eight goals to one.

INFANT HOSPITAL, CHARLEMONT STREET

Tableaux of child-life in ancient Ireland, street-singers, step-dancing, and palmistry will be the attractions at a fête in aid of the Infant Hospital, 37 Charlemont street, to be held on St. Ultan's Day, September 4th. Mrs. Ely O'Carroll has kindly lent The Lawn, Peter's Place, for the occasion. If the weather proves unfavourable, the entertainments will be given at the hospital.

A NOVELTY IN FRUIT CULTIVATION.

Efforts to cultivate the Passion fruit in this country have not always been successful, but that such an achievement can be accomplished with entirely satisfactory results was recently demonstrated. A couple of years back a son of Mrs. Murray, of Dundrum House, brought home from Sydney a few specimens of the fruit in the refrigerating chamber of an Orient liner. The pips of one of these were planted in flower pots, and in time a healthy tree grew to gratifying dimensions. The tree now covers the back wall of a vinery, 32 feet in length. Some excellent specimens of the fruit are at present on view in Messrs. Knowles and Sons, Grafton street, Dublin.

CONNAUGHT RANGERS AMONGST THE RESCUED.

The Times Correspondent, telegraphing from Paris on Thursday, says—I had the opportunity to-day, during a break in the proceedings of the courtmartial by which Quien, who is alleged to have betrayed Miss Edith Cavell to the Germans, is being tried, of hearing from Mme. Botard's own lips a connected story of the tragic events in which she played a part. In November, 1914, she said, I, with poor Baucq and the able De Moor, was hard at work sending home first of all the English jockeys, and after that the British soldiers cut off at Mons. Many of them were wounded. The first lot was 47, and included men of the Connaught Rangers and the Coldstream Guards. In all we saved 800 British and 700 French. By March, 1915, things were getting too hot for Miss Cavell, who had been till then running her own organisation. The Germans suspected her and searched her clinic. After that we worked the one line—Brussels to Holland—together. All was going well, when suddenly we were pulled up sharp. We had sent Quien to Holland in May, 1915. He was back again in Brussels on July 29. Eight days after we were all in prison.

"The last time I saw poor Edith Cavell was on Monday night, at 6 o'clock on October 11, in the prison in Brussels. We had each been placed in separate cells. I tipped a German soldier 10 francs to allow me to say good-bye to her. At 3 o'clock that same afternoon we had all been sentenced. Edith Cavell gave me several commissions to do for her in Brussels. It was not till three years afterwards that I could do so. Then she kissed "good-bye," and said, "I am glad to give my life rather than that any of my soldiers should have fallen into the hands of the Germans." She was wonderfully brave, but a little nervous. We were only allowed two or three minutes together. The German soldier was trembling lest the officer should come along. The man had worked for years in Birmingham, and perhaps he pitied us.

With Mme. Botard was Mme. Machiels, who was also arrested. This arrest again is extremely significant, as showing that everyone whose secret became known to Quien appeared doomed. Quien went afterwards to her, and asked if she had received a parcel. "Yes," she said. He replied, "You know that Miss Cavell and Baucq are arrested, and that they are looking for Mme. Botard."

How did Quien know this? "The German judges told Mme. Machiels that 'a French officer had told us all about it; you've had your finger in the pie with Miss Cavell and Mme. Botard.'"

MOVEMENT INITIATED IN CORK.

A meeting of the residents of the city and county was held in Cork yesterday in connection with the indemnity fund which has been started for the benefit of the wives and daughters of officers and men of the Royal Irish Constabulary killed or injured in the execution of their duty. Sir A. Dobbin, J.P., presided.

Sir Stanley Harrington and Mr. H. Corker were appointed Hon. Secretaries.

Sir Stanley Harrington said that the meeting was entirely non-political, and was solely for the purpose of recognising the great services that the R.I.C. had rendered to the people of this country. The movement was started by Colonel Sir Hutcheson Poë, Bart., at a meeting in Dublin, when a considerable number of subscriptions were sent in. Sir Hutcheson had asked Mr. Corker and himself to try to increase the number of subscriptions from the City and County of Cork, and, recognising the importance of the matter, they took it on themselves to summon that meeting. A very large number of gentlemen had signified their intention of co-operating with them, and these included the Lord Mayor, Lord Bandon, Lord Barrymore, and other prominent gentlemen. Colonel Sir Hutcheson Poë's object was to obtain the support of every section of the community throughout Ireland, irrespective of creed or politics, and to show their confidence in the R.I.C., as well as their appreciation of the splendid services which at all times they had rendered, and their sympathy with the relatives of those who, in the discharge of their duties, had been injured or killed. (Hear, hear.)

Mr. C. J. Engledew proposed—"That, in view of the loyal, courageous, and satisfactory manner in which the officers and men of the Royal Irish Constabulary have discharged their arduous duties under very difficult conditions, and in recognition of the gallant services rendered to the Empire by several hundred members of the Force who voluntarily joined His Majesty's Army and fought in the war, this meeting of the residents of the City and County of Cork beg to record their high appreciation of their conduct, and hereby invite the public to join in the movement inaugurated by Colonel Sir Hutcheson Poë, Bart., C.B., by subscribing to the fund which is being raised for the benefit of the families of officers and men killed or injured in the execution of their duty."

The resolution was seconded by Mr. J. W. Leycester, supported by Major G. M. O'Connor, Mr. A. M. Cole, and the Chairman, and carried unanimously.

On the proposition of Mr. E. Pike, seconded by Mr. W. N. Leader, and supported by Mr. B. Sutton and Major Coleman, it was resolved: "That, in order to carry out the foregoing objects, a committee, consisting of those present and those who have consented to act, with power to add to their number, be formed, and that they be authorised to take such steps as they may consider necessary for helping the fund. That moneys as collected be sent to Sir Hutcheson Poë; also that the several banks in Cork and their branches be appointed Hon. Treasurers."

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chairman and Hon. Secretaries.

THE FIUME QUESTION.

ITALY'S DEMANDS.

A Press Association Paris telegram of yesterday says—Commenting on the recent proposals made by the Supreme Council to Signor Tittoni on the subject of Fiume, "Pertinax," writing in the Echo de Paris, says—If we are to believe our Italian friends, a project of this kind has met with the approval of M. Clemenceau, but neither London nor Washington have, as a matter of fact, pronounced themselves. Signor Tittoni has had to go back to Italy without a chance of talking to Mr. Lloyd George in his Norman villa. Premature publication of the Italian proposal in England, without doubt at the instigation of an American informant, is unfortunately not calculated to inspire forecasts for its success. It is impossible to settle such a dispute by the application of abstract principle. The Conference should bear in mind that Italy is in possession, and that as a result of the incidents of April the complete abandonment of Fiume would be regarded by her as a national humiliation. It should realise that a group composed of Poland, Rumania, and the Ukraine perhaps is about to detach itself from Western Europe on the slightest mistake committed at Paris, and should accept means essential for the maintenance of union.

MONTENEGRIN REVOLT DENIED.

A Press Association telegram from Belgrade on Wednesday says—A semi-official communiqué issued here states that the Temps, in addition to numerous inventions published recently, printed in its issue of Sunday a fresh tendencious invention from a Montenegrin correspondent regarding a Montenegrin rising, there being numerous victims, including one French officer killed, etc. All these rumours are purely tendencious inventions. There is no Montenegrin correspondent of the Chicago Tribune on Montenegrin territory. Neither is it true that there is any rising against Serbian occupation. Still less is it true that the movement is extending. Consequently there is no foundation for the statement that a French officer fell in the fighting.

Last evening an Army aeroplane, which was flying from Plymouth to Gosport, was found partially submerged in the Solent. The pilot was rescued.

At a general workers' conference in York yesterday, it was agreed that time and a half should be paid for the first four hours overtime, and double time afterwards. Other demands included a war bonus of 12½ per cent., and twelve days annual holiday with full pay.

LETTER TO IRISH COUNCILS.

Mr. J. H. Rice, Secretary of the National Development Co. of Ireland, Ltd., Commercial Buildings, Dublin, has addressed the following letter to every council in Ireland:—

DEAR SIR,—I wish to draw your attention to a matter of the utmost importance to our country at this moment.

The above company, of which I am Secretary, has entered into a contract with a powerful trust (composed of Irish-American and Scottish trustees), in consequence of which we have succeeded in arranging for an advance of £150,000,000 for Irish housing. This will be advanced to municipal, county, district, or urban councils which may require its use. It will be repayable at 5 per cent. per annum (which includes principal and interest) in 50 years, at which period the debt will be automatically extinguished. This means a very small rate in the pound to be charged by the various bodies who accept the loan.

It now only remains for these bodies to examine the position of the housing problem in their various districts, to put forward their plans, together with an estimate of the amount which they require.

There need be no delay; the money is now available, and will be forthcoming as required.

This is a proposition which I feel assured your council will carefully consider.—Yours faithfully,

JOHN HERMAN RICE.

Mr. Rice states:—"The magnitude of the sum involved would, no doubt, cause many to look askance at the scheme, but it is absolutely all right. We can actually at this moment put our hands on £150,000,000 to be devoted entirely to housing in Ireland, as any of the various elected bodies, authorised to do so, can find out without delay. In addition to this, and other extensive industrial matters, we propose to develop shipping from various ports in Ireland to the Continent and elsewhere, besides local coast trade; in fact, we are already arranging for the expenditure of £2,000,000 on shipbuilding here."

IRISH LABOUR TROUBLES.

◆

The South Wexford Executive of the Transport Union have refused to sign the agreement entered into by the Co. Wexford Farmers' Union with the Agricultural Workers' Union owing to the inclusion of a clause that there shall be no interference with non-union labour.

The drapers' assistants in Galway are demanding a weekly wage of £4 10s. outdoor.

The Limerick bakers threaten to strike on 6th September if they are not granted an eight-hours day and a wage of 70s. per week. In Londonderry the bakers are demanding a weekly increase of £1, bread-servers one of 15s., and bakers' labourers a minimum wage of £2 15s.

A funeral in Dungarvan on Thursday evening was stopped by members of the Transport Union, who are on strike. The hearse was obliged to turn back and the coffin was borne by four men. Shortly afterwards the hearse returned and carried the remains to the churchyard. The cause assigned for stopping the hearse is that there is a strike at the house at which the coffin was made.

The Nenagh tailors' strike has ended, and the men resumed work yesterday morning.

A meeting of the Cork Gas Co.'s employés who are on strike considered last night an offer by the directors of the company that the points in dispute be referred to the Cork Conciliation Board, but arrived at no decision, and adjourned the meeting until this evening. Picketting has been suspended.

Nearly forty men are affected by a strike at the flour mills of Messrs. Mack, Love, Jacob, and Young, Cork, for a 44-hours week and a weekly wage of 50s.

OBITUARY.

MR. M. B. HAMERTON.

The death has taken place of Mr. Matthew Millett Hamerton, at his residence, Rathronan, Clonmel, at the age of 79 years. He was the only surviving son of the late General John Millett Hamerton, C.B., of Orchardstown, who served all through the Peninsular War, and commanded his regiment, the 44th East Essex, at Waterloo. Mr. Hamerton is survived by his sister, Mrs. Kennefick, Auburn, Clonmel. He was married to Josephine E., daughter of the late Dr. Joseph Parker, of Limerick. At the funeral, which took place to the family burial ground at Rathronan, the chief mourners were—Messrs. Matthew Hamerton, Dublin; Albert Hamerton, Dublin (sons); Mrs. Robinson, Dublin, and Miss Josephine Hamerton, Rathronan (daughters); Mrs. Kennefick, Auburn, Clonmel (sister).

DUBLIN BUTTER CASE.

SUMMONSES AGAINST CREAMERY COMPANY.

In the Southern Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Cooper, seven summonses were heard against the Tipperary Co-operative Creamery, Ltd., for having sold, to the prejudice of Messrs. John Leonard and Sons, Little Green street, Dublin, butter alleged not to be of the nature and quality of the article contracted for, and stated to contain an excess of water.

Mr. T. F. Burke, Assistant Law Agent to the Dublin Corporation, prosecuted; Mr. W. Carrigan, K.C. (instructed by Mr. John O'Dwyer), appeared for the defendants; and Mr. D. J. O'Brien, K.C. (instructed by Messrs. W. G. Bradley and Sons), for the Dublin Wholesale Produce Association.

Inspector T. Egan deposed to having taken on July 3rd in the goods store at Kingsbridge four samples of the butter which was consigned to Messrs. Leonard. Afterwards he received certificates showing that the four samples contained 20 per cent., 17.3 per cent., 19.6 per cent., and 16.6 per cent. of water respectively.

Mr. Alfred Tutty, Food Inspector for the Corporation, stated that at the same time he also took four samples of butter from different boxes. The first sample was all right, the second contained 19/6 of water, the third 19.5 per cent., and the fourth 17 per cent.

Mr. Peter P. Leonard, a member of the complainant firm, said that the butter was invoiced to the firm at 258/- per cwt. At that time the best produce butter was 260/- per cwt., and second grade butter was 254/-. The quality consigned to his firm was intermediate grade.

Mr. Carrigan—The butter is guaranteed to contain no more than 16 per cent. water.

Replying to Mr. Burke, witness said that his firm sent out the butter as it came from the creamery without opening the boxes for examination.

To Mr. Carrigan—The butter was delivered at Tipperary Station and carried forward for them to Kingsbridge, they themselves paying carriage.

Mr. Carrigan—Was it not the terms of your contract that the butter be delivered at the station and that you pay the carriage forward?

Mr. Burke objected.

Mr. Carrigan submitted that the prosecution could only be brought where the delivery of the goods took place—viz., at Tipperary.

For the defence, Mr. Edward O'Callaghan, manager of the creamery, stated that the butter consigned to Messrs. Leonard was produced in the same way as all the other butter. The arrangement was that the customers paid the carriage.

Mr. Cooper reserved judgment.

AUCTION SALES.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

CORN AND MILK PRICES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—The questions of grain-growing and milk-production are without doubt two of the most important problems at the present moment. It is feared that when the next agricultural returns are published they will show a very considerable reduction in the amount of land under arable cultivation. Looking at the present situation as it stands, is the farmer wise, even in the face of high wages, to lay his land down to grass? Many interested in farming will ask: "Though wheat can at the moment be grown at a profit, how long will this state of things continue?" Is there one farmer in a hundred who realises to what extent the value of the sovereign, particularly in America, affects the final issue and touches both his pocket and calling? Yet the subject is of the greatest significance to him. For argument's sake we will suppose that wheat in America drops to 60s. per quarter of 480lbs., or $15 per quarter, and the sovereign depreciates to 16s., or $4. He would be a brave man who would prophesy in the reverse direction. Such corn could not be put on the English market under the present value of approximation—75s. per quarter—after allowing for cost of freight, dock charges, etc.

With the sovereign at such a figure, it is clear that we should have to pay that amount for all the wheat we wished to buy. Practically, there are not any other markets to fear. Russia is out of the running for years. France, Serbia, Belgium, and Germany will be buyers rather than sellers. As a result of the Government's action in fixing a maximum price of wheat at 75s. and providing a subsidy for bread, no other country that was fighting is getting the staff of life so cheaply. Those who are laying down their lands to grass should be commiserated with for the losses they will incur.

Turning to milk, there is a general outcry against the farmer as to the price he is demanding, but is this fair? After going very carefully into the cost, I am open to correction if anyone can prove that the figure is excessive—viz., food, labour, proportion of rent, depreciation, distribution, etc., as less than 1s. 5d. per gallon, and this during the summer months. If losses of animals are to be taken into account, it is not enough. Milking-cows now cost from £45 to £60 each. What tradesmen would be satisfied with such a small return on such an outlay? Nothing in the foregoing figures has been allowed for interest on capital. If everything is calculated, at least another 3d. per gallon must be added. During the winter months the increased cost will, this year, be certainly not less than another 4d. per gallon, both roots and hay being scarce.

Many readers will, perhaps, say: What about butter-making? That, I fear, is a worse story. Take only 2½ gallons of milk to make 1lb. of butter: and this year owing to the poor grass it is nearer three gallons, unless it is Jersey milk—and this in the summer months. The result is that 2½ gallons at 1s. 5d. is 3s. 6½d. per lb. No allowance has been made for the skim-milk, as it would not pay the cost of churning. What inducement has the farmer to make butter and sell at 2s. 8d. per lb. and deliver to the local shop?—Yours, etc.,

EDWARD T. HUMPHRIES.

AMERICAN COAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—May I beg a little space for a reference to your leading article of to-day on the subject of American coal, in which it is remarked: "The importation of vast quantities of cheap American coal into Ireland might not be an unmixed blessing. Has the Dublin Industrial Development Association considered its probable effect on the development of the Irish mines?" I may point out that the Association for years and years has hammered at the question of developing Irish mines, and it is in large degree thanks to our efforts that at long last an attempt at providing railway communication to three of the coal areas was made. After incredible delays the railway now runs up to the pit-mouth in one case, though in two other cases the lines are still under construction. Allowing for the largest possible ratio of increase in output—say, a tenfold turnover—as a result of improved communications and increased facilities for working, the entire production of our Irish mines would still go less than one-fifth of the way towards supplying the Irish demand. The latest figures in our possession show that the output of Irish coal in 1916 was 89,833 tons at a time when our imports totalled four and three-quarter million tons—less than one-fiftieth of the quantity required: not a week's supply. These recent years of scarcity and excessive prices for British coal have only very slightly, if at all, altered the situation in favour of our Irish mines, and, as all the industries of the country are dependent on coal not only for their prosperity, but for their existence, it is readily understandable that an Industrial Development Association should welcome an adequate supply of coal from America, which you rightly admit, if the statements supplied to us are substantiated, "would be far cheaper than the scanty supplies which now reach us from British mines." There would seem to be no valid reason why Irish industrialists should continue to be harassed by scantiness of supplies and extravagantly high prices for British coal if the United States can come to our assistance in the matter.

This Association has a very influential committee of business men dealing with the problem of increasing supplies from Irish mines, and they will not relax any of their efforts to this end. The concluding sentence of our note of yesterday was: "Failing anything like an adequate supply of coal from Irish mines, the advantages of procuring sufficient quantities at competitive rates from the United States are manifold."—Yours, etc.,

E. N. SOMERS, Secretary,
Dublin Industrial Development Association.

IRISH ROADS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—In your paper of the 20th inst. an Irishman residing in England draws attention to the difference in the condition of the roads in England and Ireland, to the detriment of the latter. He suggests that the County Councils in Ireland should run char-à-bancs to places where there are no railroads. There are many such places in Ireland, quite large towns, where some kind of transport is badly needed; and the profits might be used for improving the roads, which are in a deplorable state owing to the war, even here in the North. This seems to me to be a good idea. It is strange that something of the kind has not been attempted by the different County Councils, to relieve the taxpayers and improve the road conditions. From experience I would say that the running of char-à-bancs or other motor transport could be made a very profitable business, as well as a great convenience to the public. I, in common with many others who are much on the roads, certainly hope that things will soon be improved.—Yours, etc.,

THE SPEECH OF IRELAND.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—The idioms given by "K." in his letter in to-day's Irish Times are delightfully expressive, and all that; but why does he try to carry on the English novelist and music hall convention that Irish people pronounce the diphthong "ee," or even "ei" or "ie," as "ay"? I am prepared to bet anything that the Abbeyleix man never said "spacheless" unless he was quoting out of an English comic paper like Punch or Comic Cuts.

The diphthong "ea" often gets the sound of "ay" in words like "tea," "beat," etc.; but words like "speech," "priest," "believe" are pronounced correctly—never like "spache," "praste," "belave."—Yours, etc.,

"SNOIRSE."

BELFAST CHURCH LADS' BRIGADE CADETS.

Major R. H. Moore, Acting Commander of the 1st Down and Connor and Dromore Cadet Battalion of the Church Lads' Brigade (attached 16th King's Royal Rifle Corps), has received the following letter from General Robert Scallen, for the Director-General, Territorial and Volunteer Forces:—"War Office.—Sir,—I am directed to inform you that the attention of this office has been drawn to the excellent services rendered by you in connection with your unit. I am accordingly to assure you of the cordial appreciation and thanks of this office."

Major Moore succeeded Colonel H. N. Head in the command of the battalion when the latter went on active service in 1914.

The London Gazette last night announces that the King has been pleased to declare by Warrant that Gertrude Mary O'Bryen, widow of Ernest Adolphus O'Bryen, late Mayor of Hampstead, upon whom His Majesty had intended to confer the title of a Knight Bachelor, but who died before the intention could be carried into effect, shall enjoy the same style, title, place, and precedence to which she would have been entitled had her husband survived.

MALICIOUS INJURY CLAIM.—Limerick County Council have received a compensation claim for £125 on behalf of a number of farmers for alleged malicious damage to cars which were conveying coal to Clouneagh Creamery, where the workpeople were on strike.

SOCIAL JOTTINGS AT PHŒNIX PARK RACES.

(BY OUR LADY CORRESPONDENT.)

If it were not for the Phœnix Park Club fixture immediately following the Horse Show, Dublin's great week would fizzle out in very tame fashion, but the two days' racing supplies just the right excitement for the sport-loving public, whose spirits have been keyed up to just the right pitch by the great equine display at the Show, and the brilliant exhibitions of daring horsemanship given in the various matches on the All-Ireland Polo Ground. An early improvement in the weather was hailed with glee, and as the day wore on and the sky became bluer, and the sunshine brighter, there was great rejoicing. Long before the hour fixed for the first race the endless procession of motors, cars, cabs, motor bicycles, etc., en route for the Park, pointed to the attendance being on an unusually large scale. Along the main drive two lines of vehicles, without a break, were to be seen for the best part of an hour, and strangers freely expressed their admiration of the beauty of the scenery and the excellence of the roadway on which the motors spun along without a jolt or jar. On arrival at the Ashtown Gate a very animated scene was witnessed, as vehicle after vehicle set down its load of passengers, who, passing through the Race Club's gates, found still more to admire in the trimly kept lawns and the pleasure grounds, now glowing with autumn's richly tinted flowers. At the back of the Viceregal Stand a raised bed of scarlet geraniums claimed more than passing attention, and groups of flowering plants, picturesquely displayed, helped to make up a charming picture.

The Viceregal Stand, over which was flying the Union Jack, was occupied by the Lord Lieutenant and a large party from the Viceregal Lodge, as well as the Chief Secretary and Mrs. Macpherson with the members of their house party, and General Sir Frederick Shaw, Commanding the Forces in Ireland, who was attended by several members of his Staff. His Excellency, who showed a keen interest in the various events, arrived in time for the first race, and was accorded a hearty welcome. Several times during the afternoon he left the stand, and walked about the members' enclosure, greeting many friends and acquaintances. Though all the races were interesting, with the exception of the walk-over in the Park Plate, none excited as much interest as the Clonsilla Plate, which was carried off by Colonel Charteris' Cahir. "It's a long way to Tipperary," said a cheery young soldier, as he backed his choice, "but I think Cahir will get there," and Cahir certainly did, and in fine style after a well-run race.

As the visitors walked backwards and forwards to the paddock some idea of the great numbers was obtainable, but the recognition of faces was no easy task owing to the crowds. On the Viceregal stand the Marquis and Marchioness of Headfort were with His Excellency, Lady Headfort wearing mole crepe de chine, with handsome furs, and ostrich feather trimming on her hat. The Marchioness of Londonderry in an ivory velour cloth coat and skirt, lovely sables, and a long string of superb pearls was also of the party, but made her way to the lawn several times. Lady Milbanke, who strolled round with the Lord Lieutenant, was dressed in a bright tailormade suit, with a red hat to match. Mrs. Hubert Crichton wore a smart grey costume, and her sister, Mrs. Clement Gore, had a mole-coloured gown, trimmed with fringe, and a brightly embroidered motif in the front of her hat. Lord and Lady Castlemaine with their daughter, the Hon. Eva Handcock, came with the Viceregal party, as was also the Earl and Countess of Shaftesbury. The Marchioness Conyngham was dressed in black, with a handsome black satin cloak. The Ladies Eva and Margaret Forbes had dark tailormade coats and skirts with black. Lady Edina Ainsworth's crocus-coloured charmeuse gown, with bands of white fur, and her purple coat cloak was trimmed with light fox. Lady Arnott, who entertained a large party at afternoon tea on her private stand, was wearing a smart black costume and high ospreys in her toque. She was accompanied by her daughters, Lady de Freyne and Mrs. Van Cutsem. The latter was dressed in golden bronze charmeuse, with a draped cape to match, beautifully embroidered in shaded gold thread, and her toque with a long veil, corresponded in colour. The Hon. Mrs. Kenneth Mackay wore a long blue cloth coat, with bands of fringe made of white, green, and black beads, and a long veil of red patterned net fell from her red hat. Lady Talbot Power's silk toilette was trimmed with a deep fall of black and white fringe.

The Hon. Lady M'Calmont, who was one of the owners interested in the day's racing, wore a very dark iron grey suiting coat and skirt. Lady Myles, who is just back from a cruise round Ireland, had a coat and skirt of putty grey cloth. The Hon. Mrs. Dewhurst wore a suit of russet green cloth, a brown hat, and fox furs. Mrs. Bury Barry was in a black costume, and a small feather-trimmed hat. The Hon. Lily French, Mrs. Stafford King Harman, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. and Miss Bennet, and Miss Barrington were amongst the members of the Viceregal house party who were on the stand, the men of the party including the Marquis of Londonderry, the Earl of Shaftesbury, the Earl of Bective, Lord Chaplin, Lord Castlereagh, the Right Hon. Frank Brook, Captain Seymour, Captain Hon. C. Mulholland, Mr. E. Saunderson, Captain Wyndham Quin, Captain Reford and several others.

Tea time revealed the presence of many more well-known people who had been keenly watching the racing beside the railings. Captain Anthony Maude was escorting his daughter, who was dressed in pastel blue tweed. Miss José Collins, who has been playing in "The Maid of the Mountains" at the Gaiety, was enjoying the afternoon's outing, and her beautiful wrap cloak of choice moleskins was much admired. Sir Timothy O'Brien brought two of his daughters in black toilettes and small toques. Mrs. Nolan's costume was of a pretty shade of brown crêpe de chine, and her hat was wreathed with brown ostrich feathers. Mrs. Locke had a dark costume, and large black hat. Sir George Brooke was chaperoning his daughter. Captain and Mrs. Keith and Miss Pim, Miss K. Lloyd wearing an olive green coat frock, and Miss Pratt in black, with a smart moleskin coat, were with friends. Major and Mrs. Faudel Phillips, Miss McNeile, Mrs. Owen Forbes in dull green cloth, with flounces of fringe to match; Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Fitzpatrick, Sir Walter and Lady Nugent, Miss Stiles, Mrs. and Miss Hume, Captain and Mrs. Dennis, Miss Haughton, Mrs. Charles Waters, Mrs. and Miss Fetherstonhaugh, Mrs. and Miss Jackson, and Mrs. and Miss Evans were but a tithe of the visitors, who included many strangers from across the Channel. On the Stewards' Stand there was a large gathering of all the most important men in the Irish world of sport.

Racing was brought to a conclusion promptly to time; and the arrangements for dealing with the despatch of such an enormous number of motors and cars worked very smoothly, and the return to the city was made without any hitches or delays. Many people assembled in the Park to watch the procession, which is expected to be even greater to-day, should the weather, which promised well last night, continue fine.

MR. ROBERT CRAIGIE'S SHEEP SALE.

Just 4,000 head of sheep were penned in the Dublin Cattle Market yesterday for Mr. Robert Craigie's opening sale for the season. The bulk of the entries were breeding ewes, with a sprinkling of store wethers and lambs. There was a representative attendance of buyers, and trade was steady throughout the sale, very few lots failing to find purchasers. The prices compared favourably with those of last year, and in one or two cases were even better.

The following were present, or represented:—The Duke of Leinster, Charles C. Webb, D.L.; J. W. Young, R. Ringwood, R. W. Roe, George N. Jessop, James Cogan, D. Ferrall, C. H. Alley, W. Mackey, B. Neary, W. Woods (Co. Waterford), T. O'Connor, H. M. Smith, M. Long, E. Lyons (Drogheda), J. W. Tompkins, M. Gaffney, J. Ridgeway, George Dayly, P. Murphy, M. M'Nally, E. Cord, J. Kennedy, C. Regan, P. Keernan, James Lyons, A. van Nierop, James Flynn, Messrs. Smith (Drogheda), etc.

Amongst the Galway and Roscommon ewes prices were from 15/- to 20/- higher than at the opening sale last year, individual prices being as follow:—Major Wilson's Suffolk 2-shear ewes 120/-, his pure-bred Shrops 96/- to 120/-; Mr. J. A. Joyce's crossbreds, 85/-; Mr. W. Murray's half-breds, 86/-; Mr. John Leybourne's Lincolns, 115/-; Mrs. A. Boyle's Border Leicesters, 104/- to 106/-; Mr. J. S. Kenny's Galways, 104/- to 108/-; Mr. Luke Flynn's, 111/- to 114/-; Mr. M. J. Murray's, 102/- to 115/-; Mr. J. Fallon's, 100/- to 115/-; Mr. M. Stack's, 77/6 to 93/-, and Mr. P. M'Cormick's, 105/- to 113/-; Mr. J. Fallon's Roscommons, 103/- to 120/-; Mr. J. Kilcommin's Galways, 97/- to 115/-; and Mr. R. Sheil's half-breds, 87/-.

There was a large display of Wicklow Cheviots, and here values were from 1/- to 10/- higher than at last year's opening sale. Mr. W. Keegan's 3-shear Cheviots brought 67/- and his shearlings a similar figure; Mr. N. T. Keegan's made 71/-; Mr. T. Jones', 78/6; Mr. Charles Sutton's, 88/6; Mr. T. Healy's, 71/-; Mr. P. Young's, 75/- to 78/-; Mr. P. Byrne's, 82/-; Mr. G. Dagg's, 74/-; Major Wilson's, 79/- to 89/-; Mr. Luke Ralfe's, 72/6 to 78/6; Mr. S. Ralfe's, 71/-; Mr. P. Mulligan's, 81/-; Mr. J. M'Inerney's, 76/6; Mr. D. Murphy's, 77/-; Mr. D. Molloy's, 78/6; Mr. E. O'Hara's, 80/-; Mr. W. Roe's b.f. hornies, 46/- to 50/-; Mr. J. A. Joyce's, 42/-; Mr. Cuthbert's Cheviots, 75/-.

Mr. D. Devany's horny wethers realised 44/-; Mr. W. Whitmore's half-bred lambs, 37/- Mr. W. Murray's Shrop cross lambs, 53/- to 66/6; and Mr. T. Young's cross-breds, 49/-.

Mr. P. J. O'Neill's Shrop, and Oxford shearling rams made the uniform price of 10 gns. each; Mr. F. F. Perse's Suffolk rams, 7 to 9 gns., and Mr. R. Ringwood's Shrops 9 gns.

THE AMERICAN MARKET

STOCKS CLOSED STRONG.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

NEW YORK, F[riday]

The New York Stock and Cotton Exchanges and the New Orleans Cotton Exchanges closed to-morrow.

Stocks opened strong on the Federal decision in favour of the Southern Pacific road in the oil land suits. Other influences were a big volume of outside business, a further squeeze on shorts, and the activity of pool interests. The market became buoyant on the announcement of the railway administration that the Pacific Coast strike must end. Southern Pacific increased its early gain, and Texas and Pacific 5. Oils rose, Texas Company being 12¼, and Petroleum 10 points up. Steels were firm, Crucible Steel rising 3 points over yesterday's high level. Heavy buying of Tobacco Shipping was a feature of the late dealings. Crucible Steel advanced 10, and Cuban Sugar 23 points. The closing was strong. Government Bonds irregular. Railroad bonds irregular. The day's sales totalled shares. Money on call easy, closing at 5 and 6 asked. All loans continue to be made at 6 per cent. Sterling exchange weak. Commercial bars 2½c. lower.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

For the month of July—Northern Pacific gross 8,680,000 dollars, increase 205,000 dollars; net 1,808,000 dollars, decrease 505,000 dollars.

New York Central—Gross 28,185,000 dollars, increase 1,902,000 dollars; net 7,135,000 dollars, decrease 281,000 dollars.

Gold to the value of 200,000 dollars has been engaged for export to China.

THE ATTENDANCE: OFFICIAL FIGURES.

The following figures, showing the attendances on each days of the Show, were issued officially last night:—

	1912.	1913.	1919.
First Day	7,613	7,785	8,342
Second Day	13,938	17,884	18,749
Third Day	21,564	23,008	13,430
Fourth Day	8,003	8,065	11,539
	51,118	56,740	52,060

It is interesting to mention that the four years since 1895 on which the attendances reached the highest figures were:—1896, 58,728; 1897, 66,167; 1898, 59,252; 1899, 59,276.

Yesterday was the people's day at Ballsbridge, the prices of admission having been reduced to a figure within the means of the humblest working man in the city. Popular prices are all very well, but if a show of any kind fails to appeal to the popular taste it falls all the more flat when the admission prices are reduced. In former years there was invariably a large attendance on the Friday of Horse Show Week, and it was a matter for mental speculation whether, after the five years of history making on a staggering scale, the fixture still retained its popularity with the people of Dublin—whether, in other words, the working man would still bring his wife and children and the youth would still bring his sweetheart to see the horses and the horse-jumping, to say nothing of the Flower Show and the Art Industries Exhibition. Well, to be brief, they did. And not only did they, but the weather was a far, far better thing than it had been on Thursday. In other words, the sun was shining, and the rain that fell from occasional passing clouds was as diamonds dropping from an azure sky. The jumping enclosure was in all the better condition after the previous day's downpour, which had been soaked into the parched soil with an avidity that can only be compared to the enthusiasm with which the pupils of Dr. Squeer's educational establishment absorbed their scanty meals. There were no great events to be decided yesterday, for the simple reason that all the great events had already been decided. But the programme was none the less entertaining on that account, and the spectators were treated to a thoroughly enjoyable and exciting jumping competition, and a very fine exhibition of the paces of trotting horses. Compared with the critical attitude of the throng on previous days, the enthusiasm of the crowd when any feat of exceptional merit was performed was quite refreshing. The expressions of popular emotion were unrestrained, and the applause was unstinted.

THE LADIES SCORE AGAIN.

The ladies were once again well to the fore, and, though the bright, particular stars of the principal days were debarred by their successes from the competitions of yesterday, those who had not received honours were successful competitors in the Consolation Competition. In this event Miss M. Grattan Bellew's Jerry, ridden by his fair owner, won a well-merited second prize; while Larry, ridden by Mrs. Mills McDonnell, was third out of 25 competitors—truly a fine score for the fair sex. Although the day had not been officially fixed for a Viceregal visit, Field-Marshal Lord French showed his interest in the Dublin Horse Show by paying a visit to Ballsbridge in the forenoon, prior to his attendance at the Phœnix Park races. His Excellency was attended by Captain the Hon. Charles Mulholland and the Marquis of Headfort, and was received at the Show Ground by Captain Greer, Chairman of the Committee of Agriculture. In the course of his brief stay, His Excellency paid a visit to the stall of the Irish War Memorial Committee, where he was received by Lady Arnott, D.B.E., and others, whose work during the war is well known. The day was one of enjoyment for the throng, and the awards in the various competitions met with hearty popular appreciation. Lord Rathdonnell, H.M.L., the popular President of the Royal Dublin Society, was present throughout the afternoon, and apparently enjoyed the success of the revival of the Horse Show, after the eclipse of the war, as heartily as did any juvenile in the crowd.

THE JUMPING.

With the weather favouring the concluding day there was a splendid attendance, but unfortunately the jumping was not up to the standard of the three previous days. This was in a way only to be expected, as the first event was confined to four-year-olds, and the second competition was for those that had not won a first or second prize in any of the previous jumping events during the week, while to make matters worse, the take off at all the jumps was very much cut up. There were only eight entries for Event "G," for which seven competitors turned out, and after the first round only Sheila, Chatty Bit, and Primrose were left in. The Rajah of Cashmere's Sheeba, ridden by Mrs. Marshall, was doing splendidly till reaching the water jump, where it got into a bad patch at the take off side, and fell, Mrs. Marshall saving herself very cleverly. Only for the mishap it would in all probability have won. In the second round Sheila got round, and Chatty Bit, though jumping very stickily, made

Only for the mishap it would in all probability have won. In the second round Sheila got round, and Chatty Bit, though jumping very stickly, made no mistake, but Primrose fell at the bank. The judges then placed Sheila first, and Chatty Bit second, awarding no third prize. For the consolation competition there were twenty-five competitors of the thirty-seven entered, and it proved a rather drawn-out affair, all coming out for the second round except six, while only one was eliminated the third time, after which Well Done was awarded the red rosette. Rob Roy, Jerry, Ladybird, Oakgate, Larry, and Daybreak were ordered out again, when two Western representatives in Jerry and Larry, ridden respectively by their fair owners, were awarded second and third. Chancy Girl did three brilliant rounds without making a mistake, but was going at racing pace the whole time, and Molly Rollicks, after doing two really good rounds, spoiled her chance by hitting the wall badly the third time.

In our report of the ladies' competition on Thursday it was inadvertently stated that Miss Garth rode Perseverance, who fell at the wall.

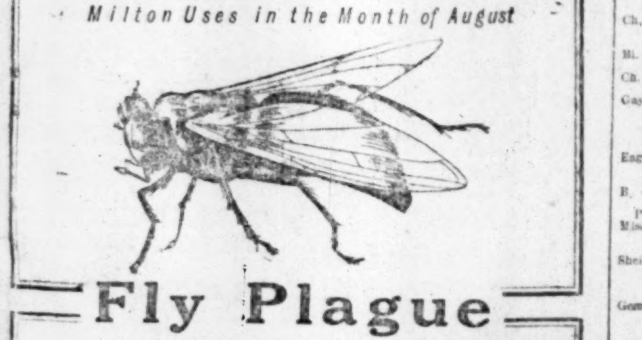
Milton Uses in the Month of August



Fly Plague

Sir Frederick Treves says: "The remedy is in the hands of the people."

He is right—and MILTON is the most effective remedy. MILTON disarms the flies. It stops them contaminating food and spreading disease. They may come in their millions, but they cannot harm you if you use MILTON.

Your Food

Just add MILTON to water in proportion of a tablespoonful to a pint, and wash Meat, Poultry, Fish, etc., or soak vegetables before cooking. They are then perfectly proof against all kinds of disease or taint which the fly, or any other insect, can spread. MILTON does not add the slightest taste or smell—only freshens the natural flavour of the food. And think of how much food this will save for you in hot weather.

MILTON

serves a hundred and one purposes, and saves you buying a dozen or more different preparations. Although a powerful fluid, it is perfectly safe—non-poisonous and non-inflammable. Needed every day in every home.

THE BLOODSTOCK SALES.

CONCLUDING DAY.

Another good attendance patronised the concluding sale yesterday when the catalogue embraced one hundred miscellaneous lots, the bulk of which consisted of brood mares and foals at foot. The proceedings, compared to the other days of the sale, were tame and devoid of incident, the best price of the morning being the 450 guineas which was paid by Mr. Joyce for R.D., a three-year-old bay gelding by Zria—Blank Cheque, while an own sister to Good Health, the five-year-old chestnut filly by Acclaim—Bon Vin, realised 300 guineas, Mr. Vaughan being the purchaser. On the whole the sales were a splendid success, and Messrs. Goff are to be complimented on the admirable manner in which they were conducted by Messrs. Faulkner and Mackey, who, as usual, performed their duty as auctioneers to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. Principal prices and purchasers names:—

PLATFORM AND STAGE.

Walter Bentley's new edition of the revue, "Odds On," in four scenes, is booked for production in the Theatre Royal Hippodrome next week. The book is by Harry Dent, with special lyrics by the author, Golburn Harrison and Bay Russell, and the cast includes Miss Gwen Clifford, Miss Hilda Cross, Miss Vivian Cooper, Miss Edith Beverley, Miss Lola Nielson, Miss Lily Bell, Miss Nora Deane, Miss Dorothy Tennant, Miss Cissie Locke, Miss Elsa Stevenson, W. H. Kirby, Claude Wallace, Fred Gott, Leslie Nield, Billy Mark, Dene Williams, and the Hyde and Oody trio. The Meteor trio will appear in comedy flying wonders, Miss Cissie Lupino in songs and dances, the Orpheus trio in a humorous and harmonious turn, and Cornalla and Eddie in "Toss 'em and miss 'em."

◆

Talbot O'Farrell will pay a return visit to the Empire Theatre next week, and will appear again both as a vocalist and a raconteur. Mangin and Kerbal have also been engaged, and others in the bill include Callard and Hooper, Dan Eden, Glenn Gower, and Phil Looley.

◆

Horace Barnes, "the impromptu rhymster," is announced to appear in the Tivoli Theatre during the coming week. The bill promises turns also by Evelyn Bergin, vocal and dancing entertainer; Rita and Rich, in a vocal and dancing speciality; Selby and Meyers, comedians and dancers; Athelda: Mabel Foley and Dorothy Walker; Staines trio, in a vocal speciality; and Winifred Ryewodes, pianist, harpist, vocalist, and composer, supported by Tom Ryewodes and L. V. Jaumes, presenting "L'interlude Distingue."

◆

Sir Alfred Butt has promised a specially picked cast to produce the operetta, "The Lilac Domino," in the Gaiety Theatre next week. The title rôle will be taken by Miss Eva Lynn, soprano, and the part of Andre will be played by Mr. Louis Templeman, an American, who is on his first visit to this country. Mr. Tom Waters will introduce his droll mannerisms again in the part of Prosper Woodhouse, Leonie Forde will be represented by Miss Dorothy Craske, and the speciality dances of Marcelle and Bady will prove an added attraction. The full chorus and augmented orchestra are under the leadership of K. Ernest Irving.

◆

On Tuesday next in the Abbey Theatre, "The Saint," a play in two scenes, by Desmond Fitzgerald, will be performed for the first time, and with it "A Night at an Inn," by Lord Dunsany, and Lady Gregory's "Spreading the News" will also be performed. There will be a matinée on Saturday.

◆

The Irish drama, "The Insurgent Chief," by J. W. Whitbread will be presented, under the direction of Mr. Ira Allen, in the Queen's Theatre next week. The cast is made up of the following:—Miss May Keogh, Miss M. Douglas, Miss M. Murnane, Miss Mona Kelly, Thomas Moran, Ira Allen, J. Sullivan, Arthur Bonass, Charles Doyle, Peter MacCormac, P. J. Carolan, Tony Quinn, Reginald Synnott, and William Waters.

◆

M. Constantin Stroesco, the delightful Rumanian tenor, will give a Recital to-morrow (Sunday) night at the Abbey Theatre at 8.30 o'clock.

MR. AND MRS. LEGGETT BYRNE'S DANCES

◆

The Horse Show Week "After Supper Dances," organised by Mr. and Mrs. Leggett Byrne, have been a brilliant success. Large parties came from Kildare, Meath, and from the numerous hotels—each evening brought a very typical Horse Show attendance. His Highness the Rajah of Kashmir brought parties to almost all the dances. The dances were thoroughly enjoyable in every way.

THE NOVEL A.B.C. SCOOTER.

MOTORING IN ITS SIMPLEST FORM.

One has only to look at and test the new A.B.C. motor scooter, which is now on the market, to see that it is bound to prove of great utility. The machine is a wonderfully clever example of mechanical ingenuity. Its proper title is the A.B.C. Skootamota, and a specimen of it was on view yesterday at the premises of Messrs. J. B. Ferguson, Ltd., automobile engineers, Wicklow street, Dublin, where many interested persons were present during the course of the day. Trials of the machine, which is of a most adaptable character, took place, and the results were eminently satisfactory. The machine, although of peculiar design, is of the simplest possible construction, and controlled in the simplest possible way. It embodies a tiny four-stroke A.B.C. engine, located immediately over the rear wheel, and driving it directly by means of a single chain. The framework is tubular, and is brought close to the ground, so that the whole central portion of the machine consists of a large platform on which the passenger is located, a light form of seat, which is durable and comfortable, being provided. A satisfactory feature in connection with the Skootamota is that all the mechanical parts are very easy to get at. It has gone through tests of the most severe character, and these have proved gratifyingly successful. It is suitable for both ladies and gentlemen, and our representative had the opportunity during the last couple of days of seeing the little vehicle—a phrase which hardly indicates its great usefulness—being tested in the most thorough manner. It travels easily and pleasantly, and can complete circles in a roadway, according to the skilfulness of the rider, with apparently perfect ease. Messrs. Ferguson have already received a large number of orders for machines, which shows in itself how popular the Skootamota has become.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

The Primate has summoned the Synod of Meath to meet in the Synod Hall, Christchurch place, Dublin, for the election of a Bishop on Friday, the 3rd of October.

The Primate instituted the Rev. J. L. S. Smylie, M.A., to the Parish of Collinstown on Tuesday last.

The Rev. G. W. Greene, recently appointed to the Incumbency of Lismore, has been appointed to the Deanery of Lismore by the Bishop of Cashel. The new Dean has been Incumbent of Kilmeaden.

The next quarterly meeting of the Diocesan Council of Waterford and Lismore will be held at the Protestant Hall, Waterford, on Tuesday, September 9th, instead of Tuesday, September 2nd.

Since the close of the war there has been a substantial increase in the number of the candidates for Holy Orders in the Church of England. At the recent Trinity Ordinations 64 were ordained, as compared with 34 last year. The number previous to the war was—in 1914, 198. Only 30 per cent. of those recently ordained had any university degree.

FISHAMBLE STREET MISSION.

◆

The Rev. Canon H. B. Kennedy will preach, on behalf of the Fishamble street Mission, in Christ Church Cathedral to-morrow at Morning Service.

THE FOREIGN MISSION SUPPLY ASSOCIATION.

◆

During the holidays the workrooms at 18 Kildare street, Dublin, have been fitted with electric light and gas radiators. They will be re-opened on Wednesday, September 3rd, when workers are invited to attend. Requests for work have been received from several Mission hospitals, and those in Palestine are specially in need of supplies.

ST. STEPHEN'S GREEN METHODIST CHURCH.

The Rev. W. B. Lumley will conduct the Service to-morrow morning in St. Stephen's Green Methodist Church, Dublin. At the Evening Service the Rev. James Grubb will be the preacher, and the subject of the sermon will be "Christ, our All and in All." The church is centrally situated, and strangers and visitors to the city are cordially invited.

A Toulon message to Paris reports the arrest of a domestic servant, a native of Strasbourg, for corresponding at night by means of signals with a neighbouring German prisoners' camp, and for having aided them to escape by providing them with food. She was also connected with an enemy agency.

WHAT TO DRINK.

Why trouble about shortage and high prices of Beer and Stout, when you can get good substitutes at a reasonable price in Wheatley's Hop Bitters (now called "Stym") and "Beacon Stout." Both non-intoxicating, good tonics, and palatable beverages. Sold by grocers at 4d. per bottle, or wholesale from Wheatley and Bates, Ltd., 110 Mid. Abbey street, Dublin. J. T. Denham, Irish Agent. CLARE CATTLE-DRIVING CHARGE.

At Ennis yesterday twelve men, nearly all farmers' sons, were charged at a Crimes Court, presided over by Messrs. McElroy and Mercer, Resident Magistrates, with unlawful assembly and driving the cattle of Mr. William J. Studdert, off his lands at Kilballyowen, West Clare, on August 18th.

Evidence having been given by the police, Mr. Studdert, and his herd, Thomas Slattery, eight of the defendants, who were on bail, were ordered to be imprisoned until the rising of the Court, and to give bail for their future good behaviour in £20, or, in default, to be imprisoned for four months. Three of the defendants, John Hedderman, P. Haugh, and John Brennan, who were re-arrested, having failed in their undertaking to attend the Court, were sentenced to two months' imprisonment, and, in default of giving bail, to four months' additional imprisonment. One man was discharged. All the defendants declined to give the bail required, but gave notice of appeal, and were released on entering into the necessary bonds.

MESSRS. SEWELL'S SALES.

Of the fifty lots which were submitted by Messrs. Sewell in the Repository, Lower Mount street, yesterday morning a good many changed hands at remunerative prices, but the principal ones were not sold, owing to the high reserves placed on them. All through the week, both at Goff's and Sewell's, it was the same story of big reserves; and what with the restrictions on the importation of horses said to be in force at the chief Continental ports, and which kept foreign buyers away from the respective auctions, it was no wonder that, compared to pre-war sales, this year's fell somewhat flat. It was stated yesterday that the restrictions had been removed, and in the circumstances it is to be deplored that the announcement was not made sooner. The evening sale at Sewell's was a much better one than that of the forenoon; but, although most of the lots were disposed of, there were no big prices to record. The sales will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock, and will conclude in ample time to allow purchasers to get to the Phoenix Park Races. The principal prices yesterday were as follow:—

DUBLIN AND DISTRICT.

CITY WATER WASTAGE.—In the Northern Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Lupton, Thomas Fitzsimons, Upper Clanbrassil street, who was summoned by the Corporation for having on 10th August affixed a hose-pipe to a water-pipe, contrary to the Waterworks Clauses Act, was fined 20/- and costs.

CROSS-CHANNEL COMPANIES AND HORSE SHOW VISITORS.—For the last day of the Horse Show cross-Channel steamers to Dublin yesterday again brought in many hundreds of visitors from the principal ports in Great Britain. The morning express steamer from Holyhead had seven or eight hundred, and the Burns Line steamer from Glasgow brought three or four hundred more. These were the larger landings, and for last night's return tide of travellers the arrangements were pretty ample by the regular lines of Dublin steamers. The L.N.W.R. put on a second and supplementary express steamer to Holyhead last night, a provision which greatly helped the travelling public to get back to destinations in Great Britain.

SHIPPING AFFAIRS.—Further troubles amongst certain classes of labour at Dublin port are spoken of. As three large over-ocean freight vessels would thereby be affected the situation is unfortunate. The last inward freight vessel is the ss. Bologna, with wheat from Adelaide, Australia. The Ramore Head (Ulster Steamship Co., Ltd.), which arrived in Dublin on the 13th inst., was only yesterday enabled to take her strike-delayed departure. She signed on new members of her crew here, some Dublin men being amongst those engaged for her out and home Atlantic voyage. American coal—or part of an 8,000 ton cargo thereof—which, it is expected, will be lightered ashore from a ship calling off Galway, is looked for to arrive in Dublin before long. So far the U.S. freight liner, Cocapeak, has not been booked for arrival in the Liffey, where a return cargo for the ship is expected to be provided.

OPEN AIR MUSIC.

By permission of the Chief Commissioner, the band of the Dublin Metropolitan Police will perform a programme of music at the Royal Irish Yacht Club Regatta, Kingstown, from 3 p.m. to-day. Conductor, Mr. A. J. Norris, Bandmaster D.M.P.

YACHTING.

ROYAL IRISH YACHT CLUB.

Without being actually a regatta, the series of races which the R.I.Y.C. is giving to-day should produce a capital afternoon's sport at Kingstown. The first race, the cruisers' handicap, is timed to start at 2.5 p.m., and the last, for Wags, at 4 o'clock—the first four matches, for cruisers, 25, 21, and 17 footers, respectively, starting between piers, and that for Wags from a line between the R.I.Y.C. Clubhouse and a mark-boat moored off it—on which line, by the way, all races will finish. In addition to the sailing programme, there will be seven rowing races decided, two for the R.N. patrol leader and destroyers, which are in harbour (there are three of them), and one each for fishermen, for boats from the Royal Mail steamers, for coastguards, Irish Lights, and Board of Works employés. The sailing programme is as follows:—

First gun, 2 o'clock—Cruisers' handicap.
First gun, 2.30—25-footers.
First gun, 2.45—21-footers.
First gun, 3.0—17-footers.
First gun, 4.0—Water Wags.

DUBLIN BAY SAILING CLUB.

Races will be given for all classes on Saturday, September 6th. Usual times and courses. All starred races.

BURNHAM WEEK.

The Royal Corinthian Yacht Club continued the racing yesterday. In the morning the weather conditions were all that could be desired, with a nice whole sail breeze from the south-west, and the sun overhead. These conditions prevailed until about two o'clock, when, after a hard rain squall, the breeze fell away entirely. The ex-24-footers and the small cruisers' handicap class had finished while the breeze held, but the vessels over 12 tons made slow work of it beating home over the ebb tide.

Handicap for yachts under 12 tons. Course—18 miles. Starters:—Mikado (scratch) allowed Narcissus 6 mins., Coronella 12 mins., Banshee and Dorado 25 mins., Acushla 36 mins., Ixia 45 mins. Start at 9.30. The finish was:—Mikado, 1h. 2m. 20s.; Banshee (winner), 1h. 19m. 52s.; Dorado (2nd prize), 1h. 20m. 42s.; Coronella, 1h. 30m. 25s.; Acushla, 1h. 39m. 42s.; Ixia (3rd prize), 1h. 40m. 25s.

Handicap for ex-24-footers.—Ancora (scratch) allowed Merrymaid and Lavender 2 mins. 55 secs., Chittaboo 3 mins. 10 secs., Syringa 6 mins. 55 secs., Duet 7 mins. 10 secs., Tartar, Jack Straw, and White Heather 9 mins. 36 secs., Gybo 21 mins. 4 secs. Start at 10 o'clock. Tartar did not start. They were timed at the finish:—Lavender (2nd prize), 12h. 24m. 42s.; Ancora, 12h. 25m. 9s.; Merrymaid, 12h. 27m. 22s.; Syringa, 12h. 27m. 32s.; Chittabob, 12h. 28m. 12s.; Jack Straw, 12h. 40m. 45s.; White Heather, 12h. 43m. 54s.; Gybo (3rd prize), 12h. 43m. 54s. Duet gave up.

Handicap for yachts exceeding 12 tons. Course—50 miles.—Banba (M. Arbuthnot) (scratch) allowed Quickstep (A. C. Adams) 3 mins. 20 secs., Guenora (F. A. Roberts) and Carlotta (J. R. Payne) 16 mins. 40 secs., Clodagh (P. P. Sabel) 28 mins. Start at 10.30. The wind fell away as they were beating back, and with the ebb tide against them progress was very slow, and at a late hour none of the vessels were within sight.

Crouch one-design class.—Elf, winner; Taddler, 2nd; Peter Pan, third.

CRICKET.

SOMERSET v. AUSTRALIANS.

Cold, dull weather prevailed at Taunton yesterday, and there were several stoppages through rain. The wicket was slow, and runs were hard to get. The Australians, on winning the toss, made a poor display against some fine bowling by Robson and White, and were disposed of for 85. Rain came on again at the close of the innings, and play was abandoned for the day. Score:—

AUSTRALIANS.

Collins c and b Robson	11	Murray b Robson	0
Gregory c Braund b White	12	Docker l.b.w. b White	8
Taylor c Daniell b White	3	Stirling c Braund b Robson	19
Pellew c Foy b Robson	8	Long c Braund b Robson	0
Willis st. Chidgey b White	6	Winning not out	1
Trennery b Robson	17	Extras	0
		Total	85

MATCHES POSTPONED OWING TO RAIN.—What promised to be a highly interesting opening stage to the last county match at Brighton between Sussex and Yorkshire was yesterday completely spoilt by torrents of rain, and a thunderstorm accompanied by hail, which fell at 2 o'clock, caused all idea of play to be abandoned.

Rain fell heavily at five minutes past one at Lord's, and although the umpires inspected the wicket twice, play was not again possible, and was finally abandoned for the day at 5 o'clock. Kent's chance of winning the match with Middlesex is now, therefore, very slender. If Yorkshire defeats Sussex they will take the premier honours. When rain intervened yesterday Kent had scored 97 for two wickets.

MATCH AT BISHOPSCOURT.—A match has been arranged for Monday next between the Curragh Camp and Bishopscourt XI. of boys on either side under 15.

FIXTURES FOR TO-DAY.

THE CLARE OUTRAGES.

RESOLUTION OF ENNIS URBAN COUNCIL.

The Ennis Urban Council, on the motion of the Chairman, Mr. John Moroney, seconded by Mr. P. G. 'Kenneally, adopted unanimously a resolution, as public representatives of the town, declaring their thorough abhorrence and most emphatic condemnation of the senseless and futile, but criminal, outrages that have been committed through the county, particularly those at Illaunbaun and Glan, near Ennistymon, and calling upon public opinion in the county to assert itself and to utilise every means at its disposal to bring to justice the fiendish perpetrators of these crimes, which are a disgrace to the county, retard the country's cause, and are a fruitful source of additional, but unnecessary, taxation on an already overburdened community.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE PHŒNIX PARK MEETING.

SUCCESSFUL OPENING DAY.

Perfect racing weather was associated with the opening day of the Phœnix Park Horse Show Meeting. Not alone was the weather perfect, but everything else conducive to an enjoyable day's racing was present. Favourable weather, large crowds, splendid racing—everything that the most ardent racegoer requires was to be found at the Phœnix Park yesterday. It was the prelude to a fitting finish of a memorable week. Records have been made at the first post-war Horse Show, and it was appropriate that the sequence was maintained at this popular fixture. The crowd was a record one for an opening day; to-day promises to beat yesterday's record, and so a record Horse Show week will be fittingly finished. Thursday's rain did a lot of good by making the going easier for the horses, and also by giving a badly-needed douche to the trees and shrubs which adorn the approaches to the course. Yesterday a drive through the Park was a delightful experience. The Dublin Mountains on the left shimmering in the sunshine, on the right the beautiful wooded groves from the People's Gardens up to the Phœnix Monument, past the Viceregal Lodge, and on to Ashtown—an endless vista of beauty. Within the confines of the Club everything was radiant. Smiling pleasaunces of verdant sward, neatly trimmed walks, shaded by copper beech, and paddocks in picturesque surroundings combined to make a picture of rare beauty. The prospect from the stands and enclosures opened on a scene of sylvan charm. Long before racing started the turnstiles clicked merrily and the enclosures filled rapidly. There was never such a line of motor cars, from the sumptuous limousine to the modest taxi, while hackney cars, cabs, and roundabouts were never seen in such numbers. Despite the congestion at the approaches, the arrangements were so good that access to the grounds was quite easy, and when the first race was about to start everyone who wanted to be in time was comfortably accommodated. The scene inside was one of exceptional animation. Rank, fashion, and beauty were well represented, so that in every sense the meeting was thoroughly in keeping with the best traditions of Horse Show week. Owing to the uncertain conditions of the weather, the ladies did not venture forth in their smartest costumes, the dresses being mainly of a sombre hue, rather more useful than ornamental. The attendance in the members' stand has seldom been so large, while the popular enclosures were also well filled. Lord French, who was received by the Stewards, honoured the meeting with his presence, accompanied by a distinguished party. Nothing was lacking to make the opening day a thorough success. To-day, when the race for the Phoenix Plate is to be decided, the popularity of the meeting will, doubtless, be even more marked.

THE RACING.

The heavy downpours during the week had the desired effect on the course at Ashtown, which was in capital order for racing, a fact which was reflected in the fair-sized fields which turned out for all except one of the events. The absence of any horse to oppose Sesamum in the Park Plate was regrettable. In every other respect the racing was very interesting, the finishes in a couple of instances being of an exciting character.

There were eight runners for the Liffey Bank Plate, but, as far as the wagering was concerned, only three were taken into consideration, and while Brickeen Bridge left off a slightly better favourite than Shrewsbury, there was also plenty of support for Brahan, who figured on the 3 to 1 mark. In the race Shrewsbury never flattered, and was beaten when he stumbled a furlong from home. Brickeen Bridge, on the other hand, was always prominent, and after getting the better of Brahan at the distance never afterwards looked like being beaten. The Greenmount Plate, which followed, was a particularly open affair, no less than seven of the eight runners being backed at odds ranging from 5 to 2 to tens. Metallic, who was shouldering a 10lb. penalty for his Curragh victory, was in chief request, and for a good portion of the journey gave his backers every encouragement. A quarter of a mile from the end, however, he was tackled by Cheerio, and Mr. Parrish's filly, running out her race in very generous style, wore the top weight down, and won with a bit to spare. Still, Metallic was far from disgraced, considering that he was attempting to concede the winner 20lb., and was giving some of the runners as much as 38lb. Barto, who dead-heated with Cheerio at Leopardstown, was now meeting the winner on the same terms, but had nothing to do with the finish.

Cheerio subsequently passed into the possession of Mr. A. Christie for 200 sovs., and with the Park Plate being, as stated, a walk-over for Sesamum, there was a much appreciated interval before the Clonsilla Plate came on for discussion. Again the handicapper was paid a compliment, for seven of the ten runners came in for substantial support. It proved a capital race, and for the last furlong Cahir, Volage Pet, and Chauntress fought out a great finish, Cahir just getting the better of Volage Pet by a head, while a neck off was Chauntress, who was fast overtaking the other two nearing the post, and would probably have beaten both had the journey been a little longer. In selecting South Planet, Nennette, and Cork Glass as a trio to beat the field in the Ashtown Plate, backers' judgment proved accurate, but the fancied horses did not pass the post in the order in which they were backed. Nennette, who had not run since she finished second to Mertoy in the Marble Hill Stakes at the Curragh last month, was always going easier than any of the others, and, shaking off South Planet below the distance, the daughter of Bachelor's Double won in very convincing style. Sweet Acre had an easy task in the Country Plate, and led from start to finish. Details:—

3.0—THE LIFFEY BANK PLATE of 100 sovs. 1 m.
Mrs. Slattery's br. f. BRICKEEN BRIDGE, by Bridge of Earn—Czaritza, 3, 8-9 E. Quirke 1
Mr. B. O'Donnell's CANNY BIRD, 4, 9-0 Jos. Harty 2
Mr. J. H. H. Peard's BRAHAN, 3, 8-5 H. Beasley 3
Mr. T. K. Laidlaw's Shrewsbury, 4, 9-7 W. Barrett 0
Mr. B. Lea's Kroonfield, 4, 8-7 ...Feane 0
Mr. C. Swords' Another Jill, 4, 8-7 ...T. Burns 0
Mr. J. A. Coen's Madam Bede, 3, 8-2 ...M. Ward 0
Mr. W. Parrish's Castanea, 3, 8-2 ...Hamshaw 0
(Winner trained by Mr. Parkinson.)

Betting—7 to 4 agst. BRICKEEN BRIDGE, 2 to 1 Shrewsbury, 3 to 1 Brahan, 20 to 1 any other.

Another Jill began slowly, and Brahan made the running from Castanea, Brickeen Bridge, Kroonfield, and Shrewsbury for a couple of furlongs, when Kroonfield drew to the front. Half-way down the straight Kroonfield was beaten, and Brickeen Bridge, heading Brahan a little further on, drew away to win easily by three lengths; two lengths. Castanea fourth, Brickeen Bridge fifth, Shrewsbury sixth, Kroonfield next.

3.30—THE GREENMOUNT PLATE of 100 sovs. 1 m.
Mr. W. Parrish's b. f. CHEERIO, by Rochester—Anthea, 4, 8-11 (10lb. ex.) ...H. Beasley 1

Mr. T. McMahon's La Reserve, 3, 7-7 ...Dawson 0
(Winner trained by J. Rogers.)

Betting—5 to 2 agst. Metallic, 3 to 1 Dunluce Castle, 4 to 1 CHEERIO, 5 to 1 Longsight, 6 to 1 Barto, 10 to 1 each Vlamertinghe and La Reserve, 20 to 1 Stoke Bridge.

Dunluce Castle made the running from Barto, Longsight, Cheerio, Metallic, and Vlamertinghe until three furlongs from home, when Metallic drew out, followed by Cheerio, Barto, Dunluce Castle, and Stoke Bridge. At the distance Cheerio challenged Metallic, and drawing out close home won by a length; a head. Dunluce Castle fourth, Barto fifth, La Reserve sixth, Stoke Bridge next. The winner was sold to Mr. A. Christie for 200 sovs.

4.0—THE PARK PLATE of 300 sovs. A selling race for two years old. Winner to be sold for 50 sovs. 5 f.
Mr. T. G. Fletcher's b. c. SESAMUM, by Buckwheat—Enthusiast's Lass, 8-5 ...M. Beary w.o.

Lord Furness's Labreagh, 3, 8-6 ...H. Beasley 0
Mr. W. Desmond's Ford, 3, 8-2 ...Dawson 0
Mr. W. Harrison's Rathbriar, 3, 7-7 ...Dines 0
Mr. J. A. Coen's Ashvale, 3, 7-7 ...Patman 0
(Winner trained by J. Hunter.)

Betting—4 to 1 each agst. Ford and Recruiter, 5 to 1 each CAHIR and Labreagh, 6 to 1 Volage Pet, 7 to 1 each Ballinacarrig and Wetonah, 20 to 1 Chauntress or any other.

Labreagh led from Wetonah, Ford, Chauntress, Cahir, Volage Pet, and Ashvale for half the journey, when Ford went on from Volage Pet, Cahir, Chauntress, and Labreagh. At the distance Volage Pet drew to the front, but was headed close home by Cahir, who won by a head; a neck. Ford fourth, Ashvale fifth, Wetonah sixth, and Labreagh next.

5.0—THE ASHTOWN PLATE of 200 sovs. A handicap for two years old. 5 f.
Mr. H. S. Gray's b. f. NENNETTE, by Bachelor's Double—Disgraceful, 9-0 M. Beary 1

Mr. F. Straker's Palm Sunday, 7-1 ...Marriott 0
Major Cresswell's Poots, 7-12 ...Patman 0
(Winner trained by P. Behan.)

Betting—2 to 1 agst. South Planet, 4 to 1 each NENNETTE and Cork Glass, 6 to 1 Star in the East, 8 to 1 Poots, 100 to 8 any other.

South Planet made the running from Nennette, Star in the East, Cork Glass, and Some Dance for half the journey, when Nennette drew out and making the remainder of the running won easily by a length and a half; a head. Star in the East fourth, Shrewsbury and Kroonfield next.

5.30—THE COUNTRY PLATE of 100 sovs. 5 f.
Mr. W. T. de Pledge's ch. f. SWEET ACRE, by Orby—Sweet Downs, 3, 8-2 ...M. Beary 1
Mr. A. McCann's BUCKFINCH, 3, 8-2 ..J. Dines 2
Fr. H. J. Tully's LATE EDITION, 5, 9-5 M. Dillon 3

Betting—4 to 1 on SWEET ACRE, 8 to 1 Late Edition, 10 to 1 Buckfinch, 100 to 8 Flower Vale, 20 to 1 Mella, 100 to 1 any other.

Ste Denise gelding swerved at the start, and Sweet Acre jumping off in front of Buckfinch and Late Edition made all the running, and won in a canter by five lengths; four lengths. Mella fourth, Flower Vale fifth, Lofty next.

SELECTIONS FOR TO-DAY.

The Phœnix Plate.

The outstanding feature of to-day's card is the richly-endowed Phœnix Plate, which is one of the most important events for two-year-olds decided in Ireland, and as will be seen from the appended list of contenders there is material at hand for a fine contest:—

PROBABLE STARTERS AND JOCKEYS.

Mr. R. Croker's CORN KALE, 9-10......W. Barrett.
Capt. Shirley's MURMANSK, 9-10....C. Hamshaw.
Sir W. Nelson's LAMPETIA, 9-0..............F. Fox.
Mr. E. Kennedy's POSIEDON, 8-10.........M. Beary.
Mr. F. Straker's BLUE DUN, 8-6.........W. Beasley.
Mr. A. Lowry's WILY ATTORNEY, 8-5..J. Dawson.
Mr. Ledlie's TAMMANY CHIEF, 8-5...E. M. Quirke.
Mr. F. Hill's SILVERMORE, 8-5.....H. H. Beasley.
Mr. Donell's POMPANO, 8-1...............J. Harty.
Mr. P. B. Kelly's EAGER FLIGHT, 8-1.....J. Dines.

Lampetia, who boasts smart form in England, is fancied by her connections, and if none the worse for her journey across the Channel will take a lot of beating; while Mr. Croker's recent purchase, Corn Kale, though he is conceding considerable poundage to most of the others, should be bang up with the leaders at the finish. Silvermore's running behind Matamac and Glenstella at the Curragh entitles him to consideration, but I will leave the issue to Lampetia and the last-named of which pair may pull through. Other selections are as follow:—

BLUE DUN,

Blanchardstown Plate—Silver Morsel or Dark Eyes.
Glencairn Plate—White Prospect.
Deer Park Plate—Sir Bryan.
Whitefields Plate—Corrina or Glandurra.
Chasers' Plate—Arravale.

CHANTICLEER'S NOTES.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, FRIDAY NIGHT.

Considerable interest will be taken in the race for the Lowfield Plate at Gatwick to-morrow, as several of the youngsters have one or more nursery engagements, and are credited with much usefulness, and with Princess Joan, Indian Gauze, Sunstroke, Mailly Mallet, and Coignafearn colt in the field it would need a smartish two-year-old to keep the spoils from one or other of them. There should be a good field for it, despite the comparatively small intrinsic value of the race, and Indian Gauze may prove equal to the occasion. My selections are:—Rostrum Plate—Saintly Maud. Wick Plate—Drizzle; if absent, Red Flyer. Lowfield Plate—Indian Gauze. Moderate Plate—Gavrelle or Thermogene. County Handicap—Ninon. Sutton Handicap—C.P.

At Haydock Park some of the following may win:—Wigan Handicap—Nannacus. Paddock Plate—Blue Steel. Garswood Handicap—Queen of the Ballet. Saturday Handicap—Dot's Surprise. Grand Stand Handicap—Tension. St. Helen's Plate—Old Gold.

THE IRISH OPEN AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

PORTRUSH—SEPTEMBER 8th.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

What a host of pleasant memories the revival of our great open golfing event brings to the mind! Great gatherings of golfers from all parts of the British Isles, pleasant fellows, too; all seemingly much more obsessed with the idea of enjoying themselves than aught else. Yet serious enough when they reach the first tee to embark upon the vicissitudes of championship play. The good golfer often appears a free and easy fellow, but watch him when he begins to play, and note the change: it is often remarkable. One's first championship may be a happy-go-lucky affair, but repeated efforts bring that toughness and concentration that distinguish the veteran from the tyro, and are so necessary to success.

Six years ago, in 1913, at Dollymount, the doughty Mr. C. A. Palmer won his way through to the title of Irish Open Amateur Champion—a title which he has held by force of circumstances for a longer period than anyone else has done, or is likely to do again. It seems ages since those pleasant days at Dollymount, and, alas! too many that were there then have since given their lives in the desperate fighting that has intervened. Some, too, have been badly maimed. We cannot pass on to discuss the coming event without a grateful thought of those who fought and died and suffered that such things as our golf might once again amuse us. Since 1914 golf has been dormant, but it has waked again to find itself more popular than ever—if also more expensive. Dollymount has been for years the scene of military training. Bullets, not golf balls, have been the danger of late. It is good to know that so fine and famous a links is not destined to be a permanent military training ground.

Our open event has been, since its inception in 1892, most popular with Scottish, English, and Welsh golfers, and, if report be true, this year of peace will see a record entry from all parts. The big championships across-Channel are not re-opening till next year, and consequently, except for a few important competitions, golfers have had little opportunity to show what they can do. This should mean a great concourse at Portrush, both of players and spectators. Great golfing talent will be there in plenty, and whoever wins the title of Irish Open Amateur Champion will thoroughly deserve it.

The Championship was first held at Portrush, and it is fitting that it should be revived there, amid the glorious air and sandhills that make for its great popularity. In 1892 Mr. A. Stuart won, and since that the winners have been—Mr. John Ball (three times), Mr. W. B. Taylor (three times), Mr. H. H. Hilton (four times), Mr. G. Wilkie, Mr. J. S. Worthington, Mr. (now Colonel) H. A. Boyd, Mr. H. H. Barker, Mr. J. Douglas Brown, Mr. J. F. Mitchell, Mr. (now Captain) L. O. Munn (three times), Mr. Gordon Lockhart, and Mr. C. A. Palmer. Great players have honoured the event, and let us hope that 1919 may see some of them at Portrush.

It was thirteen years before an Irishman won, and such a long wait was only to be expected when we think that in 1892 golf clubs in Ireland could be counted on one's fingers. Colonel H. A. Boyd, hero of many a tough match, was, in 1905, the first to keep the title in Ireland, and since then Irishmen have proved that they are no longer to take a back seat in golf. The Irish ladies were even quicker in asserting their brilliancy.

Irish golfers are certain to make a great effort to keep the trophy here after its long sojourn with Mr. Palmer in England. The present Irish Close Champion, Captain Carter, is a Portrush player, as is Major C. O. Hezlet, who went so brilliantly to the final of the Amateur Championship in 1914, at Sandwich. Captain L. O. Munn won the event at Portrush in 1910, and, if he can play, will not be beaten easily. There are many others who may be expected to do their best for Ireland. Our younger players must serve their apprenticeship, for championships are seldom won at the first time of asking.

Portrush, where the meeting takes place, is famous for its golf, its air, and its lady golfers. If the hot summer has not troubled it too much, the course should be in nice order. The length of the course is 6,532 yards, and the bogey is 81. The clubhouse is just beside the town, and the course runs out towards the Giant's Causeway and back. The outward journey possesses some excellent holes, but most golfers express a preference for the homeward journey, which provides sporting golf of a highly interesting and testing nature. Portrush seems a long way off on the map, but excellent train services take one there in a short time. The wise will book their rooms early. The 1919 Irish Open Amateur Championship is likely to fill Portrush as even the Scottish excursionists cannot.

FOXROCK.—To-day—August handicaps, against bogey. LADIES' BRANCH.—Tuesday next, September 2nd—September handicaps, by strokes.

CLONTARF.—To-day—Mr. Taylor's prize, 18 holes, strokes.

SPORTING PARAGRAPHS.

The New Zealand Service Rugby team at Durban on Thursday defeated Natal by 17 points to 3.

Inclusive of the walk-over on Sesamum, M. Beary had three winning rides at the Phoenix Park yesterday.

The Stewards of the Turf Club and of the I.N.H.S. Committee have granted Mr. L. L. Firth a starter's licence.

The Stewards of the Turf Club have given permission to Mr. W. F. Sankey to ride under Rule 96 (I.) Rules of Racing.

The two-year-old, Cracknel, was put up to auction during an interval of racing at Phoenix Park yesterday, but the reserve price put on him not being realised, he was withdrawn.

Craganour's stock recently won a couple of good races in the Argentine. They were Crocus, a five-year-old chestnut mare out of Lada, and Buen Oja, a three-year-old filly out of View.

We regret to state that S. Donoghue, who received a bad fall when Daddy Longlegs blundered over the rails after winning the Middlethorpe Plate at York on Thursday, was found, as the result of an examination under the X Rays, to have broken two bones in his right wrist. This will, of course, keep the premier jockey out of the saddle for several weeks.

The Societe des Steeplechases de France announce that they have made a large increase in the number of French steeplechases and hurdle races which are open to English and Irish horses. The races will take place at Auteuil during the autumn and winter, from September 30 to December 14, and will close to the Secretary of the Societe des Steeplechases de France, 19 Rue Treilhard, Paris.

Some anxiety has been caused among members of the Hurlingham Club at the announcement recently made that the Fulham Borough Council were about to acquire a portion of the club grounds for a housing scheme. But it is understood that the main portion of the grounds will not be interfered with, and that the amenities of the place will be in every way preserved.

FINANCIAL NEWS

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

DUNDALK STEAM RISE SHARPLY. RAILS AND TEXTILES BUSY. COATS HARD.

There was only a limited amount of dealing on 'Change yesterday outside of Home Rails and Textiles, in which considerable briskness continued. The Funds were quiet, but firm, with few stocks dealt in. Banks varied a little. Dealing in Breweries was confined to Guinness Ord., which were again lower. Dunville Shares appeared to close strong unofficially, but did not so quote. The feature in Steam was the advance in Dundalk Shares to 14. The payment back of the half of the capital, or £5 per share in cash, is subject to the approval of the shareholders. City Steam show no change from Thursday's reduced price. Marconi Ord. Shares were ¼ better, but the Pref., not recently dealt in here, show a decline. Rails were brisk at rather irregular prices. Dunlops were idle or unaltered. Textiles varied somewhat. Coats Ord. were better, but Bleachers, Calicos, and Spinners gave way. Tobacco Shares were firm, and Oils were again rather undecided.

In the Funds, War Loan 5 p.c. rose 1/16 to 94½, and India 3½ p.c. ⅛ to 61⅞; others were idle.

Banks were a little irregular. Royals rose ½ to 14½, but Munsters fell ⅛ to 7⅛, and Bank Stock repeated 217.

In Breweries, Guinness Ord. fell ½ to 36. Dunvilles appeared to close about 12 to 14 unofficially, against 11⅞ last price.

Steam closed firm. Dunlops rose 4 from 10 to 14, but as the nominal price of yesterday was 12½ to 14, the movement does not entirely belong to to-day.

In Marconis, the Ord. rose 2s. 6d. to 107s. 6d., but the Pref. changed hands at 90s., and Americans fell 1s. 6d. to 28s.

There was a pretty general market in Home Railway Ord. Stocks. Dublin and South Eastern rose ¼ to 17¼, and Great Northern ¼ to 81¼, while Belfast and Co. Down fell ½ to 99, after opening at 99½, and Great Southern and Western ¼ to 71¼. Midland Great Western repeated 35¼, but the 4 p.c. Rent Charge Guaranteed recovered ½ to 59.

In Trams, a few Dublin United Pref. were disposed of at par, or ¼ under last price.

Dunlops were very quiet. Dunlop Rubber Ord. repeated 168s. 9d. Parent Tyre Shares were again neglected.

In Drapery Shares, Arnott Pref. realised 80s. 7½d. x.d.

As regards Manufacturing Shares, Coats Ord. rose 1/16 to 9 1/16, and the Pref. repeated 11¼, while Bleachers fell 1s. 3d. to 29s. 9d. Calicos 3d. to 18s. 9d., and Spinner Ord. 6d. to 58s. 9d. British American Tobacco realised 5¾, and Imperial Tobacco rose a few pence to 62s. 10½d. An odd lot of Goulding Pref. changed hands at 88s. 9d., or 3s. 9d. under previous marking. Edmond Johnson Pref. quoted 10s. 6d., and the Ord. realised 2s. Lever "A" Pref. changed hands at par.

In Trading, etc., Brooks Thomas Pref. realised 16s., thus recovering the dividend 6d. per share. Irish Times 2nd Pref. were firm at 17s. Oils were steady.

The English Sewing Cotton Company notify that in future the former practice will be resumed of paying half-yearly dividends on the Pref. Shares at 31st March and 30th September. The dividend paid on 9th August was in respect of the final dividend for year ended 31st March last, and the next dividend payment on the Pref. will, therefore, be made on the 30th September next, for the half-year ended on that date.

STOCK MARKETS IN GOOD TRIM.

STRENGTH OF HOME RAILS BECOMES MORE PRONOUNCED.

WAR LOAN MAKES GOOD PROGRESS.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

Markets finished the week in remarkably good trim. There were dull patches and the volume of business was not really large, though quite respectable for a Friday in the quiet season. Had it not been for the necessity to keep a strict watch against Continental holdings insinuating themselves into this market, which called for a continuance of the marking down of international securities, the house might have been described as optimistic. About home stocks it is cheerful. The attitude of responsible Labour leaders to the problem of increasing production has created an excellent impression, and, combined with the hope that the orgy of Government extravagance has ended, encourages faith that the economic situation will slowly and surely mend. Technical market conditions are favourable, the smallest demand disclosing scarcity of stock, except of international stuff. The strength of War Loans, Consols, and Home Railways was conspicuous and tonic, and the Rubber department was more than firm.

LONDON STOCKS CHEERFUL.

FURTHER RISE IN HOME RAILS.

There was a further increase of cheerfulness on the Stock Exchange during yesterday's session, and, notwithstanding week-end influences, business was on a fairly brisk scale in several departments. Owing to the improving Labour outlook and the sporadic selling which develops on foreign account from time to time in international securities, domestic issues were chiefly favoured, and at times displayed strength under the lead of Home Rails, which registered many substantial net gains averaging over a point. Gilt-edged securities were spottily good. War Fives, at 94 5/16, were 1/16 better. Miscellaneous gilt-edged securities were often firmer in sympathy with the general trend of values. Among Colonials, New Zealand Fours were good around 87. Bank of England Stock finished at 190½, after being higher. Irish Land Loans were firm.

Changes.—Rises—5 p.c. War Loan, 1/16 to 94 5/16; India 3 p.c., ¼ to 53¼; do. 3½ p.c., ¼ to 62. Fall—4½ p.c. War Loan, ¼ to 87¼.

FOREIGN MARKET DULL.—In the Foreign market French Fives receded ¼ to 70, owing to an adverse movement in the franc exchange. As regards other Allied Bonds there was some renewed selling on foreign account of Japanese issues. Chinese held steady. Egyptian Loans lacked firmness. Russians were inclined to heaviness. Among South Americans, Argentine and Brazilian Bonds both registered some further falls of a point, but closed steadily.

Changes.—Falls—Argentine Fives (1886), 1 to 93; Brazil Funding (1914), 1 to 78; Egyptian Unified, 1 to 81; French Loan, ½ to 70; Japan 4½ p.c., ½ to 98¼; do. 4 p.c. (1905), 2 to 78; Russian Fives, 1½ to 46.

HOME RAILS BUOYANT.—In the Home Railway market conditions were strong from the start. A moderate inquiry found the market scantily supplied with stock, and prices consequently moved forward easily. The finish was at about the best of the day with some substantial gains. Scotch Stocks registered several good fractional advances, and there was a certain amount of Northern, as well as local buying.

CANADIANS FIRMER AND MEXICANS SLOW.—"Canpacs" were firmer in tone around 179, and several Grand Trunk Stocks levelled up ¼ to ½. Mexican Rails were slow and uninteresting. Among Argentine Rails a few further gains of ¼ to ½ were recorded, but B.A. Westerns settled back ½ to 72.

Changes.—Rises—Grand Trunk, ¼ to 8¼; do. Guar., ½ to 47½; do. 3rd Pref., ¼ to 20½; B.A. and Pacific, ½ to 55¼; Central Argentine, ¼ to 55¼; San Paulo, 1½ to 161½. Falls—Grand Trunk 1st Pref., 1 to 49½; B.A. and Western, ½ to 72.

IRREGULAR MOVEMENTS IN INDUSTRIAL SHARES.

ADVANCE IN LEYLAND MOTORS.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

There was a certain additional robustness about the Industrial and Miscellaneous market yesterday, bred of the increased strength in many of the principal departments of the house; but the general appearance of the market was irregular, and the imminence of the week-end caused adjustments, which were reflected in a number of narrow, mixed price changes. Appreciation of the better temper of Labour, as further illustrated in the reasonable attitude of the engineers in discussions relative to the proposal for a 44-hours week, which may now be dropped, gave a good undertone to the Iron and Steel group; but this did not prevent prices shading in places on profit-taking. Textiles were unsteady, but the close was over the lowest, and Coats were a bright spot. Listers further settled back in the absence of news. Associated Cements reacted a little, while there was some renewed selling in the Land Trading group, attributed, in part at any rate, to foreign sources. Support for leading Catering Shares persisted, but Aerateds were finally reactionary. Leyland Motors were strong.

Net variations among Iron and Steel Shares were again in either direction. Armstrongs weakened 6d. to 38/6. Vickers, at 36/6, registered a similar fall. United Steels eased slightly to 22/9. Aerateds were without net loss at 4¼, and were rather unstable. As regards other Caterers, Lyons advanced 1/16 to 5¼ on small trading, while Liptons were strong, gaining 9d. at 29/3. Bovril Def., at 14/9, were 3d. harder. Anglo-Continental Guano were unchanged around 3/9, the 12½ p.c. interim dividend not being generally known during market hours. Associated Cements declined ¼ to 9¼ on profit-taking, and British Portland Cements, at 34/-, were finally 6d. weaker. Dunlop Rubbers met realising, and fresh support was not sufficient to affect the trickle of offerings, the quotation falling ¼ to 8¼. Pyrotans weakened to a similar extent after the overnight jump, closing at 6¼. Nitrogen Products further shaded off 3d. to 16/-, and the steady selling of the last day or two has made the market rather unsettled. Salt Unions, at 1 7/16, were quietly firm and higher. British Aluminiums improved 6d. to 32/6. Leylands were conspicuously strong, among Motor descriptions, the buying, which has been steadily broadening during the week in connection with the reorganisation proposals, culminating in a spurt of 1/16 to 3¼. Rolls Royce, Sunbeams, and Darracqs were about the same, and did not show much animation. National Steam Cars fell 1/- to 18/6. British-American Tobaccos closed unchanged at 5 11/16, after being lower. Imperials lost the turn at 62/-.

In the Shipping list a moderate business was chronicled in Cunards, Furness Withys, and P. and O. Def., but quotations did not move. P. and O. Pref. was put back 2 to 92½. The Canadian-American group was rather off colour, though sterling exchange depreciated in dollars. Spanish River Pulp met profit-taking, and receded to 44½. The Pref. also went back a dollar, and Canada Cement Preference weakened 1 to 112. Banks as a rule were quietly supported at previous levels, but Lloyds finally fell ¼ to 26¼. There was spotty support for Insurance descriptions. Commercial Unions left off ¼ to the good at 31, and Employers' Liability were advanced ½ to 46. The Wireless group moved uncertainly. Marconi Ord. hardened up 1/16 to 5⅜, but the Pref. were rather offered. The American Shares, at 28/3, and the Canadian Shares, at 15/-, were 9d. and 6d. weaker, respectively. Breweries met little attention or support. Allsopp Pref. drooped 1 to 76, and Daniels Ord. fell ¼ to 5¼.

HARDER TONE IN MINES.

BUSINESS STILL SMALL, BUT CONFIDENCE RETURNING.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

Although business in the Mining market failed to show any material expansion yesterday a decidedly brighter tendency prevailed, and the majority of changes on the day were in favour of holders. The previous day's drop in Kaffirs was thought to have been unwarranted, and a little professional bidding, coupled with a revival of the Cape demand for specialities, soon put a better complexion upon matters. Crown Mines were a feature of strength, and considerable attention was directed to Far Easterns, among which Modderfontein, Geduld, Spring Mines, and East Rand Mining were prominent. "Johnnies" were still suffering from profit-taking, but the demand for Randfontein expanded, and a further appreciable gain was scored. Rhodesians felt the effects of the change of sentiment, and although prices as a rule moved within narrow limits, and Chartered were still dull, the general tendency was towards a higher level. Paris was not offering De Beers, and Diamond Shares displayed a firm front. A sharp recovery in the price of the metal gave the Tin Share market a healthier appearance, while the Cornish issues were assisted by the publication of the capital statement made by the Chairman at the Tehidy Minerals meeting on the preceding day. These shares and Dolcoath were substantially higher, and several of the Nigerians marked recoveries. Of the Gold Shares, Fanti Cons. rallied, and Goldfields of Eastern Akim were in good demand, thanks to the news of the alleviation of the labour difficulties. The further fall in the price of silver to 58d. per ounce failed to depress the "barrier" issues, while Lake View responded readily to the inquiry which followed the announcement of the proposed bonus issue. Coppers kept steady, and there was a distinct rally in Russians, it being recognised that, although the conflicting nature of the news from Russia may cause some uneasiness, the mines are unaffected. Both Russo-Asiatic and Tanalyk were in good request, but not many shares were tempted out. Elsewhere Baldwin fell back, but Burmas were unchanged, while the Mexican issues were inclined to take a rest. A cablegram received from the British Platinum was, unfortunately, mutilated, and therefore could not be issued, but so far as it had been deciphered it was understood to be of a satisfactory character. Nundydroog were a good market, and moved up.

OIL SHARES DULL.

RENEWED STRENGTH SHOWN BY TRINIDAD CENTRALS.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

With only a few exceptions, Oil Shares were inclined to dulness for the greater part of yesterday, although towards the close there were indications of an improvement, Shells and Eagles finishing slightly better on the day. Renewed strength was displayed by Trinidad Centrals, which recovered sharply, and left off with a firm appearance, while among other Trinidad issues Leaseholds and United British "B" improved. Kern Rivers, which have been neglected for some time past, came in for renewed attention, and moved up smartly, and Venezuelan Oil Concessions and Bolivar Concessions also showed strength. Russians remained quiet, and were little altered on the day. In other directions British Burmas were again a firm market, but an easier tendency characterised Assam Oils, Anglo-Egyptian "B," and Lobitos. In response to the renewed demand for Trinidad Centrals, they steadily advanced to 4 1/16, a gain of ½; Trinidad Leaseholds improved to 3 5/16, and United British of Trinidad "B" finished at 1¼, but Trinidad Oilfields lost 3d. at 23/-. RUBBER SHARE MARKET STRONG

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

The price of rubber was unchanged at 2/1¼ per lb. In the Share market the week finished up with quite a boomlet. Stock was in very scanty supply, and with fresh buyers following each other into the market prices naturally kept moving up. Indeed, in quite a number of cases yesterday one could only get a nominal quotation for particular shares, as jobbers, having no shares on their books, dared not make dealing prices. In these circumstances it was not surprising that some more big jumps occurred. Java Investment, for instance, spurted 1/6 to 42/6, and Djember were 4/- up to 51/3, while Java Rubber Plantations showed a similar rise at 47/6. Gains of 1/6 were scored by Java Rubber and Produce at 56/3, Johore Rubber Lands at 36/3, Ledbury at 52/6, and Sialang at 87/6. Rubber Trust advanced to 36/-. Alor Pongsu changed hands up to 67/6, and Hevea Rubber Trust showed dealings around 28/-. Mambau were done at 40/-, Oriental were wanted at 92/-, and Parit Bruas at 37/-, while Raja Musa were done up to 38/6. Sendayan improved to 50/- bid, and Sungei Chob advanced to 87/6, without sellers coming forward. Florinere kept in good demand. Anglo-Java jumped to 7/9, and Anglo-Johore finished 4/2 bid. British Rubber Estates of Java were 4/9 bid. Bukit Sembawang were active between 2/11 and 3/-; Bukit Cloh were taken at 6/9, and Inselinde rose to 6/1½ buyers. Borneo issues were firm all round.

THE MONEY MARKET.

ANOTHER FALL IN SILVER.

Bank Rate (changed April 5th, 1917)......... 5 p.c.

Easy conditions continued in the Loan market yesterday, the effect of Government disbursements still being felt. The posted rate for call money was 3 p.c., but balances were obtainable in the afternoon down to 2½. There was a light demand for weekly fixtures around 3½. The ease of loan conditions produced farther flabbiness in discounts, and there was a fairly keen competition for the moderate volume of bills available. Two months' drafts were taken at 3⅝, and occasionally less; while a fine rate for three months was 3⅝. Six months' bills were quoted at 4 to 4⅛.

There was a further fall of ⅛d. to 58d. in spot silver, and forward metal, at 66⅛ per ounce, lost the same fraction.

The following foreign exchange rates were current:—New York, 4.19½ to 4.21½; Paris, 33.90 to 34.02; Berlin, 86.89; Amsterdam, 11.27 to 11.29; Italy, 40.70 to 40.75; Madrid, 22.16 to 22.19; Christiania, 18.27 to 12.32; Stockholm, 17.22 to 17.25; Finland, 65.00 to 67.00; Berne, 23.78 to 23.82; Rio bills, 14 11/16; B.A. Transfers, 54⅛ to 54½.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

The recent good buying of Armstrong Shares, which has lifted the price several shillings, has been based on inside knowledge of pending developments. Modern Transport states that the business of the well known Glasgow firm of A. and J. Main is to be incorporated with the engine works department of Sir W. G. Armstrong, Whitworth, and Company. A new company, under the title of Messrs. Armstrongs and Main, Limited, has been formed, with Mr. John Noble, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, as chairman, and Mr. James A. Main as managing director. This is the third great armament firm that has absorbed another essentially peace-time undertaking since the armistice. Vickers, it may be recalled, acquired the Metropolitan Carriage Company, followed just recently by Cammell Laird's deal with the Midland Waggon. Armstrongs have already had working an alliance with A. and J. Main for a number of years.

According to the Halifax Correspondent of the Westminster Gazette, there are persistent rumours in that quarter that Lloyd's Bank is about to absorb the West Yorkshire Bank, Limited. This rumour gains credence in the light of the recently announced proposal of the National Provincial and Union Bank of England to absorb the Sheffield Banking Company. The National Provincial thereby obtained a strong representation in the West Riding. The West Yorkshire Bank, Limited, has only been known by that name since 1910, when the old Halifax and Huddersfield Union Banking Company, Limited (formed 1836), were united. It was then deemed advisable, in view of the extensive work these joint banks did in the West Riding, to rename them as the West Yorkshire Bank. The Halifax Joint Banking Company was formed in 1829, and was one of the first twelve to be formed in England. Up to 1836 it was one of two banks in Yorkshire. The last balance sheet showed that it had an authorised and subscribed capital of £1,000,000, of which £400,000 was paid up, and a reserve fund of a like amount. The assets, including £2,216,914 cash on hand and at call, totalled £11,308,936.

At a meeting of the Midland Railway Carriage Company at Birmingham yesterday the fusion of the company with Cammell, Laird, and Co. was sanctioned. Mr. James Turner, Chairman, said the proposal arose out of the aid given to the Midland Company by Cammell Laird to secure a huge Indian railway contract, which would occupy the greater portion of their works for many years. Each Midland shareholder would receive £28 in Cammell Laird for each £10 held in the Midland Company. As both companies paid 10 per cent., it meant that those receiving £100 a year in dividends would receive £250.

Messrs. George Clare and Co., Ltd., announce that the recent issue of Pref. Shares in Percy E. Fisher, Ltd., having been over-subscribed, the list for London closed at mid-day yesterday (Friday); but applications from the country first post to-day (Saturday) will receive consideration.

The transfer books of the Dublin and Blessington Steam Tramway Co. will be closed from the 6th to the 20th September, both days inclusive.

MARKET REPORTS.

GRAIN.—DUBLIN CORN EXCHANGE, Friday.—The recent bad break in the weather, and universally wet and boisterous spell, has greatly interfered with harvest work everywhere, especially threshing operations. Very few samples with any great quantity or bulk behind them have, consequently, come to hand lately, and prices are still more or less shrouded in doubt. A few parcels of wheat and barley have been going the rounds, and, although wheat is controlled around 42/9 per barrel, 45/- is the figure expected by certain country sellers. With regard to barley, which is uncontrolled, prices are likely to be very dear; there were one or two small parcels forward to-day, the terms for which were nominally quoted at 42/- and 45/- per barrel, but it appears that 50/- per barrel has already been paid for barley on certain English markets; what prices here are likely to settle at it is hard to say. Black oats are a little more plentiful, and values anywhere from 31/6 to 34/- and 35/- per barrel in the run, whilst white oats are not so freely offered, and are quoted from 33/- to 36/- and 36/6 per barrel—it is said that 44/- or 45/- would be readily paid for sound good bulking old white oats at the present time for leading stables.

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES (THE BALTIC), Friday.—A fair quantity of WHEAT put forward by the Commission, comprising 1, 2, and 3 red winter afloat, which sold at 59/-, 58/-, and 56/6 respectively per 480lbs. MAIZE not offered. BARLEY dull, and market largely nominal, with bids solicited. OATS steady; American white clipped afloat sold 59/- per 320lbs.

MARK LANE, Friday.—English WHEAT firm for new crop, with moderate offerings; whites (new) delivered up to 76/6 to 77/-; reds (new), ditto. Foreign grades in steady request; No. 1 N. Manitoba, 63/6 ex store; No. 2 ditto, 62/6 ex ship; No. 2 Calcutta Club, nominal; Australian spot, 67/4½ ex store; choice white Karachi, nominal; No. 2 red winter, 61/6 ex ship; Argentine, 62/6 ex ship. FLOUR steady; fair demand. Canadian exports patents, 46/3 ex store; Minneapolis 1st patents, ditto; English G.R., 44/3 ex mill; Australian patents, 46/3 ex store. BARLEY firmly held, but quiet. New English malting, 100/-; Californian, 104/- to 105/- ex store; American, 76/- ex store. OATS steady; new English, 67/- to 70/-; Irish, 55/- to 60/- ex store; Plate, 62/- ex store; American white clipped, 61/- ex store. MAIZE firm; Plate, 68/- to 69/- ex store.

LIVERPOOL, Friday.—C.i.f. parcels of wheat and maize were not offered, but prices nominally unchanged. WHEAT on the spot moderately active, and sales included some No. 1 Manitoba and No. 1 hard winter ex store on the Government terms. MAIZE—Spot parcels nominal in the absence of supplies. FLOUR in fair request, imported selling to both Liverpool and Manchester millers at 44/9 per 280lbs. BEANS steady, and in some cases favoured buyers, while BARLEY and OATS were generally easier. OATMEAL firm and generally dearer. MILL OFFALS—Supply insufficient for requirements. American malting BARLEY (28lbs.) afloat sold at 70/9 per qr. River Plate oats (42lbs.) October-November realised 56/- per qr. South African maize meal ex store sold at £20 per ton. Imports of Grain (in cwts.)—To-day—Wheat, 23,143; flour, 3,800; maize, 1,250. This week—Wheat, 199,049; flour, 74,286; maize, 18,034; peas, 5,515. This year—Wheat, 9,566,530; flour, 1,436,975; maize, 1,791,162; peas, 129,314; beans, 233,744.

WAKEFIELD, Friday.—Little or no business passing owing to short supplies. No samples of grain offered, the harvest having been interfered with by the heavy rains of the past week. Feeding stuffs still very scarce.

DERBY, Friday.—There was some business in new English beans at 137/6 per quarter; 72/- per quarter was asked for new winter black oats, but at this figure nothing happened. No new wheat samples were offered, although they had been anticipated.

PROVISIONS.—DUBLIN POTATO, Friday.—Only a few factors had some moderate consignments of potatoes to offer this morning, and the town is in a rather starved condition for supplies. Still, the consumptive inquiry remains generally in a more or less dormant groove; 11/- per cwt. was made the standard price, although the few sellers had buyers at their mercy, and possibly could have charged, and got readily 14/- or 15/- per cwt.

LONDON, Friday.—BUTTER—The last allotment has now been completed. Supplies coming forward are on a comparatively small scale. Large stocks have accumulated in the United States, which, however, are held for extreme prices. Control prices unaltered. CHEESE—The recent allotment of imported is proceeding, chiefly made up of New Zealand, and quality satisfactory. BACON—The market is slowly settling down to the new conditions imposed by official control. All out of condition parcels have now been released. Danish selections continue to arrive, and are being distributed in Northern and Midland centres. HAMS and LARD in good demand, and small allotments are readily absorbed. EGGS—Market generally quiet, but the tone is rather steadier. English quoted 43/- to 46/-, best Irish 37/- to 38/-, Danish 36/- to 42/-, American in original packages 28/6 to 29/6, handled and repacked 30/- to 31/6 per 120.

LIVERPOOL, Friday.—BACON—The heavy slump in both live hogs and speculative products in Chicago and continued large arrivals here have no influence on this market for hog products, in view of the heavy supplies being controlled by the Government, otherwise liberal concessions in prices might naturally have been expected. There is little or no relief to the unsettled state of the trade, the poor grades, which are the only allotments made by the Ministry, being very difficult to sell through the small old stocks of good-conditioned bacon. HAMS and SHOULDERS still in wholesalers' hands are freely inquired for at about late rates. LARD on the spot is allocated on a fair scale, and meets a ready disposal at the fixed maximum price. Irish bacon very scarce and anxiously sought after. CHEESE in fair request at the controlled price of 1/5½ per lb., delivered to retailers, the supplies of imported being barely equal to requirements. BUTTER firm, and moves fairly into consumption as supplies become available. EGGS about unchanged at 36/6 to 37/- for Irish, 30/- to 32/6 for Canadian, and 28/- to 36/- per 120 American. Imports of Provisions (cwts.):—To-day—Bacon, 6,810; hams, 1,874; lard, 7,525; cheese, 7,410. This week—Bacon, 30,524; hams, 6,437; lard, 32,582; pork, 120; cheese, 8,777; beef, 300; butter, 5,150. This year—Bacon, 712,259; hams, 137,629; lard, 766,426; pork, 4,968; cheese, 222,703; beef, 14,822; butter, 682,578.

JAMES I. HALPIN, Wholesale Bacon Merchant, 18-19 Thomas st., Dublin. Telegrams—"Middles." 'Phone 1716. Specialising in O'Mara's, Ltd., products.—(Advt.)

HALSTON STREET GAME AND POULTRY, Friday.—Market is overstocked with stores and light poultry, which are difficult to clear at cheap and uncertain prices, as few city folk have feeding or places to deal with and finish birds. Those should be consequently held back and fattened by poultry-raisers and farmers to enable them to realise remunerative rates. For choice meaty chickens, hens, ducks, turkey poults in table order, trade and prices are satisfactory enough. Pullets, however, figure on cheaper basis. Turkey poults, prime, 12/6 to 16/-; seconds, around 10/- each; store geese, 6/- to 7/-; prime heavy chickens, 6/-, 7/-, and 8/- each; others, 2/- to 3/- and 5/-; prime heavy live hens, 6/- to 7/-; best ordinary, 4/- to 5/-; others, 2/- to 3/-; pullets, 5/- to 6/- and 7/-; heavy young ducks, 6/- to 7/-; good, 4/6 to 5/-; others, 2/- to 3/6; old ducks, 1/- to 2/6 each; hares, 4/-; young grouse, 4/3; old, 2/6; wild duck, 2/6 to 3/-; snipe, 6d. to 10d.; best rabbits, 1/8 to 1/9 each. Game wanted.

DUBLIN FRUIT AND VEGETABLE, Friday.—Fruit in superabundant supply, especially apples and plums, which could not be cleared, although prices were very cheap, and practically at buyers' mercy. Peaches only sold satisfactorily. Vegetables also very plentiful, and a slow tedious sale. It is said that shops remain overstocked with most commodities, which will take more than this week to clear. Feature of sales were:—Black grapes, 2/- to 2/6; seconds, 1/8; muscats, 2/- to 3/- per lb.; peaches, 2/6 to 4/6 and 9/-, and selected qualities, 10/-, 12/-, and 18/- per dozen; plums, Victorias, 14/- to 16/- per half bushel; others, 6/- to 8/-; apples, 2/6 to 5/9 and 6/6 per tray and box, and 21/- to 35/- per barrel; pears, 4/6 to 6/- per tray, and selected, 6/- to 8/- per dozen; Irish tomatoes, 3/- to 7/- per basket; peas, 3/- to 4/- per tray; broad beans, 6d. to 8d. ditto; sprouts, 4/6 and 6/- per bag; cucumbers, 2/- to 3/- and 4/- per dozen; marrows, 2/- to 4/- and 6/- ditto; celery, 6d. to 1/4 per dozen; leeks, 4/- to 5/6; carrots, 1/- per sack; onions, 5/- to 5/9, 6/3, and 6/9 per cwt.; York cabbages, 3/- to 6/-, 7/- and up to 8/6; cauliflowers, 3/- to 5/-, and 6/9 per dozen; rhubarb, 2/- to 3/- per dozen bunches; Tripoli onions, 10d. to 1/4; scallions, 1/- to 10d. per bundle; white ... 1/- ditto; celery, 6d. to 1/6; lettuce, extra, 2/6 to 3/- per bunch; parsley, 6d. to 1/- per bunch; turnips, 2/- to 2/3; thyme, 4d. to 8d.

DUBLIN FISH, Friday.—Small market of fish and fair of other classes. Values generally easier. Packages salmon, 10 chests lobsters, 53 boxes herrings, and 120 mackerel in. Salmon, 2/8 per lb.; trout, 2/6; lobsters firsts, 20/- to 25/- per 13; seconds, 10/- to 15/-; soles, 3/- to 5/- per 13; turbots, 2/- to 15/-; haddocks, 3/- to 5/- per pair; brill, 1/6 to 6/-; skate, 5/- to 6/-; lemon soles, 15/- to 25/-; slips, 10/- to 12/- per 9 pairs; mediums, 15/- to 25/-; plaice, 15/-; others, 3/- to 6/- per 8; hake plaice, 30/- to 40/- and 50/-; haddocks, 25/- to 50/-; pollock, 20/- to 30/-; ray, 12/- to 20/-; mackerel, 5/- to 8/- and 10/- per box; herrings went up to 20/- per box.

BILLINGSGATE FISH, Friday.—Supply moderate; trade active. Salmon, also trilled, 2/8½; salmon trout, 2/- to 2/9; red mullet, 2/- to 2/3; soles and slips, 3/- to 2/4; turbot, 10d. to 1/-; brill, 1/6; live eels, 2/-; dead, 1/- per lb.; plaice, 10/- to 12/-; halibut, 14/-; lemon soles, 10/- to 12/-; whitings, 7/- to 10/-; cod, 5/- to 5/-; hake, 6/-; whiting, 4/-; gurnet, 5/-; haddocks, 4/-; monks, 5/-; skate, 7/-; rober, 7/- to 5/-; bream, 2/4 per stone.

GRIMSBY FISH, Friday.—The arrivals were 28 North Sea and two Faroe boats. Supplies were on the short side, and, meeting with strong demand, prices were high. Cod made 7/- to 8/-; plaice, 5/- to 6/- best plaice, 14/- to 16/-; small haddocks sold well at 8/-; mediums, 12/-; small haddocks, 16/- to 18/-; turbot, 8/6; gurnets, 3/6; lemon soles, 15/- to 18/-; dogfish control; prime classes were again scarce, and ... sold well.

MANCHESTER, Friday.—Market quiet. Irish bacon scarce. Danish nominal; American, Cumberland cut—Best cuts sought for. Hams quiet, owing to the season. Lard firm and quiet at late rates. Cheese, American and Canadian. Eggs firmer. Irish fresh 37/- to 38/-; Danish, 38/- to 39/6 per 120.

BUTTER AND EGGS—LITTLE GREEN, Friday.—The market for butter, on the whole, is practically unchanged. The only feature with regard to creams is the apparent prospective shortage, as offerings are not so free. Values remain firm as in others, and the balance of prices is more fractionally swayed by these circumstances. Eggs are in a freer and firmer trade, with stocks pretty well cleared, and country dealers firm for fresh consignments. However, the difficulty of mixed and stale sorts and inconveniences in securing cases is still important. Choice creamery butter, 2/8½ per lb.; low grade pretty farmers' firkins from 2/3½ to 2/6 per lb., and superfine separators, 2/7, and occasional ...

OILS and PRODUCE.—CORK BUTTER, Friday.—... firmly 2/7½, but better grade very scarce; coarse stuff from 2/4½ to 2/5 per lb. Eggs—Average case hen eggs ran from 30/- to 37/-; re-picked and large selected, in retail parcels, 38/- to 39/-. Duck eggs very scarce, and unquotable. Local demand continues fairly good for fresh eggs, but shipping moderate.

CORK BUTTER, Friday.—Firsts, 275/-; seconds, 253/-; fresh butter, 281/- per cwt.

MANCHESTER BUTTER, Friday.—Delivery orders for the next instalment of butter are due on Tuesday next, and it is expected some Danish may be in the allotment.

PRODUCE.—LONDON, Friday.—SUGAR in steady demand from manufacturers; crystallised West India 90/- to 92/-; white 105/-; Muscovado Barbados 76/- per cwt. COFFEE in fair request on the spot, and tone of the market firm. Futures quiet; September quoted 125/6, December 118/-, March 117/- per cwt. RICE—Siam firm, with garden quality in fair request. SPICE—Pepper steady, with a moderate business doing; fair black Singapore spot 1/0¼, Tellicherry 1/2½, Aleppy 11½d., Muntok 1/4½, ditto August-October 1/4. Zanzibar cloves spot sellers 1/9. TAPIOCA dull; flake August-October and September-November sellers 44/-, Penang seed pearl ditto 44/-, small sago 48/-. SAGO FLOUR September-November sellers 32/-, Farina spot 47/- per cwt. CASSIA LIGNEA whole selected spot sold 102/6 per cwt. JUTE—The market remains in the same condition as that previously recorded; quite a steady demand prevails for spot and also parcels afloat, but business is hampered owing to paucity of supplies. Forward positions mostly nominal in consequence of the position of freightage, and values uncertain while a matter of negotiation. Calcutta Hessians steady, 10oz. September 80/-, 8oz. 70/- per 100 yards; "A" twills afloat 165/-, "B" 155/- per 100 bags. HEMP—Demand still very quiet and trend of values weak, though there was no undue pressure to sell; "J" grade new contract September-November quoted £53 10/-, New Zealand points October-December £49 per ton. SHELLAC—Market very firm; fair T.N. spot 487/6, October sold 490/-, July-August steamer quoted 472/6 per cwt. COPRA quietly steady; sun-dried Straits August-October London quoted £58, Ceylon £59, South Sea Islands £57 per ton. EGG PRODUCTS—Imported still very quiet, and market largely nominal. MENTHOL spot sellers 37/-. Japanese peppermint oil 7/3. Aniseed 5/1½. Slab camphor 14/3 per lb. RUBBER steady, with a moderate trade; plantation crepe spot sold 2/1½, September 2/1¼, October sellers 2/2, October-December sold 2/2¼ to 2/2, January-June 2/2¼ to 2/3; ribbed smoked sheet spot sold 2/0¼, September 2/0¾, October-December 2/1, January-June at 2/1¼; Para fine hard spot 2/5½ per lb. OILS—Linseed spot naked net terms 110/-. Rape, crude spot 100/-, refined 108/-. Cotton, crude spot 100/-, refined 110/- to 116/-. Palm softs and Lagos August-September 90/-. Soya afloat and September-November 84/-. China wood, spot 126/-, afloat 120/-, shark pale on spot 92/-. Coconut, Castor, and Japan fish unaltered. Turpentine rather steadier; forward American spot 129/6, September-December 130/6, January-April 133/3 per cwt. Petroleum, and Rosin also, unchanged. OILSEEDS—Linseed steady; Calcutta August-September quoted £53 10/-, Bombay £54 10/-, Plate September-October to Hull £47, new crop January-February £43. Rapeseed nominal. Cottonseed steady; Bombay parcels afloat to Hull, also August-September shipment to London, sold at £23 per ton. Latest prices—JUTE—Native first marks September-October sellers £74 per ton. SHELLAC—A.C. Garnet blocky spot sold 400/-. EGG PRODUCTS—Liquid yolk spot 200/-, afloat sellers 180/-, September-November 170/- per cwt. RUBBER—Ribbed smoked sheet spot sold 2/0¾. OILS—Linseed closed easier; spot net naked 107/- to 109/- as to quality. Turpentine closed firmer; American spot 130/-, September-December 131/6, January-April 134/- per cwt. OILSEEDS—Calcutta Linseed August-September sellers £55. Cottonseed—Bombay parcels August-September to Hull sold £23 per ton.

CLYDE CRUSHED SUGAR, Friday.—Market continues steady.

MISCELLANEOUS.—LIVERPOOL COTTON (Second Report), Friday.—American quiet; quotations reduced 4 points. Brazilian quotations are reduced 4 points. East Indian unchanged. Egyptian in fair request; quotations of good fair Sakellarides and all upper are raised 50 points. Sales, 4,000 bales; imports, nil. Market is quiet.

LIVERPOOL COTTON (Closing), Friday.—Sales, 4,000 bales; imports, nil. American quiet; quotation reduced four points. Brazilian quotations reduced four points. East Indian unchanged. Egyptian in fair demand, but quotations of fair good; fair and all upper are raised 50 points. September, 19.49d.; October, 19.68d.; January, 19.97d.; March, 19.02d.; April, 19.02d.; June, 20.00d. Market is quiet.

TRADE REPORT.—MANCHESTER, Friday.—The healthy tone in cloth is maintained, and, though generally described as quiet, trade is not entirely at a standstill. Supplies are undoubtedly needed in many directions, but trading conditions at the moment are unsettled and difficult. Meanwhile sellers, with only isolated exceptions, are stiff, and unfavourable to any concessions. American home trade in yarns is quotably firm, with occasional signs of weakness. Bolton spinners without fresh feature. Export bundles slow.

HAY AND STRAW.—SMITHFIELD, Friday.—Market of hay this morning proved of moderate dimensions, and general order of stuff very damp. However, values notwithstanding worked out on a decidedly firmer basis, especially for County Dublin hay. Choice 1st and 2nd crop hay, 11/3 and 11/6 per cwt., and shed loaded qualities, 12/-; good medium, strong hay, 10/9 to 11/-; prime County Dublin old meadow hay, 9/9 to 10/3 and 10/6; best country long loads, 9/- to 9/6; fair sorts, 8/6; soft, inferior, and wet, 7/3 to 8/3 per cwt. Straw market with increased arrivals of new oaten and wheaten, and in view of green damp order of stuff, sagged badly on previous values, with a slow and tedious wind up. Oaten straw of best class went 4/- to 4/6, 5/-, and 5/3; interior, 3/- to 3/9. Wheaten early averaged 4/- to 4/6, and in a few fancy cases 4/9 per cwt. Subsequently very good new wheaten could be purchased around 3/4 per cwt.

Lever's Palm Nut Cake and Meal, Dairy Cake and Meal, Lobel Pig Meal. Agent—William Rourke, 36 North Circular road, Dublin. 'Phone 3617.—(Advt.)

LONDON METALS MARKET.

TIN in moderate demand, whilst firmer. Cash 30/- and three months 20/- per ton dearer than Thursday's close. Cash quoted £272 10/- to £273; three months £267 5/- to £267 15/-; settlement price £273. Sales—About 400 tons cash at £273, early October £269, and three months £267 10/-. COPPER was accorded fair support, and the market hardened on sellers showing certain reserve. Cash quoted £99 to £99 5/-, and three months at £100 to £100 5/-; settlement price £99. Sales—600 tons three months at £99 15/-. Electros £110 to £120, best selected £109 to £110, and strong sheets £146. LEAD steady; soft foreign £24 17/6 to £25 7/6, as to position. SPELTER firmer at £38 5/- to £39 5/-, as to position—all per ton.

The Mansion House, in well-timbered grounds, approached by two avenues with gate lodges, contains good entrance hall, 3 reception rooms, 12 bedrooms, bathroom, 2 servants' rooms, and complete domestic offices.

The Farm Buildings are substantial, well arranged and most complete, and the best on any estate of the same size in Ireland. They comprise stabling for 20 horses, motor garage, forge, workshop, gas engine, gas-meter, sawmill, cattle sheds, hay barns, corn lofts, etc.

There are two tennis courts, well-stocked walled garden, and two boat houses, with piers, on the lake. LOUGH DEREVARAGH is famous for its trout fishing, which is free to riparian owners.

There is also rough shooting on the property and good hunting with the Meath and Westmeath Foxhounds.

The Lands include 575 acres of excellent arable and pasture land, 51 acres of plantations, 217 acres of bog, and 64 acres on lake shore, all in hands. 119 acres are let to tenants.

The above affords a splendid opportunity of securing a first-class freehold residential and agricultural estate. Price £34,000.

Parts of the above-mentioned lands in hand, containing about 200 acres of the townland of LISPOPPLE, and 280 acres of DERYA, would be sold as separate lots.

For further particulars, Conditions of Sale, etc., apply to

T. N. EDGEWORTH, Esq., Cherbury, Booterstown, Co. Dublin; or to

The Land is, with the exception of a small portion, all in grass, and is well watered, and being so near the city is very valuable for dairying or market accommodation purposes.

The Residence is commodious, containing 3 reception, 6 family bedrooms, dressing-rooms, and the usual appointments.

Stable Yard—Accommodation for 4 horses (loose stalls), with coach-house, harness-room, shed, etc. In addition, there is a farmyard adjacent, containing cowshed, hay barn, etc. There is a Sulphur Spa on the holding.

ST. LAURENCE MANOR is very conveniently situated, owing to its close proximity to the city (3 miles) and with the Lucan electric tram passing the gate.

For Conditions of Sale apply to Messrs. W. G. BRADLEY and SONS, Solicitors, 11 Lower Ormond quay, Dublin; or

BELMONT MANSION AND DEMESNE.

BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE AND SUPERIOR LANDS FOR SALE.

G. W. TAYLOR HAS BEEN FAVOURED WITH INSTRUCTIONS BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE

TO SELL BY PUBLIC AUCTION, ON THE PREMISES,

On WEDNESDAY, 17th SEPTEMBER, 1919,

AT THE HOUR OF TWO O'CLOCK (SUMMER TIME) IN ONE OR MORE LOTS.

THE VERY BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE AND LANDS OF NEWTOWN, KNOWN AS "BELMONT."

BELMONT MANSION, with 36 acres, Statute measure, or thereabouts, is one of the most beautiful Gentleman's Residence in County Wexford. It is situated about two miles from the town of Wexford, midway between Ferrycarrig and Ardcandrisk, is approached by two avenues; the front avenue is beautifully timbered, opens from Slaney road, and ends in a wide sweep in front of cut-stone entrance porch, which is supported on heavy granite pillars, the entrance hall being approached by flight of massive stone steps, which are full width of porch.

The Mansion House contains handsome and commodious entrance hall, drawingroom, diningroom, library, morningroom, 2 smokerooms, 13 family bedrooms, bathroom, 4 w.c.'s, kitchen, servant's hall, larders, pantries, scullery, and 6 servants' bedrooms. There is a spacious yard, coach-house, garage, stabling for 10 horses, and accommodation for four men.

The Mansion House is beautifully situate in nicely timbered park-like lands, and commands an extensive view of the surrounding country. There is a considerable quantity of valuable timber on this lot (heavy Scotch fir and spruce, etc.). The gardens are very superior, and are well stocked with fruit trees, etc., and the greenhouses are also fully stocked. The pleasure grounds are nicely laid out, and the grazing lands are of prime quality, the entire forming a beautiful and desirable residence, held free of rent for ever. The grazing of the lawn is let on the eleven months' system up to 1st December next, and the purchaser of this lot will be given immediate possession, subject to the grazing letting.

Also that part of the Lands of Newtown, opposite Belmont Back Avenue, containing 16 acres 3 roods, 7 perches, Statute measure, prime land, well fenced and watered, with substantial stone-built slated Dwelling House, which needs some repairs.

Also that part of the Lands, Newtown, adjoining Belmont, and containing 95 acres, Statute measure, prime Land, well fenced and watered, with comfortable slated Dwelling House and extensive Out-offices, subject to a terminable Land Improvement charge of £5 4/- to Board of Works, and which will cease 5th April, 1923.

All the property is held in fee-simple, free of rent. The Vendors reserve the right of selling in one or more lots.

For further particulars and Conditions of Sale apply to Messrs. MOORE, KEILY, and LLOYD, Solicitors for the Vendors, 31 Molesworth street, Dublin; or

G. W. TAYLOR, AUCTIONEER, WEXFORD.

PORT OF DUBLIN.

69 NORTH WALL QUAY.

EXTENSIVE AND VALUABLE PREMISES.
With Immediate Possession to Purchaser.
Exceptionally well-circumstanced in relation to the Port.

IMPORTANT TO SHIP OWNERS, EXPORTERS AND IMPORTERS, MANUFACTURERS, and OTHERS REQUIRING PREMISES FOR INDUSTRIAL PURPOSES.

TO BE SOLD BY PUBLIC AUCTION,
With Possession to Purchaser,
On MONDAY, 6th October, 1919,
At the hour of One o'clock, by

JAMES ADAM and SONS, at their Estate Salerooms, 17 MERRION ROW, DUBLIN.

The Sale of these Premises, which have been in the occupation of Robert Brown and Son, Ltd., for the past 50 years, affords an opportunity unique in the history of the North Wall, where land with Quay Frontage has seldom or ever changed hands, and has hitherto been practically unobtainable.

The Premises—parallelogram in form—extend from the North Wall to East Mayor street. The Frontage to North Wall is 60 feet and about 61 feet to East Mayor street, with a total depth of about 474 feet from front to rear, be the same more or less.

Held under two Leases—(1) North Wall Plot for a term of 450 years from 29th September, 1868, at a rent of £100 a year, and (2) the East Mayor street Plot, under Lease for a term of 400 years from 1st August, 1874, at a rent of £45 a year.

For further particulars and Conditions of Sale apply to MAUNSELL, DARLEY, and ORPEN, 18 Stephen's green, Dublin, Solicitors for Vendor; or to

JAMES ADAM & SONS,

Auctioneers, Appraisers, and House Property Estate Agents,

HOTEL METROPOLE

(LICENSED),
PORTRUSH,
COUNTY ANTRIM.

THE Proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, have instructed us to receive PRIVATE PROPOSALS for the Purchase of the above-mentioned High-class Hotel and Premises, together with the Furniture (pre-war, and in splendid condition), and other Effects.

The Premises (including Manager's House adjoining Hotel, and now let at £30 per annum, and a lot of Building Ground suitable for extensions) are held under Lease for a term of 99 years (84 unexpired), subject to the yearly rent of £50.

The Hotel contains Spacious Hall, Lounge, Smoke Room, Diningroom, Drawing and Writing Rooms, and 35 large Bedrooms, sufficient for accommodation of 70 visitors; also a large Motor Garage.

Under the present Management, the business—a first-class one—has PROGRESSIVELY INCREASED. During the last few seasons many intending visitors could not be accommodated, and the HOTEL IS AT PRESENT BOOKED UP UNTIL THE END OF SEPTEMBER. The position is exceptionally convenient, being within five minutes' walk of the Railway Station, and directly overlooking the famous Royal Portrush Golf Links, the main aspect being South.

PRIVATE PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED UP TO 15th SEPTEMBER.

For further particulars apply to CROOKSHANK, LEECH and DAVIES, Solicitors, COLERAINE, CO. DERRY.
